

Help For Bonus Seekers Is Sought By Resolutions In Both Senate And The House

HOUSE WILL VOTE MONDAY WHETHER TO CONSIDER IDEA

Brookhart Calls on War Department To Issue Rations to the Expenditory Forces

HOUSE BILL WOULD GET ARMY KITCHENS

Meanwhile, Bonus Seekers Form What They Say Will Be Permanent Organization To Agitate Their Demands; Plainclothesmen Watch Communists

Washington, June 9.—(AP)—Federal aid for the thousands of war veterans who have converged on the capital to demand immediate cash payment of the soldiers bonus was sought today in resolutions introduced in both branches of Congress.

Meanwhile, the bonus expeditionary force established an organization they claimed would be permanent to agitate their demands.

A House vote on whether to give the legislation formal consideration has been promised for next Monday.

A resolution calling on the War Department to issue army rations to unemployed veterans was introduced by Senator Brookhart, Republican, Iowa.

The rations would be distributed in such manner as the secretary of war might determine.

At the same time a resolution directing Secretary Hurley to supply army sheltering and kitchen equipment for the bonus marchers was introduced in the House by Representative Keller, Democrat, Illinois.

Washington, June 9.—(AP)—A special detail of plain clothesmen watched over communist headquarters today as the bonus expeditionary forces meanwhile established another organization they claimed would be "permanent."

This organization will handle the affairs of the 8,000 bonus payment seekers now here, and additional groups en route, including a treasurer to receive and disburse funds for food purchases.

Police paid special attention to the communist activities to preclude any surprise demonstration. Their headquarters had been opened to all members of the Workers Ex-Service Men's League, a radical organization.

Reports from Raleigh said that Reynolds-Morrison fight prestage a general battle over prohibition at the State Democratic convention there next week, at which delegates-at-large to the national convention will be selected.

Price Stabilization Plan At International Parleys Would Get Strong Support

By CHARLES F. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer
Washington, June 9.—Exactly who suggested an international economic conference, to be held some time soon at one of the big capitals of the world, no one seems to know.

Maybe the idea evolved spontaneously, out of the depression.

The newspapers are discussing it considerably, anyway.

Whatever the plan's origin, Washington naturally regards it askance, suspecting an attempt to reopen the subject of debt cancellation. As the story is being circulated, however, it is made to appear that price stabilization is the only object sought.

DEFICIT REDUCED PAST TWO MONTHS

Cut From $786,117 to $559,358, Latter Figure Including $433,767 In Notes Held In New York Bank From Smith's 1928 Presidential Campaign

New York, June 9.—(AP)—John J. Raskob, Democratic national chairman, it was learned today, has wiped off the slate $100,000 owed him by the Democratic National Committee, and has thus contributed into an outright gift his $100,000 credit which was to have been paid on completion of the $1,500,000 victory drive.

A report of the assistant treasurer of the national committee filed with the clerk of the House of Representatives in Washington today, revealed that Raskob had cancelled and surrendered two promissory notes of the committee for $50,000 each. The report covers the period from March 1 to May 31.

The report showed that the committee still owes Raskob $120,250, and that the deficit between March 1 and May 31 was reduced from $786,117 to $559,358. Included in the deficit, according to the report, is the sum of

FOUNTAIN'S ATTACK HAD REACTION ALSO

Secretary Hartness Was Ousted, Too, Because He Stuck To Simmons in 1930; Maxwell's Poor Showing Due to Hot Fight on Extremes on Both Sides of Him

Daily Dispatch Bureau, in the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, June 9.—Those who run for public office on the Democratic ticket in North Carolina had better keep their records straight and abide by the record of the party, especially if they ever want to run for office again and be reelected.

This has been demonstrated in previous elections and primaries, but had been driven home in the primary of last week as never before, according to most of those in political circles here.

Lieutenant Governor R. T. Fountain was defeated and ran a poor second in his race for the nomination for governor largely because he so bitterly assailed the record of the Democratic party in North Carolina and made such bitter personal attacks upon the State's Democratic governor, rather than because of any outstanding campaign made by J. C. B. Ehringhaus, who led the ticket, according to most observers here. The fact that Ehringhaus stood by the record of the party, defended its record and the record of its governor, aided him, of course, as much as Fountain's attack injured his chances.

Republicans Begin Hearing Contests In The Convention

Chicago, June 9.—(AP)—Chairman Fess of the Republican National Committee announced today that hearings on delegate contests for seats in the Republican National Convention would probably start tomorrow. The hearings had been set for late today, but Fess said it was likely that the would be the filling of vacancies on only work to be dispatched today the committee caused by inability of some members to be here.

Fess made the announcement as he called the convention arrangements committee to order behind closed doors to go over final plans for the convention.

SAYS CONSTITUTION SHOULD BE ELASTIC

Chief Justice Hughes Addresses Federal Judges At Asheville

Asheville, June 9.—(AP)—Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes, addressing a conference of Federal judges of the fourth circuit here today, said the judiciary should interpret the Constitution in the light of new conditions.

"We should be faithful to our supreme obligations," he said, "if we interpreted the great generalities of the Constitution so as to forbid flexibility in making adaptations to meet new conditions, and to prevent the correction of new abuses incident to the complexity of our life, or as crystallizing our own notions of policy or personal views of economic and our theories of moral or social improvement."

Attending the conference are the judges of the fourth circuit court of appeals, and the district judges of North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland.

Robinson Warns Senate He Will Demand Senate Action Tomorrow on $300,000,000 Emergency Loans to States To Help the Unemployed There

Washington, June 9.—(AP)—Relief legislation forged to the forefront of congressional attention today with moves in both Senate and House aimed to help the helpless.

Here's what happened:

The House Rules Committee assured an early opportunity for the House as a whole to vote on the Fulmer bill to use 40,000,000 bushels of Farm Board wheat and 500,000 bales of cotton for the destitute.

The Senate Agriculture Committee decided to sanction the McNary resolution which boosts the wheat to be made available to 50,000,000 bushels. The wheat already allotted amounts to 40,000,000 bushels, most of which has been used.

A preferred legislative status in the House also was voted for the Senate bill allowing the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to make loans for crop planting and cultivation.

And in the Senate the Democratic leader, Robinson of Arkansas, warned he was ready to invoke drastic procedure to get the Senate tomorrow to take up the emergency $300,000,000 for loans to states to help the unemployed.

Chairman Reed of the military committee had refused to be a party to a unanimous consent agreement to take the matter up then, pending disposition of the army supply bill.

Then it was that Robinson served notice he would move to consider the proposition to morrow if the army appropriation is not approved by that time.

Early House action is expected on the wheat-cotton measure, which has the support of the Democratic leadership.

Chairman Payne, of the Red Cross, has let Congress know the first 40,000,000 bushels of wheat will be exhausted by September, and additional grain will be needed to carry on the work.

Chairman Jones, of the Agriculture Committee, is seeking a rule allowing early disposition of the bill, testified to those who could grant the rule that the cotton called for can be used to make clothing for the jobless, under agreement with cotton mills.

Chicago, June 9.—A president of the United States will be chosen in Chicago before the month is ended.

The Republican convention will begin on Tuesday, June 14. The Democratic convention on Monday, June 27. No matter whom the people of the United States may desire or prefer, a group of delegates will make the decision, at the bidding of a handful of leaders.

That is nothing new or startling. The American two-party system and the indirect choice of president have
