

TWO GAMES CARDED ON AFTERNOON BILL

Sluggers and Middleburg Will Meet in Place of M. E.s And Wallites

The doubleheader that was carded for the City League and fell through will still be played today with the O'Neil Sluggers meeting Middleburg at 2:30 o'clock and the M. P. Baracas playing Clements Nine immediately following the first game.

The M. E. Baracas were to play Wall Street today for the other city loop team in the double bill but this game has been called off at the request of the two team managers and the Sluggers-Middleburg game substituted in its place.

The M. P.'s defeated the Clements nine last Friday and, although today's game will not count in the league standing, Clements will be out for revenge. A good game is expected to be had.

In turn Carolina officials moved the Tar Heel-Florida game to Friday, November 4, in order that the Blue Devils can have the Saturday date for their annual contest with the University of Kentucky Wildcats.
