Oxford Couple Married.

Durham, Dec. 29.—J. W. Hobgood and Miss Lucy Bell Day were quietly married Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walters, on Holloway street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. C. Wilcox, pastor of Trinity church. They were attended by Miss Callie Hobgood and Crudup Hobgood, sister and brother of the groom, and Miss Mary Day, sister of the bride. Among their friends to witness the ceremony were Coy Parham, J. D. Carnes, B. C. Drame, Casper and Earl Critcher, all of Oxford, N. C. They motored to Durham in automobiles. Both the bride and groom are of prominent families, the groom being a son of P. B. Hobgood, and the bride a daughter of Mrs. R. W. Day, all of Oxford. Mrs. Hobgood is a first cousin of Mrs. W. W. Walters, of this city.

Rev. R. M. Andrews.

Rev. R. M. Andrews, of Greensboro, president of the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Conference, will visit relatives in the city and preach at the Methodist Protestant church here next Sunday.

Matthews-Morton.

Oxford, Dec. 29.—A social event of much interest to friends in Virginia and North Carolina was the marriage of Miss Alice Carrington Morton, of Oxford, N. C., to Mr. Edward Gilmer Matthews, of Birmingham, Ala.

They were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Morton, Jr., the Rev. Mr. Oglesby, of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

Owing to a recent bereavement in the groom's family it was a quiet affair. The marriage was preceded by a wedding breakfast given to the bridal party.

Mrs. Matthews is descended from the most prominent families in Virginia and North Carolina. Mr. Matthews comes from one of the oldest families in Alabama. The Matthews have for more than a century been leading citizens of Georgia and Alabama.

The bride entered with her father, Mr. Matthews came in with his best man, Mr. Edward Outlaw Hunt. The bride was attended by Miss Janie Outlaw Hunt. They left immediately for New York and on their return will reside in Raleigh.

Harris-Lambreth.

Mr. Eugene Harris, of Townsville, and Miss Mary Lambreth were married Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lambreth, in the county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. L. Morgan, and was witnessed by many relatives and friends.

PRETTY BRIDGE PARTY IN HONOR MISS PERRY

Mrs. S. P. Cooper Entertained Twelve Tables of Bridge in Honor of Bride-Elect.

Mrs. Sidney P. Cooper gave a beautiful bridge party Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Perry, bride-elect. The decorations were Christmas emblems, the flowers in the dining room were red and white carnations. The table cover was lace and the lights were red candles. Ribbon and holly was used in the decorations.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Martha Everette and Miss Elizabeth Cooper, and were shown into the library by Mrs. D. B. Kimball, Mrs. J. D. Rose, and Mrs. George A. Rose served punch. Mrs. W. B. Parham, Mrs. S. T. Peace and Mrs. Alex. Cuiper served sandwiches.

Then the guests found their places at the tables which was marked with Christmas toys. Bridge was enjoyed for an hour and a half. In the midst of the game, the hostess darkened the house and turned the light on the Christmas tree and announced that Santa Claus had not only been good to the children this year but had arrived at the party with a gift for each guest.

Slips of paper were passed around and the guests were requested to write their own name and to guess the name of Santa Claus. A very large and jolly looking Santa Claus descended the stairs with his enormous sack filled with toys and a large basket on his arm containing a present for each one. He carried a hand organ and played it as he moved among the guests, distributing the gifts. The slips of paper were collected and Mrs. C. H. Turner was the only one who guessed the correct name. The guests came around eager to see Santa Claus as he removed his mask, and it was a complete surprise to every one when they discovered that it was Mr. R. G. Kittrell, the groom-to-be. Just as he removed his mask, he called the name of Miss Mary Perry and presented her with a special gift from the hostess.

The prize was given to Mrs. Turner who presented it to Miss Perry. Misses Elizabeth Cheatham, Lucy Cheatham, Lucy Kittrell, Elizabeth Rose, Martha Everette, Elizabeth and Nellie Perry Cooper assisted in the dining room. A salad course was served with ice cream, cake, salted nuts, candies, etc.

Among the out-of-town guests at the party were Mrs. Lewis Cooper, of Greenville, a recent bride; Mrs. Clara Caswell, of Taunton, Mass., and Miss Edie B. Rigg, of Anderson, W. Va., who has recently moved to Henderson.

What Is It?

PEPSATED ASPIRIN

Tablets of pure aspirin compounded with pepsin, retaining all the medicinal properties of aspirin, but producing no bad after-effects on the stomach.

A valuable remedy for colds, neuralgia, influenza, rheumatism and headache.

Everything else being equal, experiment has shown that medical remedies are more effective in the night than by day. This being owing to the fact that at night the process of absorption are quickened and those of elimination abated. For the same reason the poison of drugs is greater at nights.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter if Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug store is Aspironal, the two minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be hushful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—Adv.
