CHURCH SOCIETIES

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MARRIAGES PARTIES SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

SOCIETY

THE LAND OF BEGINNING AGAIN. wish that there were some won-

Called the Land of Beginning Again, Where all cur mistakes and all our heartaches,

And all of our selfish grief, Could be dropped like a shabby old And never put on again.

I wish we could come on it all un-Like the hunter who finds a lost trail:

I wish that the one whom our blindness had done The greatest injustice of all

Could be at the gates like an old friend that waits For the comrade he's gladdest to

We could find all the things we intended to do But forgot and remembered-too late;

Little praises unspoken, little promises broken. And all o fthe thousand and one Little duties neglected that might have perfected The day for one less fortunate.

It couldn't be possible not to be kind In the Land of Beginning Again, And the ones we misjudge and the ones whom we grudged

Their moments of victory here Would find in the grasp of our loving More than penitent lips could explain.

For what had been hardest we'd know has been best, And what had seemed loss would be

For there isn't a sting that will not take wing When we've freed it and laughed it away; And I think that the laughter is most wha. we're after

In the Land of Beginning Again. so I wish that there were some won-

Called the Land of Beginning Again. Where all our mistakes and all our

And all of our poor selfish grief Could be dropped like a shabby old coat at the door And never put on again.'

Louisa Fletcher Tarkington.

Visits Parents in Kinston. Mrs. Scott P. Parham is in Kinston spending several days with her par-

Returns from Durham. Mrs. C. D. Carter has returned from Durham, where she has been visiting for the past few days.

To Be Instructor at Camp. Miss Katherine Turner left today for Camp Carlyle, near Hendersonville, where she will be an instructor for the summer.

In Washington on Trip. Miss Mae Hunter, Miss Mariel Gary, Miss Myers and Miss Woodlief are expected to return from a trip to Washington, D. C., in a few days.

Baptist Choir Rehearsal.

It was announced today that there will be an important rehearsal of the choir of the First Baptist church held in the church this evening at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present

M. P. Choir Rehearsal.

The regular rehearsal of the choir of the Methodist Protestant church will be held in the church this evening at 8 o'clock, it was announced

At Beaches.

Miss Rebecca Watkins left this morning to spend ten days at Virginia Beach and Richmond, Va., Miss Nannie Guy Watkins, who has been spend ing a month at the beach, will return with her to her home here.

Return to Goldsboro.

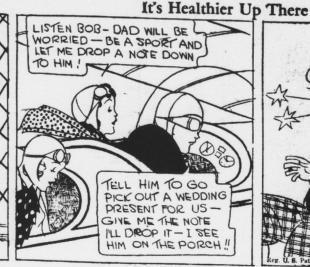

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cooper for the past few days, have returned to their home in Goldsboro, and were accompanied home by Miss Mary Ann Cooper, who will spend

NASAL CATARRH

: HOURS 9 A. M. TO 12 NOON

ETTA KETT I WONDER WHAT ETTA and BEEN FLYING AROUND JUDY are still OVER THE HOUSE ALL BOBS DAY! plane and he says he Wort bring ETTA down until She promises | tomarry him-

Spend Day in Raleigh. Mrs. J. C. Cooper and little daughter, Fannie Cooper, and Mrs. S. T. Peace spent yesterday in Raleigh.

Leave for Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Toepleman and their little daughter, Miss Elizabeth left today for Virginia Beach, where they will stay for a while at the Princess Anne Country Club.

Tea For Visiting Ladies Wednesday

The Henderson Business and Professional Women's club and the Henderson Woman's club tendered an afternoon tea Wednesday at the Vance hotel in honor of the visiting ladies at the North Carolina and Virginia State veterinarians' association, holding their annual meeting in this city

The parlors were decorated with lovely summer flowers. The guests were met by Mrs. Grace Boyd Hicks who introduced them to Miss Neleine Perry, president of the Business and Professional Women's club, and Mrs. Pearl C. Green presented them to other members of the two clubs. Mrs. Naomi Jordan and Mrs. B. C. Flannagan were assisted by Miss Dorothy Wester in serving punch and wafers an enjoyable afternoon was spent by those present, as the visiting ladies were staying at the hotel, which was headquarters for the association. Most of them remained for the entire social occasion, getting better acquainted with Henderson club women and also their own group in an informal way Mrs. S. F. Teiser and Mrs. George Boyd and Misses Carrie Draper and Annie Hanes Collins also assisted in extending the hospitality of the city to the visitors, who numbered over 60.

Kittrell News

By MISS RUBY SMITH. Miss Metrice Woodhef. of St. Luke's hospital, Richmond, Va., came Monday to spend sometime here with her par ents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Woodlief.

Miss Louise Grissom, has returned to her home here, after visiting friends in Kinston and New Bern. Miss Ada Woodlief, had as her visitors on Wednesday, her sister, and niece ,Mrs. J. E. Hight, and Miss Mar garet Hight, of Henderson. Mrs. P. B. Smith, and son. Rev nolds Smith, who have been spending several weeks here with relatives left Wednesday for Hillsboro, to spend sometime with Mrs. Smith's sister Mrs. W. H. Walker. Miss Elizabeth Browne, has as her guest for several days, her cousin, Margarite Browne, of Henderson.

Mrs. A. A. Stainback, and children left Wednesday for Oxford, to spend several days with Mrs. Stainback's sis ter, Mrs. L. E. Breedlove.

Mrs. H. A. Woodlief, and children Mary Ellen, and H. A., Jr., and Mrs Woodlief's niece, Frances Dickens, of Washington. D. C., are visiting Mrs. Woodlief's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Burns, near Pittsboro.

Mrs. E. R. Woodlief, and William Summer Smith, were visitors in Raleigh, on Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Pittman's Mother Ill. It was learned today that the mother of Mrs. T. M. Pittman, Mrs. Henry Briggs, of Raleigh, has been ill for the past few days.

Story of Mystery and Love in The South Seas

CHAPTER 48

Pauo sat looking wonderingly at the recaptured log book, seemingly unnable to comprehend that it was a reality, and not merely a wish-inspired dream.

ione. Tom and I joined in the gen eral pandemonium. For several minutes the uproar continued; every-body talking at once and no one listening. Larry, Tom and I finally commandeered Havia away from the exuberant Pilly.

shouted above the hub-hub. "How did you do it?" Pauo, I saw, was running through the book to make sure it was intact. Ione and Pilly were standing over her shoulder, both talking at once. Then Pauo got up and things quieted down. She came ever and took both Havia's big hands in hers, and looking steadily into his eyes, said simply: "I'll remember this." Havia, I noticed now was breath ing easier. He seemed to have recovered from some almost super-human exertion. "How did you manage this?" she asked him. The man broke into rapid Pelynesian, and talked for several min-utes. Occasionally Pauo interrupted into the sea." with a brief question in the same tongue. We sat silent, catching a word here and there in that fast flow of musical vowels, which largely make up the language. Finally she turned to us: "He does not talk English as well as some," she reminded us. But here is his "He says that when they captured belong to him. Realizing it was ours, he planned to grab it, escape as soon asked.

"Don't tell me he swam 20 I interrupted incredulously.

"Why the English Channel is only fuss they made a couple of years have been moving!"
ago about swimming that," Ione "An hour in shark infested water, he is lying over in the lea of Oomoa right now, or at least that was where pen to be feeding and hungry, well he was apparently headed for when —" she concluded with an expressive

Havia left them.

I think this brought home to all of us a realization of what pygmies we were physically compared to what south Sea isles.

Shrug.

"You tell Havia we used a great guy," I advised.

She spoke rapidly to him, and he smiled his appreciation for the comment. bother them. They had bodies deintended, tingling with health and strength, in which muscular and the sea," Tom said dryly.

Betwous co-ordination were perfect.

HOLMES RIPPED OUT a yell like Holmes said.

a coiled spring unleashed. Pilly leaped up and grabbed Havia around the neck—in the excitement it meant anothing to her that he was practacles. Page 18. Pag cabin for a moment with the book lying there, and he had a chance to "How did he get the book wrapped water tight?" Tom asked.

away in the cabin, and he stole it several days ago for this purpose, along with some parafine. He knew he would have to protect the book from the water or it would be from the water or it would be use-nt Pilly.

"Fella, for this job, you go down mong the immortals," Holmes membered that when he had first come in drops of water had been written a hundred years ago, and he sat there absolutely unconscious of anything unconventional in his got them worked out and fixed in garb. The girls didn't seem to notice our brains, nothing but death itself it. We had been longer in the islands could take them from us. by now, at least long enough to become accustomed to smooth, brown

"Wrapping that book was smart," Larry commented. "Then?"

"As soon as he got his hands on the book he went into the galley, where no one happened to be at the moment, quickly wrapped it in the last sentence in a quiet voice for water-proof silk. In the meantime he had put his parafine in a ran on the galley fire. Then hasfily he dropped it in the hot wax, sealing it, tied it to his head and quietly dropped

"Lucky for him there was no one in the galley at the moment," I said Pauo spoke to Havia in rapid Polynesian again. "Waite a minute," she laughed. "There is a cook on that boat who is going to have a sore head in the morning-Cold-crocked the cook,"

Larry elucidated.

"Correct. He hadn't been over the him he saw Livingston take the log side but a couple of minutes when book from Utato, he knew it didn't they discovered the loss of the book and a great shout went up. But as luck would have it, it was dusk and they didn't see his head a few hunas he could and bring it back here.
"How did he get here?" Tom dred yards away there in the water. He had his bearings and he kept swimming. The sea is calm tonight by the village-"

"Lord,"I said. "He was only in the about that far and look at all the water a little over an hour. He must

"He could have done it as easily as you could have walked it," but as luck would have it, he didn't have to tonight. He came four or five miles," Pauo informed us. "You The only thing he had in his favor see it was a lucky break for him was that he kept moving, and sharks that Livingston was close in here— are not so apt to attack moving bal -but one never knows! If they hap-

"Livingston, had he caught him veloped through centuries as nature stealing the book, would have been and that sun dried, impassive face, stood out sharply. We knew Tom had spoken truth. "It strikes me we have work to do without wasting any time." Larry declared meaningly. And so we went into the living room, where our "work table" was shortly set up again. Just as we were seating ourselves Holmes said:

"We had better call Pinga and

"He says they had some things have him post more guards around wrapped in that silk, lying tucked this place, and order the rest to watch sharp. That skunk is so close l can smell him plainly, and it makes me uncomfortable." The suggestion was promptly carried out Then we fell to work with the old ine-up. Tom and I translating and just now being crystalized .or action. We all realized that as soon as we There was no lost motion, and we worked fast. Shortly then Larry went around the table collecting the finished sheets, and sorting them, handed them to Pauo She glanced briefly at the page where she had been forced to stop. our ears only: To locate the one which leads to the higher chamber, look in the temple for a . . . winged ca-noe with only five figures in it. This will be found mid-way on the southern wall. The last paddle is movable. Push it to the west and the device for unlock. ing the movable panel will be To gain entrance to the inner about the same distance back for the figure of a winged man The western arm of this figure is the movable one, concealing the lock. This stair leads to the cove between the peaks. Entrance from the bottom is stairway look on the north wall gained through another movable panel with a winged human figfigure hides the locking mechanism. It moves south. Do not step on the 112th or 200th step counting up from the bottom. These exceptionally steps are traps.

Van Sphe is sailing within the hour. May Providence accord him a safe journey and protection from these heathen savages. I pray God's blessing for you all and for a speedy reunion. I send my love. Your brother, EZRA WHITNEY. "We'll take the Sequola, load her with armed guards, and go to Tarea first thing in the morning," Pauo announced happily.

But, as events were to turn out, we were not to take the Sequola, but then, of course, that we couldn't foresee. That night was to live long in the memory of all of us, and the dark hours had just begun. (TO BE CONTINUED)

Has Appendicitis Operation.

Miss Heien Lills, daughter, of Mr.

and Mrs. J. F. Mills, was operated on last night for appendicitis at Watts hospital in Durham, and is reported to be doing as well as could be ex-No part of Chile is more than 250 miles from the ocean.

Charlie Ruggles Lily Damita -IN-

STEVENSON

LAST TIMES TODAY

"This Is The Night" Also Added Comedy Charles "Chick" Sale

-IN-"The County Seat"

Combig-Monday and Tucoday RICHARD ADLEN JACK OAKIE ROBERT COOGAN VIRGINIA BRUCE -IN-

SOLLIE KNOTT, 61,

Had Suffered Year With Heart Trouble; Funeral Saturday Afternoon

Sollie D. Knott, 61, native of Vance county, and resident of the county virtually for his entire life, died at l o'clock Thursday afternoon at his nome following an illness of about a year with heart trouble. He had engaged in farming all of his life. Mr. Knott, who was well known the county, was born July 25, 1871. He was the son of Stephen G. and Eliza-Wilson Knott, both of Granville coun ty, and both of whom have been dead many years.

The deceased had been a member of Island Creek Baptist church about 45 years, and was known as a faithful member of that church. Funeral ser vices will be held there at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, in charge of the pastor, Rev. G. Van Stephens, and interment will be in the church ceme tery. Active pallbearers announced to day are F. G. Sneed, Charlie Tucker, Walter Norwood, G. H. Hill, J. E Norwood and Sollie Norwood. His nieces will be the floral bearers. In addition to his widow, who was Miss Menta Eastwood, Mr. Knott is survived by four children, Mrs. J. M.

Currin, of Oxford, and Buck Knott and Taz Knott and Mrs. John S. Galeys, all of Long Island, N. Y. A. number of sisters also survive, as follows: Mrs. R. L. Callis, Ahoskie; Mrs. Henry Satterwhite, Palmer Springs, Va.; Mrs. H. T. Norwood, Norlina; Mrs. J. S. Norwood, Mrs. J. H. Rice Mrs. Nonie G. Norwood, Mrs. C. H. Sneed, Mrs. C. L. Tucker, all of Vance and for good . . . Then medicated center of pad soon dissolves away the Parker's Drug Store

QUICKEST WAY

DR. K. H. PATTERSON Eye Sight Specialist

Cool and Lovely

DRESSES

$5.00 to $7.00 styles at a new low

$2.98 For Women and

Sportswear

Misses

Washable crepes in pastels, in white, in Shantungs.

Stripes and prints in silk.

Cotton Dresses

Eyelet embroidered batiste and Swiss in pastels, navy, brown and white.

Bathing

Bradleys, Jantzens,

Merodes and suits not so good at less money. Get ready for the FOURTH.

E. G. Davis & Sons Co.

Henderson, N. C.

Special Notice For the best in laundry and dry cleaning where quality work is the first consideration and service and price always right, Oxford Laundry and Dry Cleaning Co.

Phone number 47. Laundry, Dry Cleaning, Altering, Pleating and Repairing at reasonable prices. Linen suits a specialty with us. Mr. L. B. Watkins and Mr. W. W. Hughes are our only representatives in Henderson. Phone 47, they will be glad to serve you.

Oxford Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co.

"Does It Better"

Girl Scout Camp Near Durham Open

There will be a Girl Scout camp held at Crystal Lake near Durham for two weeks, July 10-24, under the supervision of Miss Alma McFarlane, directress of Girl Scouts in Oxford. She will have an efficient staff of assistants in every phase of Scout work a life saver and three eagle scouts will be on duty at all times, it is stated.

Any Girl Scout who is not already registered in some other camp, and who may be interested in this camp is asked to get in touch with Miss McFarlane at Oxford not later than next Monday. The price is $4 per week, which includes all expenses.

Gillburg News

By HUNTER FINCH. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Perkinson and children, and Miss Euniel Granger of Dillon, S. C., are visiting friends and relatives here.
Miss Helen King of New Hope is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Joseph H. Hoyle. Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Jones, of Plymouth were visitors here last Sun-Myrtle Minor and little Elvin Falkner returned home Saturday after visiting relatives in Durham. Mrs. Obie Robinson spent last Friday with her mother, Mrs. Frank El-

James Abbott and Misses Laura and Hunter Finch were the Monday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Abbott. Friends of Mr. Joe Finch will be For Local Girls glad to learn he is improving after a long illness.

H. W. Edwards was the Saturday night guest of Hunter Finch. George Smith was the Sunday night guest of Laura Finch.

ONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Green, of Nicholas street, announce the birth of a daughter, Dottie Jane, on July 1, 1932.

Mrs. Cooper Improved. Very encouraging news was received from the bedside of Mrs. John D. Cooper, Sr., last night to the effect that her condition was slightly im-proved over what it has been, but she is not yet out of danger, it was said, Any change in her condition will be very slow, it was learned. She underwent an operation.

Mrs. Harper Improving. Mrs. H. H. Harper, who has been quite sick at her home on Horner street for over a week, is reported to