DEMOCRATS WORRY OVER PROSPECT OF THIRD PARTY NOW

Such a Ticket Would Draw About as Heavily From Them As From the Republicans

MIGHT BE SURETY TO ELECT HOOVER

Roosevelt Would Be Acceptable to Republican Progressives Who Will Bolt Hoover, But Some Other Man Might Not, Is View In National Capital

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Staff Writer Washington, Jan. 9. Third party talk is beginning to worry emocracy's leadership badly, with the country acthally entered upon another presiden tial yea:

Serviciore an independent national candidacy has been a threat against Republican prospects.

In 1912, with the late T. R. in the field it was worse than a threat. 1.1 1921 progressive-ism may have drawn a little from the Democratic rade, but imquestionably it was a far greater drain upon the G. O. P. though net a fatal drain, as in 1912. Next November, however, the Jeffersonian nominee will be the one en-dangered if a triungular contest develops-notwithstanding the fact that the interloper, if any, inevitably will be a progressive Republican, perhaps with a progressive Democratic running mate. like Senator Wheeler, on the ticket with the elder Senator Le Foliette eight years ago.
