MISS PASCHALL HAS EXPERIENCE WITH BOMBS
 Tells the People Back Home How They Are Caring For the Wounded and Sick.

The following letter addressed to Mrs. L. H. Langford, of this county, from her niece, Miss Ella Paschall, who went from Warren county to France as a Red Cross nurse last spring, has been received in this office for publication:

Red Cross Hospital
 American Expeditionary Forces
 April 21, 1918.

My Dear Aunt:
 You flatter me when you write and ask me to write a piece for our home paper, The Henderson Gold Leaf. I only wish that I was capable of doing this. I would love the very best to be able to send news that would do good to all those back home. Some day I will try to do so, just give me time.

At present we are very busy. The (Huns) Germans visited us twice last week, but we have gotten quite used to that now. Of course they come at night which means for us to get up right now and get dressed, move all the patients off to another floor. Even with both of their raids they have done very little damage, and we got quite a lot of their men and machines, as you know they always come in, but we are ready for them so they only get in the suburbs of the city.

Air machines drop bombs all they can over this city. This is a lovely city. I like to be here. The view from my window is fine. I would like to have you here. Even now one could hardly tell there was war for everything moves on as usual in the very best business way. These people are a great pleasure loving set. Every evening you will see lots of people going to the shows, and the streets are crowded with men, women and children, yet it has the best there is in France at the front.

Everybody I see thinks and feels that we will win the victory in this war, so we will and we must.
 Our hospital is full of sick and wounded. They come and go all the time. We nurses hardly know some of them before they are gone back to the battle lines or some other place. There are some fine men among those we know.
 Well I don't know how much of this letter will pass the censor and reach you. Give my love to all the neighbors.
 Your niece,
EULA PASCHALL.

HENDERSON RED CROSS TO SEND WORK TO ROME

Supplies Shipped On to Italy For Wounded Soldiers—Sick Sailors Sends Thanks

The Henderson Red Cross Chapter has received a letter from the Atlanta Red Cross headquarters reading as follows:
 "We are sending you for June an additional allotment of 900 small cotton pads. This part of a rush order from our Italian commission in Italy is for the relief of the suffering people there, and it is desired that this be in Rome by September 1st. In order to do this they will have to be finished and shipped from the United States before the 15th of July. It is your desire, we know, to do your best in this, and we know we can count on you."
 Those in charge of the work room here feel quite complimented and gratified to have this order come to Henderson for work to be shipped direct to Italy without being shipped first to Atlanta for inspection. It is proof that the work here has been most satisfactory.
 The Red Cross members have been working hard to comply with this request from headquarters, although it came at a time when the Chautauqua and other things divided their attention, and a large number of the pads have been finished. The members are urged to attend regularly and do their bit towards keeping up with and completing the orders that come to the chapter regularly. And the fact that the work in Henderson has been done so well as to be accepted without inspection is evidence in itself to prove that the members are putting energy and care into the work.
 Last fall a sailor boy was taken from a Seaboard Air Line train seriously ill and left at the Henderson depot in a critical condition, suffering from heart trouble. He asked for the attention of the Red Cross as soon as he was found in the waiting room. The chairman and other members were soon to get the word and the boy was taken to the home of Mrs. W. J. Roberts and later to the Sarah Elizabeth Hospital. A few days ago, Mrs. Alex. Cooper received the following letter from him:

U. S. S. Pennsylvania,
 Care of Postmaster, Fortress Monroe, Va.
 June 8th, 1918.

Dear Mrs. Cooper:
 I misplaced your address, and that is the reason I could not thank you and the Red Cross people at Henderson for what they did for me while I was at the hospital last September. Will you please find out the name of the lady's home where they carried me from the train. Her son works in the bank in Henderson. I don't know how to thank the people of Henderson for what they have done, and I wish to say that my mother and father also want to thank you and the people. My address is U. S. S. Pennsylvania, care Postmaster, Fortress Monroe, Va., Box 6.

With love to all my unknown friends,
 From James B. Calder, Jr.
 P. S.—This is the boy which you sent the flowers to. Please excuse writing.

GOLFER'S KNOWLEDGE OF GROUND HELPED IN RAID

(Correspondence Associated Press.)
 London, May 11.—A golfer's knowledge of the Belgian golf-course at Lombartzyde proved of high military value in a recent British air-raid on the Belgian coast batteries. A naval airman who had played over the Lombartzyde golf course hundreds of times in the days of peace volunteered to put out of action several guns which the Germans had located among the rolling dunes of the famous links.
 He went about his task with a successful contempt born of familiarity. He knew every hill and dip, every likely spot for a gun emplacement, and found about a dozen targets during his new game of "laying them dead on the green." He had been compelled to ruin the particular putting-green that he liked best on the links.

CHARLOTTE AND WINSTON TO HAVE SEVEN-CENT FARES

Charlotte, June 20.—Petition for authority to increase street car fares at Charlotte and Winston-Salem from five to seven cents was filed today with the Corporation Commission at Raleigh by the Southern Public Utilities company, according to announcement tonight by Z. V. Taylor, president. It is proposed by the company to sell tickets four for 25 cents, obtainable from conductors, he said. Increased labor, material and operating costs are given as grounds for making the requested increase necessary.

CARDS BEING MADE FOR STAMP DRIVE

Number Of Lady Workers Preparing Index For Canvassers To Use TO BEGIN MONDAY

Meeting of All Township Chairmen And All War Savings Campaign Workers Set For Saturday A. M.
 A corps of young women, all of them giving their time and their services to the government without cost, were at work Thursday, as they were Wednesday, in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce, copying cards for the use of the canvassers who will next week call upon the citizens of Vance county and wait on them for pledges and subscriptions to the War Savings campaign. The cards are being filled out, and the name of practically every adult in the county will be placed on the cards.
 A meeting of the chairman of the nine townships will be held here Saturday morning with Chairman W. A. Hunt, in charge of the county campaign, and at that time the canvassing committees will be named. All other War Savings workers are urged to attend this meeting, also. The campaign will begin in earnest Monday of next week and will last through Friday, which has been designated as War Savings day throughout the United States by President Wilson. Large posters have been put up in various sections of the city calling upon the people to rally to the campaign when it begins.
 The preachers are expected to give the campaign a boost and a send-off next Sunday morning, and there will be active canvassing every day of the week up until and through Friday.

FRENCH MURDERER HAS REFUSED PARDON PLEA

He Murdered Woman For Her Few Small Francs, and Judge Said He Wasn't Fit to Live
 (Correspondence Associated Press)
 Paris, May 16.—Camille can der Marden was sentenced to death by the Assises of Seine et Oise some weeks ago. He had murdered an elderly woman to rob her of a few francs. There were no extenuating circumstances and in sentencing him the judge said that he was a monster who did not deserve to live.
 Some days ago his attorney asked him to sign a plea for clemency which would be presented to President Poincare, asking that sentence of death be commuted to life imprisonment. Van der Marden refused to put his name at the bottom of the document, saying: "The judge said I didn't deserve to live." His lawyer, however, presented the plea for clemency over the refusal of his client.
 This morning President Poincare received the following letter: "Please do not pardon me. I don't want to be pardoned. The judge said I wasn't fit to live." It is signed Van der Marden.
 Van der Marden will be executed.

FROM 18 TO 45 YEARS WILL BE DRAFT AGE LIMIT

If Congress Decides It Necessary—May Call 1,000,000 Men Between July and January.
 Washington, June 20.—Should Congress decide that it is necessary at this time to extend the draft age limits either below 21 or above 31, or both, no opposition will be offered by the War Department.
 In authorizing this statement today Secretary Baker said the department could see no immediate need for such action, although the date already is in sight when it will become necessary to replenish the class one reservoir.
 A bill by Senator France, of Maryland, to extend the draft to men from 18 to 45 is now before the Senate Military committee and at a hearing on it last Saturday Provost Marshal General Crowder stated that extension of the draft ages would be necessary. He told the committee that 3,000,000 men would be under arms by next August 1 and that class one would be exhausted by the first of next year.
 The present tentative schedule of the War Department is said to contemplate the arming of 4,000,000 men by next January 1. That would mean the calling of 1,000,000 men between July and January and the absorbing of not only the men remaining in class one, from the first registration but those placed in that class under the recent regulation as
