There is nothing much between Sam and heaven,

As all who will look will see, But the highest prices for all grades will be given

At Harris, Gooch and C's.

Yes Sam is older and much uglier too

Than his junior partner G.,

But that will not effect the price You'll get at Harris, Gooch and C's.

For every load of tobacco this local will bring,

To Harris and Gooch we will try,

To send you this paper and not charge any thing,

From now until the election goes by.

The speaking here last Saturday was a howling success.

Every body go to Raleigh with the excursion.

The indication are more and more favorable to Weaver and Field.

Be sure to go to Raleigh on the wagon excursion next Wednesday to hear Gen. Weaver.

So to work if every one does his duty from now until the election, Weaver and Field will surely be elected.

John Perry (colored) who stole a horse from Joseph Brown four miles from Franklinton, also a pair of shoes. He was arrested by policeman Mahone and carried to the county jail.

Harris, Gooch & Co., are still in the field, and all patrons of this paper do well to try them with their tobacco. They have a road beyond reproach and are well known to farmers of all sections of bright tobacco belt, as leaders in liberality and everything that helps the farmers interest and theirs which are identical. They intend to be led by no man, but will steadily pursue their own course of right. Every man shall have his full justice and they shall in the future as the past advocate "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

Oxford is a thriving town. It was our pleasure to spend a few hours there last Monday. Business seems to be lively, especially at the Alliance Tobacco Factory. This factory is running to its full capacity, 2000 pounds per day and Dr. Dolby, the efficient secretary and business manager, tells us he is unable to keep pace with his orders. They manufacture a superior brand (Alliance Red) which cannot be beat, and an old veteran in the use of the weed can truly say that (Alliance Red) is the best chewing tobacco I ever chewed.

When any of our boys get dry or thirsty, be sure to call on Eugene Falkner at Jackson's old stand where you will get the very best.

As far as moneyed combines are concerned they do not care which of the two is elected Cleveland or Harrison. Both serve their interest. Cleveland now has the inside track. His friends worked in harmony with Boss Reid in the House to defeat the silver bill.

People's party speaking in Egypt on Friday Sept. 16, 1892, at 1 o'clock. All go and hear it.

Boys watch our local and ad columns too,

And if you have any money to spend,

I'll be sure to tell you the best thing to do,

And where to go to spend it with friends.

No business man is wise who will not advertise

A business failure means disgrace,

So be wise to-day and make no delay,

But take up your proper Ad space.

The Davis Brothers though young they claim,

To be the bosses of the tobacco ranch,

And all they ask to sustain the same,

Is to be given a fair living chance.

Yes Owen was young when he started out,

But he has settled down in life,

And accepted the adage in Holy writ,

And took unto himself a wife.

And now my readers if you will go

And avail yourself of my advice,

You will carry your tobacco to Davis Bro.,

And you will surely be satisfied with the price.

Do you wish to buy or sell land? Certainly you wish to protect your family and property by insuring. If so we advise you to call on Mr. Jas R Young, who has a long and successful experience in the business and will do well by you

FOUL MURDER but Eugene Falkner escaped by keeping the best whiskey in town. Call on him at Jackson's old stand.
