You Must Not Be Without A Daily
Newspaper In 1932

Perhaps no year within the past generation will produce as much real live news as 1932, especially from a political standpoint. This year we must elect a president of the United States, a governor of North Carolina, to say nothing of the many State and County officers to be chosen, all of which will make very interesting reading. If you keep posted on what's going on in the County, State and Nation, you must take a daily newspaper. Through the Associated Press, the world's greatest news gathering agency and special correspondents at Washington and Raleigh, the Dispatch is prepared to keep you informed up to the minute on all happenings.
