

CANVASS FOR LOAN IN THE WAREHOUSES

Committee of Two To Be On Floors At All Sales During This Week

QUOTA IS $464,000

Names of Buyers, It Is Announced
By Committee, Will Be Published, Showing Who Buys and Does Not Buy.

Vance county's campaign for the Fourth Liberty Loan got well under way Monday, following a meeting of the central county committee held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce. Plans for carrying the drive to every part of the county were discussed, and some of the measures adopted were gotten under way early Monday morning.

It was decided to send committees of two to each tobacco warehouse in the city all this week during the sales. There the matter of the government's appeal will be placed before the farmers who come in to sell their tobacco, and the necessity for their purchasing will be impressed upon them. The meeting Sunday afternoon named one man for each warehouse, and left it to him to select his partner. Those selected Sunday included C. S. Brewer at the High Price warehouse, S. B. Burwell at Smith & Knott, W. T. Watkins at the Planters, E. G. Watkins at Harris & Young, and George A. Rose at Cooper's. All of these men, with their assistants were on the job at the opening of the sales at each place Monday.

It is the plan of the committee to place in each warehouse a roll of honor. On this list will be written the name of every farmer who buys a bond.

It is also announced by the committee that the name of every bond buyer will later be published, the idea being to show to the public the long roster of patriotic men and women of the county who come to the aid of the government at this time.

R. B. Crowder, chairman of the committee for this county, officially announced Monday that the quota assigned to Vance county by the State committee, was definitely fixed at $464,000. This is something like $40,000 less than had been contemplated, and in a measure simplifies the task that faces the county. Nevertheless, it is the largest amount ever asked of Vance for any cause.

In an effort to get all that is due the county in its drive, the committee, through its secretary, R. E. Ranson, has written all local representatives of foreign corporations, asking them to have their companies make their prorata purchases thru the local Liberty Loan committee, so that the county may get the credit for it.

Those in attendance at the committee meeting Sunday afternoon included the following: R. B. Crowder, chairman, R. E. Ranson, secretary, Rev. I. W. Hughes, Miss Leah Perry, E. G. Watkins, George A. Rose, W. T. Watkins, C. S. Brewer, S. T. Peace, E. M. Rollins, R. C. Gary, D. Y. Cooper, R. S. McCain, G. C. Davidson, S. J. Lane, C. P. Sellars, J. D. Cooper, A. J. Harris, W. M. Young, H. E. Chavasse, A. H. Cheek, and S. B. Burwell.

SUCCESS OF THE 30TH DIVISION IN FLANDERS

Washington, Sept. 30.—General Peyton C. March, chief of staff, has made some interesting statement concerning the advance of the Allied Armies, especially the part taken by the Americans in the battle.

In Flanders it was the 30th Division, comprising men from Tennessee and North and South Carolina, which contributed to the success at Mont Kemmel. The 32nd Division—Michigan and Wisconsin troops—commanded by General Haan, took Juvisy and Torny-Torney, near the Hindenburg line.—Radio.

COURT IN SESSION FOR BRIEF PERIOD

Only Motion Cases and No
Jury Trials Called Before
Judge Kerr

Superior court was to convene at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon for a very brief session, at which only motion cases were to be called. Judge John H. Kerr was in the city to preside and Solicitor Garland E. Midyette was to represent the State in such matters as came up for trial.

The regular session of the court for October was cancelled last week by request of the local bar, on account of the press of business which is being attended to by the attorneys of the city in assisting registrants with their questionnaires.

After the session really convened, it was expected that only a few hours would be required to dispose of all cases that were to be attended to at this time. There were comparatively few of this character, and the others that were pending were to be carried over to the March term of court.

THREE MEN ARRESTED CHARGED WITH BURNING LENOIR COUNTY BARN

(Special to the Dispatch.)
Raleigh, Sept. 30.—Deputy Insurance Commissioner F. M. Jordan reports to Commissioner James R. Young that he has just procured the arrest of Frank, Sherman, and Hester Hall, three brothers, on the charge of burning the barn of Will Gilbert in Lenoir County because of malice against Gilbert, who has recently been convicted of distilling on testimony of the Halls and others. The Hall brothers will be tried at Lenoir, with J. F. Spainhour prosecuting. The evidence seems to indicate that the trouble between the Halls and the Gilberts is a dispute over a line between their lines.

FOOTBALL AND BOXING STARS AT CAMP SEVIER

They Contribute a Great Deal to the Athletic Activities of the Soldiers.

Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., Sept. 30.—Bob McWhorter, who it will be remembered made an enviable record as a football player with the University of Georgia 11 years ago, is now in the military service and is stationed at Camp Sevier. He is a captain in the 50th infantry and his old pep and interest in athletics, especially football, is still with him. When Captain Bob was with the Georgia University, every football game in the south was all their own. For three years he was selected as tackle on the all star southern football eleven and he was regarded by many athletic experts as one of the greatest football artists the country ever produced. There are many football players from all sections of the country among the soldiers of Camp Sevier and Captain McWhorter is expected to give valuable assistance in picking out the best of them and to assist in whipping into shape in this camp one of the strongest football aggregations at any camp or cantonment in the country.

Carey Phelan, one of the best known lightweight boxers in the country who has a string of victories over many celebrated pugilists credited to him in Philadelphia, New York and other cities where the great game is in high favor is now in the army at Camp Sevier. Besides putting out an honest day's work daily for Uncle Sam he has accepted the position of boxing instructor at the Knights of Columbus hall in camp and is desirous of giving further service to his country by learning enlisted men all he knows about handling his hands. Already a number of men from various organizations have put themselves under his instruction. Danny Whalen of boxing fame around the rings in Philadelphia town is also at Camp Sevier and has given quite a number of exhibition bouts for the benefit of soldier lads. There are to be found in various organizations in camp, more especially in the 48th, 50th and 90th infantry regiments many soldiers who built up big reputations in civil life by reason of their cleverness with the mitts.

If newspapers over the country who are short of telegraph operators could only have the privilege of visiting the 22nd signal battalion now forming at Camp Sevier and take their pick of such operators, they would have no further worries along that line. Among the signal men in camp now are quite a number who were formerly on the wires for the Associated Press and other great news-gathering organizations throughout the country.

H. D. Rankin, a cartoonist and illustrator with quite a reputation, is now at Camp Sevier. He is a member of company L, 50th infantry. Private Rankin has been in the military service since last March. He was formerly with the Cleveland Plain Dealer, the Chicago News, Chicago Inter-Ocean, Philadelphia Press and other newspapers over the country, where he did cartoons and general illustrating. During the past few years he has been a member of the artist's staff of Cartoon's Magazine and the Red Book.
