

Good Year Reported By West End P. T. A.

(Contributed)

A resume of the work of the West End Parent-Teacher Association shows that under the direction and able leadership of their president, Mrs. J. H. Tucker, the association has carried on its good work as usual, serving the school months of 1931-32.

The outstanding accomplishment was that of providing lunches for the undernourished children of the school. Mrs. J. F. Hicks, chairman of the committee of grade mothers, received a rising vote of thanks from the members of her untiring efforts in seeing that sandwiches and fruit were provided each day for the children, these were given by the members, while the necessary milk and soap was paid for by the association funds.

Mrs. Ralph Thompson, chairman of the ways and means committee, was instrumental in helping to raise a good part of the money. She and her committee worked hard to make a success of the fall festival which was held in October for this purpose.

Mrs. L. R. Gooch, of the program committee, prepared an entertaining program for each meeting. The finest of these was the Washington birthday celebration, in which the children of the school took part in the splendid pageant of the life of George Washington, this was coached by the teachers, who were praised for their fine work.

The other committee chairmen and their committee gave good reports of their year's activities; and all the members cooperated in making the year 1931-32 a fine one in the history of the association.

At a call meeting a parent study group was organized which will carry on its work until meeting next season.

This form of association was one that was recommended by Dr. Harold Meyer, who spoke at a father's night meeting, held jointly with Clark Street and Central schools.

The association spent $196 in their work, most of it for lunches, and they also conducted a pre-school clinic for those who expect to enter school next year.

The association had an exhibit at the Golden Belt Fair that won first prize.

Officers were elected at this meeting for the next year as follows:

Mrs. L. D. Wall, president, Miss Sue Kelly, vice president, Mrs. John Lee Wester, secretary and Mrs. H. A. Dennis treasurer.

Three Deeds Are Filed On Monday For Land Sales

Three deeds involving the transfer of real estate were filed Monday with the register of deeds.

Al. B. Wester, trustee, conveyed to Mrs. Lena L. Wester for $2,500 the old Wester homestead on North Garnett street following a foreclosure sale.

Mrs. Grace M. Day, widow, of Henrico county, Virginia, and James P. Hardee and wife, of Lenoir county, sold to J. P. Platt and wife, of Henrico county, Virginia, 87 1/4 acres of land near Hicks' Cross Roads, for $10 and other considerations.

J. O. Platt and wife, of Henrico county, Virginia, and James P. Hardee and wife, of Lenoir county, sold to Mrs. Grace M. Day, of Henrico county, Virginia, 100 acres of land near Hicks' Cross Roads for $10 and other considerations.

PRAYER MEETING IS LARGELY ATTENDED

The regular Monday afternoon laymen's prayer meeting was held yesterday afternoon at Holy Innocent's Episcopal church, and was one of the most largely attended sessions of any recent week. The meeting, as usual, consisted only of singing of hymns, reading of Scripture passages and prayers.

On next Monday afternoon the meeting will be held in the First Methodist church. The public is invited to all the services.

PAUL GREEN'S PLAY GIVEN AT OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Chapel Hill, May 24.—Ohio State University will stage a North Carolina folk play, written at the University of North Carolina, as one of the feature entertainments of this year's summer school.

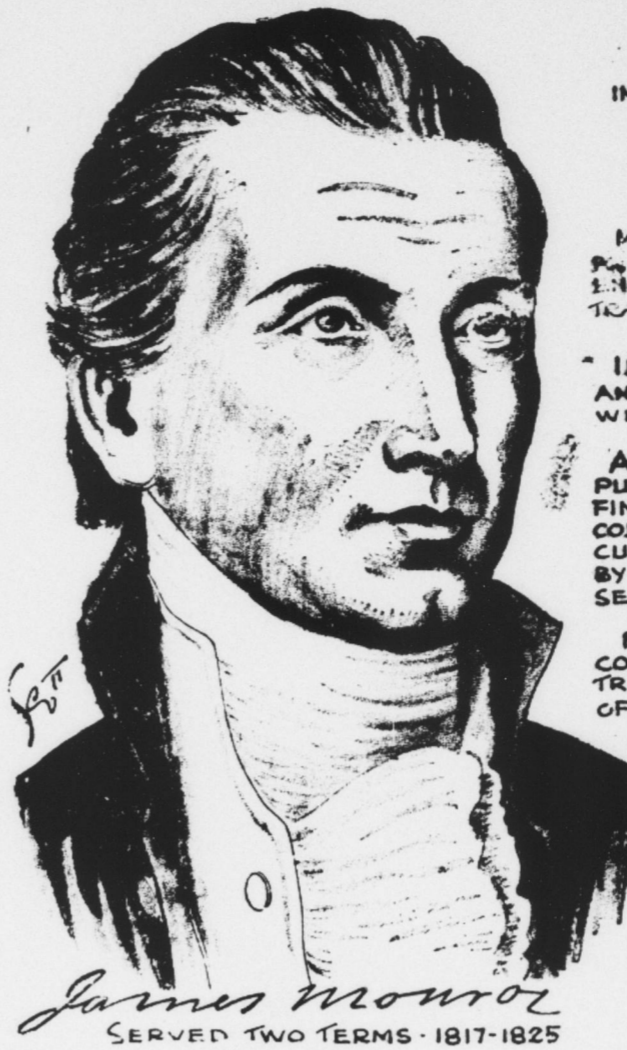

The play is "Tread the Green Grass." Paul Green, professor of philosophy at Carolina, is the author, and the music was written by Lamar Stringfield, research associate in the Institute of Folk Music.

Green and Stringfield will go to Ohio the first of July to direct the production which probably will be presented around July 13.

DR. GREENLAW LAUDED BY FORMER COLLEAGUES

Chapel Hill, May 24.—"Whatever he put his shoulder to was sooner than later a going concern; for he brought to the work the imaginative urge and the practical drive," writes Dr. John Manning Booker in the dedicatory sketch for the current issue of "Studies in Philology," the annual Renaissance number which is presented as a memorial to the late Dr. Edwin Greenlaw, for years Dean of the Graduate School and head of the English Department in the University of North Carolina and later Sir William Osler Professor of English in Johns Hopkins University.
