Distinct Compliment To Credit of State, Governor Says; Re-Financing Made Possible by Rigid Economies in Operating Costs Inaugurated In 1932

Raleigh, May 16.—(AP)—Eight North Carolina and four New York banks have agreed to lend the State of North Carolina $5,000,000, and to renew notes aggregating $3,800,000 which come due May 25. Governor O. Max Gardner and State Treasurer John P. Stedman announced today.

The total issue of $5,000,000 will carry an interest rate of six percent. The new $1,200,000 is for general fund use, as was the original $2,800,000. The Chase National Bank, of New York, which has not been listed as lending money to the State for the last ten years, will take $1,000,000 of the new issue. "This is a distinct compliment to the credit of the State," Governor Gardner said.

Re-financing of the $3,800,000 issue in sale of the new issue was made possible only because it was found that the State was reducing its expenditures, Governor Gardner said. Expenditures of governmental costs of the State for the current fiscal year are now $400,113 less than was estimated January 1, he said.

CONDON NEVER SAW BUT ONE KIDNAPER

Evidence in Bronx End of Negotiations To Be Turned Over to Grand Jury In Hearing Tomorrow When That Body Convenes For Its Session

Hopewell, N. J., May 16.—(AP)—Police turned again today to the ransom currency bills as a chief hope for success in running down the kidnap-murderers of the Lindbergh baby.

In his morning news bulletin, Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of State police, disclosed that he had telegraphed the treasurer of the United States asking new vigilance in the countrywide bank search for the notes.

Fifty thousand dollars ransom was paid by Colonel Lindbergh through Dr. John F. Condon, aged educator, who negotiated with persons he believed to be the kidnapers through a series of newspaper advertisements signed "Jafsie."

Colonel Lindbergh kept a list of the serial numbers of every bill, and when the baby was not returned, he appealed to the treasurer of the United States for assistance in tracing them. The treasurer sent a list of the numbers to every national bank in the country.

Colonel Schwarzkopf also disclosed in his morning bulletin that Dr. Condon never had seen but one member of the gang with which he negotiated. While Jersey police were appearing to Washington for help in tracing the ransom money, officials in New York City announced that all evidence available concerning payment of the ransom by Dr. Condon in the Bronx would be presented to the Bronx county grand jury tomorrow.

Revenge Is Considered Most Probable Motive In Lindbergh Tragedy

By CHARLES F. STEWART, Central Press Staff Writer.

Washington, May 16.—Dr. E. E. Dudding, founder and head of The Prisoners' Relief Society, whose underworld acquaintance, perhaps surpasses that of any other man in the country, accepts the finding of the Lindbergh baby's body as verification of a theory he has expressed from the first—that the kidnaping was at least as likely to prove an act of revenge a saner attempt to extort ransom.

"Fantastic as the idea may seem," the doctor told me one day or two after the crime was committed, "the colonel has many bitter enemies."

"Jealously is, of course their inspiration. To make this frame of mind clear let me quote a conversation I had with one of my own charges directly following the theft of the baby.

"The individual I mention could not possibly indeed have been connected with the Lindbergh atrocity. He say service, however, in France, during the war, as an aviator. Back home and demobilized he served a prison term for an offense of which he unquestionably was guilty. Recently his eyes failed and to his desire some of the bureau for assistance. It was forthcoming, but, he thought, grudgingly.

"Relating his experience to me he said, 'Lindbergh ran not half the risk in flying the Atlantic that I faced day after day on the western front and here he is at least a millionaire while I have trouble to get a pair of cheap glasses.'

"Add to that fellow's rankling anger at what he considered the injustice of fate and to his desire somehow to give it the concreteness of some personality—add to these the streak of mental abnormality which is common to the criminal tempera-
