

CRUDUP DELEGATE DEMOCRATIC MEET; FAVOR ROOSEVELT

to the State convention committee on credentials, and Walter D. Siler, of Chatham, to the committee platform.

Harold D. Cooley, of Nash, was elected presidential elector. The second congressional district Democratic convention today instructed its delegates to the national convention in Chicago to vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt as presidential nominee as long as his name may be before the convention.

Varying from customary procedure of naming two or four delegates to the convention to cast the vote of the district, eight were designated to cast one-fourth of a vote each.

The delegates to the national convention were: T. M. Washington and H. G. Abtman, of Wilson; W. E. Clark, of Edgecombe; Dr. B. M. Nicholson and W. L. Long, of Halifax; H. L. Joyner, of Northampton; L. C. Evans, of Bertie, and Fred I. Sutton, of Lenoir.

H. P. Foxhall, of Edgecombe, was named as the district member of the State platform committee.

CONVENTION ELECTS BIG TOTAL OF NINE DELEGATES-AT-LARGE

Chicago convention were elected to cast four votes. They are:

Governor O. Max Gardner; Representative Lindsay Warren; Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, of Goldsboro; Mrs. E. L. McKee, of Sylva; Josephus Daniels, Raleigh; C. L. Shuphus, Greensboro; Mrs. Charles W. Tillett, Jr., Charlotte; Senator Josiah William Bailey, Raleigh; Mrs. Harriett Elliott, Greensboro.

The convention adjourned at 2 o'clock to meet again at 3 p. m. to complete its business.

It is all right to state that the home-coming girls make the best wives; the danger is in specifying.

Scene As Republican Convention Got Under Way

We often read of people being poor but honest; never of rich but honest. An old maid, speaking of marriage, says it's like any other disease, while there is life there is hope.
