VISION OF MORNING. suddenly I saw the morning in flaver. The mighty morning housed of five bloom; pame of the purpled Orient, lodged all to meenly Wistress of tallest tower, of deepest Twixt the white curtain's of earth's humblest room. I know not how that glory lay encompassed, Infestimal within my vision's shere cely I instant knew twas descration stand beholding, eve entranced.

Lest mortal bitterness breathe on it mortal fear. -Anne Young in New York Times

Guests of Mrs. W. W. Parker. Miss Hazel Marsley and brother. Alton, are spending the week-end with Mrs. W. W. Parker.

Miss Margaret Hill and Miss Lila Hil of Beaufort, are guests in the

To B. P. W. Convention. Mrs. W. D. Massee, Misses Meta Rocket Elizabeth Fox and Mary Mc-Elwee left today for Winston-Salem to attend the B. P. W. convention

Attend B. P. W. Convention. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Green, Miss Car-ne Draper, Mrs. Crawford Daniel and Mrs. H. A. Jordan left yesterday for Winston Salem where they will attend the B. P. W. convention in that

Bobbitt News By MISS MARION WOODLIEF

mmun.ty niet at Simms Bridge on Te R ver Thursday affernoon to en-% its ng. swimming and afterwards 1 xinic supper. A number of small te were caught. Miss Madolyn Ellinges catching seven which was the age number caught by any one

There enjoying the picnic were: Mary Alien Rowland, Enid Keriey, Clarice Blanks, Myrtle Mitchell, Salhe Machell. Annie Laurie Rowland and Marion Woodbief. Messrs. Woodrow Hayes, D. T. Hayes, Edwin Ellington, Kimball Ellington, Paul Rowland. Paul Kerley, Donald Mitchell, Alex Finch, Charlie Kittrell, Dwight Rewland and Rudolph Rowland.

Miss Annie Laurie Rowland had as her guests Sunday afternoon Misses Madelyn Ellington, Mary Allen Row land, Mabel Leonard, Enid Kerley Margaret Brown, Hallye Brown, My rile Mitchell and Saltie Mitchell. Messrs. Paul Kerley, Claude Kerley. Biph Kerley, Elliot Brown, Bill Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. Fess Fuller.

Mrs. Josie Woodlief had as her rier's Thursday, Mrs. E. B. Moss and Miss Chrice Blanks.

Mesers. Hickman Finch, Norman Smith and Dorsey Woodlief attended the graduation dance of the nurses of the Park View Hospital given in the Masenic ball room at Rocky Mount. Thursday evening.

Richard "Skeets"

COOK GALLACHER

Also Featurette Comedy 'JIMMY'S NEW VATCH'' Also Silly Symphony Cartoon

Coming Wednesday

'Wayward' 10c Everybody

Nancy Carroll

Thursday-Friday GEORGE BANCROFT "World and the Flesh"

STEVENSON

C SOCIETY NEWS V

CHURCH SOCIETIES ANNOUNCEMENTS

They're Off! I'M AFRAID TO TAKE ETTA TO HE THIS DANCE - I HEARD HER TALKING ON THE PHONE -SHE WAS GOING 10 FLIRT WITH ALLTHE BONS !

White-Wood Wedding Solemnized In The First Baptist Church, Oxford

The marriage of Miss Mary Wood, of Oxford, and John Jennings White, dining room which was beautifully of this city, ways solemnized in the First Baptist church in Oxford last night, and was attended by a number of Henderson people. Mr. White is a pharmasict with the Kerner Drug Company, and is well known to many friends in this city and county. The following item about the wedding was published Friday in the Oxford Public Ledger, in addvance of the wedding:

"Of widespread social importance is the wedding of Miss Mary Wood and John Jennings White of Henderson which will be celebrated tonight in the First Baptist Church at eight o'clock. "After the rehearsal on Thursday night the bridal party and out of town guests were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Wood. parents of the brideelect. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Hugh Peed who showd them to the brides book, presided over by Miss Patsy Montague. Miss Lillian Cheatham invited them upstairs where Mrs. S. I. Puryear showed the guests the bride's numerous and lovely gifts. After which the guests were invited into the dining room where the cake was cut. The bride cut the ring, little Agnes Clyde Harris, good news, Miss Dorothy Parham the thimble, J. Robert Wood, Jr., sports, Mr. J. Robert Wood the heart, Mrs. Tyree Currin, good luck Mrs. F. L. Hood wisdom, Mrs. Hugh Peed, knowledge.

CHAPTER 31

had been carried out. The schooner was riding at anchor a few hun-

"Ahoy:" and Ton, waved his arm to the deck watch. "Send the mate

"We'll have to make arrangements for guarding this place thoroughly, twenty-four hours a day," Tom said. interpreting his action to me. The mate fastened the boat and climbed

"Can you round up a dozen good men for guarding this place. Pinga?" be asked. "Men you can trust." The mate nodded and Tom continued: "Post them on regular ship's watch or any way you choose. You will be in charge and responsible for Tom turned to the mate: "Keep a that man not to stand close to any corner of the building. Station the only have two automatics. Holmes' around here, and we can't afford to have them crippled."

ropes on board."

We don't expect any trouble, but

We had been in the islands long

'How about arms?" I asked. "We jammed and will have to be fixed others where ever you see fit."

man in the tower, one on the main floor and one outside—and caution smooth composure was perfect again.

understand Livingston is a long way six now," he said quietly, meaningly.

from here, but he might come back and if he should happen to we'll be first." Pauo answered Tom. "I ap-ready for him!"

"Livingston is one bad man!"
Pinga said darkly.
We agreed with that sentiment
The sentiment was and continued thoughtfully — "and yet I believe that Providence was the sentiment of the sentiment was and continued thoughtfully — "and yet I believe that Providence was the sentiment of the sentimen erfectly.

"Have the schooner in at the pier Power took you to that book store and send a couple of boys up to the in Chicago that afternoon and palace just before sundown." Tom brought me four loyal friends, know-ordered. "Have the big rock' and the ing that I had need of them. There opes on board."

The mate nodded understandingly.

The had been in the islands long

"We'll all go right through with skiff and rowed over.

up on the dock.

"The guests then sojourned into the decorated with its table cover of Its lian cut work and lace and a centerpiece of sweet peas and larkspur Here they were served an ice cours, followd by nuts and dcorated mints carrying out a color scheme of green and white by Mrs. Reuben Green. Misses Lucille Ellington, Marie Turlington Helen White.

"The bridgel party is composed of Mrs. Keith Wade of Washington, D. C., sister of the bride as matron of honor; Miss Aleise Godsey of Richmond, Va., maid of honor; the attendants will be Mrs. Paul West of Fayetteville, N. C., Mrs. Abner Har ris, of Roseboro, N. C., Mrs. James Wheeler Henderson, N. C., and Mrs. F. L. Hood of Oxford, Dr. Clarence White of Henderson will act as best man. The ushers will be J. Robert Wood, Jr., of Oxford, N. C., Bill White of Pittsburgh, Pa. Howard White of Townsville, N. C. and Dr. Wheeler of Henderson.

Among hte out-of-town guests pre sent for the wedding are: Mrs. J. J. Whate, Townsville, mother of the groom; Mrs. L. F. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Harris, Agnes Clyde Harris; Mrs. Ernest Tyler, Roxobel; Mr. Jack Tyler, Mrs. Richard Walters. Mrs. Molie Bass. Miss Willie Cooper, erine Woolridge, Miss Aleise Godsey, Mrs. George Crump of Chester, Va.

A Story of Mystery and Love in The South Seas

CHAPTEIT TO A COUNTY OF THE SUN WAS well over in the west, but the trade wind, which in these latitudes doesn't die until almost sun-down, was still fanning the island with its delightful breath. It was most welcome as we strolled out on the dock. I noticed that orders and possibly get the appointment."

Actill a the adventure ne wants pretty expert interrogators. Newspaper folk are trained in the art of asking questions and poking into people's affairs. You have given rather a large order!"

"You would make a good politician," I grinned "But as long as you have 'sent him in Tino will probably get the appointment."

"You have never seemed to 'poke' into mine particularly," she laughed.
"We were sitting on stones in the laughed."
"We only 'poke' when it is our to the deck watch. "Send the mate ashore!" The man understood for he said quietly. "Flow is she feeling now?" Ione questions, prx, probe and quiz—why, we would think nothing of a little comfortably around the living room.

preventing any surprise attack. I It was the 'climbers' who invariably see them in cold print they get don't think there'll be one, but after felt it necessary to try o impress frightened and promptly put the wetter have them eat at the palace, and they can bunk either with you on the schooner or at the boat house." I said. "If you need blankets or anything else come."

When sees a lot of living around a metropolitan newspaper, and it makes us pretty tolerant, in spite of the protective vencer of light cynhere. "Don't worry, girl." Leave the sees of anything else come. We see a lot of living around a metropolitan newspaper, and it makes us pretty tolerant, in spite of unreliability."

"Don't worry, girl." Leave them eat at the palace and they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can be said they can bunk either with protective vencer of light cynhere. The said they can be said they can be

"We aren't expecting any trouble."

"I am going to tell you all I know of the story of that black pear! Tom stated. "But we aren't taking any chances. Be sure those iton aea doors are down on the boathouse after dark. Those boats are our legs' around here, and we can't afford to have them cripples."

"I am going to tell you all I know of the od, and so as we talked I kept watching the path up from the pier. I had a view that commanded the approach.

"Unum around here, and we can't afford to have them cripples."

"You have them cripples."

terrupted. "W. don't want to pry

we had been in the islands long enough to know their customs.

"What about Tino?" I asked Tom as we four strolled leisurely back toward the palace. "Think he has been in 'jail' long, enough?"

"We'll all go right through with you," Ione said quietly with a smile.

"We simply refuse to be left out emphatically. "Why, I think this is simply too precious for words! Oocoo!"

"We'll all go right through with you," Ione said quietly with a smile.

"We simply refuse to be left out emphatically. "Why, I think this is simply too precious for words! Oocoo!"

"We'll all go right through with you," Ione said quietly with a smile.

"We simply refuse to be left out everything she knew of her far connection with that great to precious for words! Oocoo!"

"Any questions that you want to ask, as I go along, I'll be glad to answer," Pauo said.

I grinned at her: "You have four too connection with that great to precious for words! Oocoo!"

We had been tested, and there a subtle compliment in her of the connection with that great to precious for words! Oocoo!"

We had been tested, and there a subtle compliment in her of the connection with that great to precious for words! Oocoo!"

We had been tested, and there a subtle compliment in her of the connection with that great to precious for words! Oocoo!"

We had been tested, and there a subtle compliment in her of the connection with that great to precious for words! Oocoo!"

We had been tested, and there a subtle compliment in her of the connection with that great to precious for words! Oocoo!"

Piano Pupils of Mrs. W. W. Parker Give Recital at Church; Awards Announced

rium of the First Baptist church.

The hall was beautifully decorated with larkspur, roses and a back ground of pines, while the children themselves were as radiant as the flowers. The following pupils took part in the program:

Ada Ruth Stancil, Jane Thompson Ellen Trogden, Peggy Parker, Mary Elizabeth Poythress, Mollie Bugg Ellis, Dorothy Brinkley, Rowena Daniel, Bessie Mae Johnson, Frances Daniel, Charlotte Wester Bertha Futrelle.

Each piece was renderd with car and accurarcy, their interpretation and technic would do credit to an adult, which reflects credit on their The performances showed admirable training in memory work and precision.

Monthly recitals held during the year have served to give poise and modest self possession.

The toy orchestra of the West End school rendered an attractive number Its members were: Annie Mae Bruin.

Richmond; Mrs. S. I. Puryear, Robert Gray-Puryear, Mrs. Keith Wade Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul West, Fayetteville; Bill White, Miss Dixie J. Walters, Branchyille, Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman S. C.; Mrs. J. Z. Godsey, Miss Cath- of Wise, N. C., sister of the groom, we would think nothing of a little job of housebreaking to steal pic-

"Go as far as you like." Pauo an-

"It occurred to me at the time that

She studied the soft pattern of the rug at her feet for a few seconds.

Ezra Whitney was my great-grandfather," she said. "You all doubtless saw the entries in the log that place him as a New Bedford sailing captain. He seems to have been an adventurous sort of person. He brought a cargo of knives, trinkets, cloth

Pauo's long tapering fingers were playing nervously with the edge of her handkerchief as she spread before us those colorful pictures of her family history. Strangers a few short weeks ago, she was now telling us everything she knew of her family's everything she knew of her family's connection with that great black

We had been tested, and there was and things that would appeal to the people living on these islands of the South Pacific."

BRUCE E.GRIGGS

We were sitting on stones in the business," lone interjected. "Other-rock garden a little later when we wise, you would be surprised how we saw Holmes come out of the house.

He looked around for a moment and then discovering us, came down.

"l'auo wants to talk to all of us,"

"l'auo wants to talk

We went in and grouped ourselves tures! We would steal your diary, "Sorry to have made a scene," the if we get grabbed the paper will well in the role of a princess. There was something distinctly regal in her bearing. It was that grace of simplicity. The thought occurred to me that of the thousands of people I had ous newspapers — the really great Tom came in: "Usually too right, were always the easiest to talk to. People say things and when they the protective veneer of light cynlicism. Most of us are too soft underneath.

While I soliloquized to myself mentally, I had been studying the given."

Don't worry, girl, Larry assured her. "You are 'in chapel' here and no died-in-the-wool scribe ever violates a confidence once their word is given."

smooth composure was perfect again. this light persifiage had gone con-"Think nothing of it," Pilly had siderable distance toward lightening "Think nothing of it," Pilly had answered her largely with a flippant wave of her hand. "The last few brighter and her smile was more hours would have kind of upset The spontaneous. For the moment she Great Stone Face!"

Great Stone Face!"

"Pauo thinks there are some things we all should know." Larry

But we couldn't, for we hau work sary to tell us anything." Tom in-the abin's log?" she asked me. : terrupted. "We don't want to pry "Yes." I answered.

girl said simply. I couldn't help have to 'spring' us."
thinking at the time that she cast "Go as far as you interviewed during my years on vari- right, do they?

Last evening Mrs. W. W. Parker Dorothy Brinkley, Elvyra Cheatham, presented her piano students in re-Caroline Duke, Moline Bugg Ellis, cital in the Sunday School Audito-Scott Ferebee, Bessie Mae Johnson, Dorothy McDuffy, Caroline Miles, Miriam Pinnell, Ann Poythress, Adm Page, Frances Petty, Mary Louise Pat terson, Mary Tanner, Pertrude Tanner, Jane Thompson George Thompson These showed good training in rhyhm. They were accompanied by Bertha Futrelle and Charlotte Weaver. Three ladies, Miss Hazel Worsley of Rocky Mount, Miss Bertha Bunn of Henderson and Mrs. Sturgess Collins of Middleburg were asked to judge the evening's performance. sion was announced by W. B. Harririson, as follows: First prize: Dorothy Brinkley.

Second place: Bessie Mae Johnson Third: Frances Daniel. During the withdrawal of the judges

Mrs. W. B. Parker presented an interesting article on musical education A medal for most improvement and best effort during the year was offered by Mrs. W. W. Parker, and was won by Bertha Futrelle. This was presented to her by Dr. H. A. Ellis. Prizes and awards for unfailing prac tice during the year (i. e. required time and more) were won by Bertha Futrelle. Ada Ruth Stancil, Frances Dan iel, Bessie Mae Johnson, Mollie Bugg Ellis, Mary Elizabeth Poythress and Jane Thompson. Awards for faithful practice were made to Dorothy Brinkey Rowena Daniel and Ellen Trogden.

Dupont Betrothal

family visited Mrs. W. T. Woody on Sunday.
Miss Panthia and Sarah Boyd are visiting Mrs. Harry Whitakers of Rocky Mount. George Newell has returned home after several days with J. H. Thomas. spending several days with heremf Telpair Boyd of Henderson is spen-ing several days wth his uncle, J. E.

Mount.

Mss Mary Grace Woody and Mss Frances Boyd viited friends
Drewey this week.

Mrs. Harry Whitakers and son, have returned to their home in Rocky

Friends of Mrs. Luther Neathery will be sorry to learn of her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woody and

A. L. Islery of Burlington has been pending several days in Townsville. Miss akte Purcell has returned nome from N. C. C. W. Mrs. W. D. Vaughan and son. Den-ness, have returned home from Wilson Mills for summer vacation, Mrs. Vaughan taught there the past school The baseball team of Middleburg Grange and the baseball team of the Townsville Grange played a game in Townsville, on Saturday afternoon. Middleburg defeated Townsville large score Misses Panthia Boyd and Fannie

Hunt Tarry spent the past week-end in Durham. The ywere accompanied home Sunday evening by Mrs. Billy Burwell and Jack Harding. Miss Ruby Purcell of Townsville has recently accepted a stenographer place in Greensboro.

were, in 1505, incorporated under the denomination of surgeons and barbers.

it was required of them to be able "to)

TOWNSVILLE

By MISS FANCES BOYD.

Miss Marie Woody is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Graham Breedlove of Oxford.

Miss Mary Alice Boyd, has returnher summer vacation. She taught in turned to his home in Spartanburg.

Washington, N. C., the past winter. Miss Allyn Taylor who has been patient in the Maria Parham hospital for quite a while visited her father, E. O. Taylor, of Townsville on Tuesday evening. Miss Taylor leaves soon for the mountains. Miss Judith Boyd, who has been

From now on, the stately Wedding March of Lohengrin will be the favorite music of this young lady. She is Miss Edith Du Pont, daughter of Lammot Du Pont. president of the Du Pont De Nemours Company, whose engagement to Richard pany, whose engagement to Richard

E. Riegel, of Germantown, Pa., has just been announced. The marriage is expected to take place in the Fall spending several days with Mrs. G. W. Poindexter and Mrs. Jones of Warrenton, has returned home. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Marion Taylor and Mrs. Jones.

John Bolen who has been visiting ed to her home near Townsville for W. B. Boyd, the past week has reread and write." 26 COLDS VICKS

OVER 15 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

THE WISE ONES

WILL ADOPT VISION AS THEIR PLATFORM

The ability to see ahead, to visualize what the future holds and to prepare to meet emergencies. We are not fortune tellers nor crystal gazers. We do not profess super human powers. We do know however, that the wise man who looks ahead fortifies himself with a savings account. An ally that stands between him and the unforseen mishaps that cross the paths of every man sooner or later.

Are you looking ahead? Are you prepared to meet and protect your future welfare?

No Depositor Ever Lost A Dollar In An Industrial Bank.

The Industrial Bank of Henderson

JOEL T. CHEATHAM, President.

M. W. WESTER, Cashier.