State, Carolina And Duke CONSOLATION PLAY Carry Futt Squads To Atlanta For Games

Raleigh, Feb. 26.-(AP)-Basketball teams of Duke university, the University of North Carolina and N. C. State college, the three members in this state left last night for Atlanta to par ticipate in the Southern conference tournament starting today.

Duke's quintet, carrying the third North Carolina state championship in a row as part of its season's record, barely tops North Carolina's five in possibilities as the Tar Heels whipped Maryland's Old Liners in the only conference game the champions of last year lost this season.

State college's Red Terrors, with an up and down season behind them. are regarded as the dark horse entiry from this section. Playing brilliantly at times, the Terrors scored two victories over the Tar Heels but lost is being given. twice to Duke. Should the Terrors click in the tourney, however, they will give any opposition a battle-royal and may upset lots of dope.

The three teams left for Atlanta on the same train.

Duke, with a record of never having been whipped in first round play of the conference tourney and having been in the finals twice in the last three years, took nine players.

State college, which used an entirely new line-up to beat the Tar Heels 35 to 1 Tuesday night, sent eight players.

THE WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Rev. Mr. Whitten Preaches On "Presumptuous Sin" Thursday Night

A large congregation was present last night for the second evening service in the revival meeting at the First Christian church. The pastor, Rev. R. A. Whitten, who is doing the preaching, spoke on "Presumpt-uous Sin." A solo, "I Shall See Him Pace to Pace," by Miss Hoyle, was a feature of the service for the evening. Rev. Mr. Whitten announced that tonight he would preach on the sub-ject, "How Sin Will Find You Out." The message of Thursday evening, from the text in Psalm 19:13, follows, in part:

"The psalmist turns his eyes inward upon himself and prays to be kept from presumptuous sins. The word sins, as translated from the Greek, means missing the mark. A Christian may take edeliberate aim and do his best and miss the target. A real Christian can not commit sin any more than a dutiful son could strike his aged beloved mother. His love would be too great for such an insult. A real Christian could not willfully insult his God.

"Sin is willful cransgression of God's revealed will. The sin of presumption, which is one of the chief sins of our day, is perhaps the most common sin among church people. Intentional, deliberate disobedience to God's law. Christian scople are responsible for the enforcement, in a large measure of the promotion law. for the observance of the Lord's day, for the weakness of the church in this present age. Sin has been blighting lives for thousands of years, the sin of lying, stealing, lusts, hate and disappointments, degredation and shame and most of the sorrow that has come to the hearts of humanity Blood-thirsty beasts are rare in our day. As many people are killed by lightning each year as die from the bite of poisonous snakes, save in India but a small, tiny insect has taken and continues to take the lives of thousands. The mosquito, probably extinguished a civilized race in Mexico, almost defeated the building of the Panama Canal.

"Little sins ruined and wrecked the life of Sampson. He died the death of a suicide as a result of a multitude of little sins. "Church people find flimsy excuse to keep them from doing their duty to the church or attending its services
