

Democratic County Convention Favors Roosevelt

Peace Wins Over Teague For County Chairmanship

Delegates To State Convention Bound for Roosevelt; Four Suggested for State Executive Committee; Crudup May Go to the National Convention

Vance county Democrats meeting here today in their county convention, adopted a resolution offered by Henry T. Powell endorsing the candidacy of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York for the Democratic nomination for president...

to draw up resolutions of appreciation of the services of J. R. Teague as chairman for the past four years. Each precinct chairman was asked to name a committee to solicit funds with which to defray the committee's deficit.

Delegates Chosen. The convention chose its delegates to the State convention in Raleigh by naming one man from each precinct, and then these 13 met together and selected the other members. The convention voted to send a delegation of 76 to the State convention...

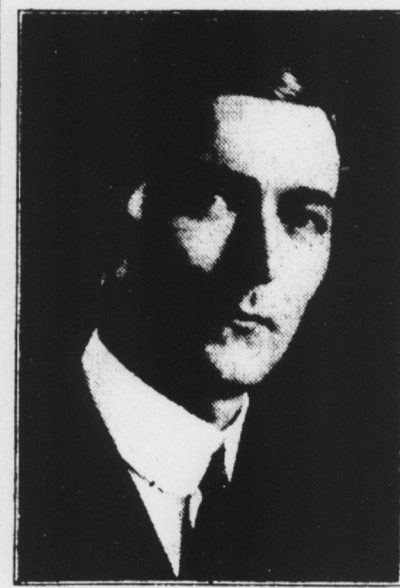

Peace County Chairman. Delegates were elected to the State convention, and after the convention was ended, the new executive committee for the county held a meeting and elected J. M. Peace chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee...

All members of the executive committee, which is made up of the chairman of each of the 13 precincts in the county, were present for the meeting and all voted. Nominations were dispensed with and the vote was by secret written ballot.

For State Committee. It was decided to present four names to the State convention for selection as members of the Democratic State Executive Committee from this county, one man and one woman to be chosen. These were A. A. Bunn and John B. Crudup, and Mrs. J. T. Alderman and Mrs. S. P. Cooper...

Today's convention was called to order by Chairman J. R. Teague at 10:40 a. m. He spoke briefly on present conditions, and blamed the Republican administration for the country's plight, saying the Republicans have no remedy and predicted Democratic victory in November.

"Whereas the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt has been an outstanding Democratic Leader for many years, and has so lived and served his party as to command the confidence of all Americans...

"And whereas he has always stood for Democratic principles and typifies in his person the ideals of the Democratic Party as expounded by Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson and Woodrow Wilson...

"And whereas we believe that he will prove to be the leader who will steer our ship of state out of the present stress and storm to the harbor of security and prosperity...

"And whereas he more than any other man in our land deserves the nomination by reason of his character and his service to the Democratic party, and is better prepared than any other to symbolize the aspirations of our people and relieve our country from its present distress, and lead our party into a glorious triumph...

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the Vance County Democratic Convention hereby endorses the candidacy of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt in his campaign for the Presidential nomination by the Democratic Party, and instructs the Vance County delegates to the North Carolina Democratic Convention to be held in Raleigh to cast Vance County's vote for the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt.

CAROLINA KIWANIS LEADING NATIONAL

Speaker Tells Local Club of Progress; Program of Evening Had

The Carolinas Kiwanis district has made the most progress of any district in Kiwanis International so far this year, the local Kwans club was told at its weekly luncheon meeting last night by Franklin Keene, of Washington, D. C., a field representative of the international organization. It is also understood that the division in which Henderson is situated has made the most advancement of any part of the Carolinas district.

Mr. Keene happened through the city on the night the local club held its meeting, and stopped off for the visit here, and was given a rousing welcome.

The club ordered a telegram sent to the State convention of the Busi-
