Raleigh, June 7.—(AP)—Three prisoners confined at the State Prison farm at Cary, four miles from here, shot and fatally wounded D. H. Brantley, camp steward, this morning and made their escape in an automobile they commandeered from a passerby. Brantley died in a hospital this afternoon several hours after a pistol bullet from a weapon in the hands of one of the three plowed into his side. The prisoners, James Autry, Robert Cook and Dud Travis, all white men, shot Brantley while struggling with him over the possession of a shotgun. They had previously taken him unaware from the back, placed a pistol against his body and ordered him to give them safe passage from the farm camp stockade. Brantley complied with the orders that he conduct the men from the camp and ordered a guard to put down his shotgun. As one of the escaping men believe had been either Travis or Cook, reached for the shotgun, Brantley grappled with him. He discharged both barrels of the gun, and was then shot.

POOLS IN MARKET WOULD BE CRIME

Senator Wheeler Would
Also Prohibit Short Selling
In Stocks

Washington, June 7.—(AP)—Legislation to make short selling and participation in stock market pools a crime was advocated in the Senate today by Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana. "I hope the banking committee will go to the bottom of this stock market debacle," said Wheeler. "Not so much with the idea of sending somebody to the penitentiary, but with the idea of passing legislation to prevent this thing occurring in the future, and that will prevent these people from carrying on their pools, and likewise make it criminal to carry on short selling, as has been done in the New York Stock Exchange."

As Hausner Hopped

Balked by fog in a previous attempt to span the Atlantic, Stanley Hausner (inset) is shown as he took an affectionate farewell of his wife just before he took off for the second time from the Floyd Bennett Airport, L. I. At right, Hausner's monoplane, the "Santa Rosa," is shown as it soared away into the mists in the direction of the wide Atlantic, with Poland its ultimate destination.

Eight Dead, 6 Missing After Apartment Burns

Nearly Two Score Others Burned or Injured In Cleveland Holocaust; Huge Crowd Sees Helpless Figures Silhouetted Against Windows Inside

Cleveland, Ohio, June 7.—(AP)—Eight persons were known dead, a half dozen were missing and nearly two score others were burned or injured in an explosion and fire which gutted the six-story Ellington apartment building in downtown Cleveland early today. Firemen from 25 fire companies hacked at the still smoldering ruins in search of the missing, while an investigation was started as to the origin of the explosion. Police and fire wardens reported they were hampered in their work of establishing a definite casualty list by the fact the only list of tenants known to be in existence was destroyed in the fire. Cause of the blast was unknown. The Ellington hotel, of an older era and locale of many brilliant events in the early part of the century, was a scene of horror from about 12:30 a. m. until dawn. A crowd of 10,000 watched in horror as screaming figures were silhouetted against the windows. The body of an unidentified man hurtled from the fifth floor to lodge on a second floor ledge.

J., June 7.—(AP)—Six persons were killed and another seriously injured early today when an ambulance speeding to a hospital with an injured three-year-old girl collided at a street intersection with an automobile. The child suffered a fractured skull in the collision and died several hours later.

HOOVER FURLOUGH IN LIEU PAY CUTS BEATEN IN SENATE

GARNER AID PLAN
ASSURED OF VOTE

War Department Bill Sharply
Trimmed In Senate With Seven Million Lopped Off
From Measure That Passed
House When Vote Was Taken There

Washington, June 7.—(AP)—The Senate today rejected the Hoover furlough plan proposed as a substitute for a ten percent government pay cut. The vote against the furlough plan was 41 to 36. Among those paired against the plan was Senator Bailey, Democrat, North Carolina.

Under the plan advocated by President Hoover, and sponsored in the Senate by Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, officers and employees paid on an annual basis would have been furloughed without pay for one month of the next fiscal year.

The House today voted to consider the Garner relief program under drastic procedure that virtually assures its approval in a short time. By a vote of 205 to 189, it accepted a rule for consideration of the bill, under which it will be impossible to get anywhere in the House with any other relief plan. The War Department appropriation bill, cut from $392,588,146 as passed by the House to $385,794,099, was reported to the Senate today by the appropriations committee.

The committee rejected a House provision cutting the number of army officers from 12,000 to 10,000. The largest single reduction was a slash in rivers and harbors work funds, cut $5,772,510 from approximately $60,000,000 in the House bill.

Hoover Speech In Senate Timed To Show Leadership, Democratic Critics Claim

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

Washington, June 7.—According to loud criticism from the Democrats, President Hoover's recent surprise appearance in the senate chamber, to urge the tax bill's immediate passage, was a stage-managed affair, intended to present the White House tenant in the role of a great leader, making the solons jump through his hoop. Democrats say: It is true that the senators were just ready to pass the tax bill anyway. It is true that they were on the point of doing so late on May 30, when Senator David A. Reed, of Pennsylvania, who reputedly is close to the president, succeeded in stalling off the vote.

It is true that the president paid his visit and delivered his message on May 31 before the lawmakers had had time to start work—and that the bill's passage at that same session probably was calculated to give an erroneous impression to folk unfamiliar with the circumstances, that he had hurried them up.

Nevertheless, it assuredly was not solely to enable President Hoover to exhibit his leadership that Senator Reed prevented action on the tax bill in the waning hours of May 30. Democrats declare.

There was at least one other reason for the delay. It seems to have arisen from an excess of confidence on Secretary of the Treasury Ogden L. Mills' part that

PLAN RECIPROCITY IN WAR DEBT IDEA

New French Premier Makes Hit in Chamber by His Bold Proposal

POLICY AT LAUSANNE

Government Will Take Determined
Stand Against Violation of Treaties and Contracts as Between Nations

Paris, June 7.—(AP)—Premier Edouard Herriot today made a declaration for the reciprocity in war debts and reparations negotiations at Lausanne June 16, and there was every indication he would receive a heavy vote of confidence from the Chamber of Deputies.

The entire Left, with the exception of the communists, and a goodly portion of the Center group, applauded the premier's cabinet speech, and his predecessor, Andre Tardieu, of the moderate Rights, openly accepted some passages.

Premier Herriot opened his Lausanne remarks with the statement that his government would take a determined stand against violation of treaties and contracts between nations.

SHOUSE ACCUSED BY SENATOR WHEELER

Washington, June 7.—(AP)—Jouett Shouse was accused in a statement today by Senator Wheeler, of Montana, of using his national committee office with the Democrats to aid the "stop Roosevelt" movement.

Wheeler was one of those meeting in New York Sunday when friends of Governor Roosevelt decided to offer Senator Walsh of Montana as permanent chairman in place of Shouse, who had been recommended by the arrangements committee.

FOUNTAIN'S CHANCE
REGARDED AS SLIM

Would Have To Hold All
His Former Support and Get Most of Maxwell's,
Which Would Be Very Improbable; But He May Call for the Run-Off

Daily Dispatch Bureau,

BY J. C. HANSEN

Raleigh, June 7. No second primary between J. C. B. Ehringhaus and Lieutenant R. T. Fountain for the Democratic nomination for governor will be called for by Fountain, according to political observers here, on the basis of almost complete returns from Saturday's primary, giving Ehringhaus a lead of approximately 50,000 votes over Fountain, who is in second place. No statement has yet been made by Fountain or his managers, but opinion here is that it would be the height of folly for Fountain to demand a second primary and subject himself to what would be certain to be a second crushing defeat at the hands of Ehringhaus.

A second primary is regarded as inevitable, however, between Robert R. Reynolds, of Asheville, and Senator Cameron Morrison for the nomination for United States Senator. Senator Morrison has not yet made any statement, but very few if any believe he will permit Reynolds to take the nomination by the few thousand votes he is now leading Morrison, without demanding a second primary. Morrison's friends believe he will have an excellent opportunity to win the nomination in a second primary, although Reynolds' friends are also confident that he will again be able to be high man.

The principal interest here is centering in whether or not there will be a second primary between Ehringhaus and Fountain, since there is virtually no doubt about a second primary between Reynolds and Morrison.

If Fountain should demand a second primary, as some few think he may, he would have to get every one of the 93,000 or so votes that he received Saturday, as well as fully half of the 78,000 votes Maxwell received in third place, in order to be within striking distance of the 143,000 to 145,000 votes Ehringhaus received and would have to get two-thirds of the Maxwell vote as well as sell off his own. In order to have a chance to defeat Ehringhaus, and then would have a lead of only about 5,000 votes.

But Fountain can not count on getting all the votes that were cast for him Saturday in a second primary, nor can he count on getting even 50 per cent of Maxwell's vote, much less two-thirds of the Maxwell vote, which would be necessary for him to win, according to political dopsters here. In fact, it is believed here that in a second primary, Ehringhaus would get a majority of not less than 75,000.

U. S. GUNBOAT FIRES ON CHINESE TROOPS

Protection Extended British Ships Being Robbed of $110,000

Shanghai, June 7.—(AP)—The Exchange Telegraph reported today that the American gunboat Oahu had fired on Chinese soldiers who were attacking two British seamen. They were attacking the river boats Wenlu and Kiawoo, the dispatch said.

The Oahu's gunners drove off the attack, with many casualties. The Wenlu was carrying $110,000 in cash when she ran aground last night in the upper Yangtze river, 40 miles below the town of Chungking. The Kiawoo came alongside and started taking off the money cargo and passengers when a large number of Chinese soldiers, whom the Exchange Telegraph described as men of the regular army, appeared and demanded the money. When the demand was refused, there was gunfire.
