Tobacco Crop In State Trifle More Than Half Of Last Year's Figure

Frank Parker, Crop Reporting Statistician, Says Estimates Are For Only 266,000,000 Pounds, Against 476,000,000 Last Year; Predicts Higher Prices

Raleigh, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A decrease of more than 200,000,000 pounds in North Carolina's 1932 tobacco crop under the 1931 production was estimated today by the State-Federal crop report here. The revised estimates indicated production this year for the state's farm belts of 266,500,000 pounds, compared to 476,524,000 pounds last year. "While the cultivation has been excellent, the lateness of setting of the crop, combined with dry conditions, has offset the favorable prices and is expected to produce low grade quality," the report said. The condition of the crop on August 1 was said to have been only 20 percent of normal, compared to 57 percent a month previous. Frank Parker, statistician of the

BREAKFAST BASKET BREAKS UP FLIGHT

Rips Wing of Endurance Plane and Forces It To Descend To Ground

Valley Stream, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The old breakfast basket that swung in the sky brought an untimely end today. Frances Marsalis and Louise Thacker took off late yesterday in their attempt to establish a new refueling endurance record for women. They got through the first flight all right, and completed their refueling successfully today. And then the ship let down a bucket of breakfast, the bucket hitting the plane and ripping the canvas. STATE DEMOCRATS THINK SPEECH BY HOOVER HELPFUL

Has Strengthened Their Own Position in Favor of Modification In Prohibition Law

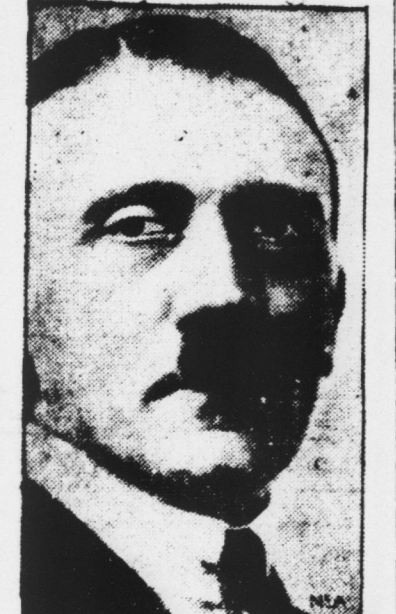

BOOM IN BUSINESS MIGHT HURT MORE

But Bailey Is Going To Tell Tar Heels Losses of Three Years Cannot Be Recupercated in Three Months; Democrats To Make The Attack There

Daily Dispatch Bureau, Henderson, N. C., Aug. 13.—Democrats who listened in on President Hoover Thursday night as he made his speech of acceptance construed his concessions to the Democratic position on prohibition significant enough to make very safe their more extreme and candid advocacy of change. The betterment in business will be more serious, even if it is more insubstantial, they feel. If there should be visible lifting of the gloominess in the country the Democrats would feel that more. Even so, it is the purpose of the Democrats to use to the utmost the three years of almost unparalleled depression during which time great banks went down, real estate became the prize symbol of poverty and crops either rotted for markets or failed to bring the price of production. Senator Josiah William Bailey in speaking to the Democratic Executive Committee Tuesday night, adverted to the rise in cotton, wheat, and pork. He did not believe there could be in three months recovery from the appalling waste and losses of the past three years. He said he means to go everywhere in North Carolina and tell all the people that it is a well settled principle in the world that America's economic condition is the result of political action. He welcomed prosperity, but declared that if it has been delayed three years and restored in three months it will be in order to inquire what methods have been used in manipulation of the money of the country. The Democrats will make the attack here. They will contend that the federal reserve, eternal guaranty against financial failure if used properly has been employed in behalf of administration favorites. It is the opinion of men such as Senator Bailey

Aging President Hindenburg Refuses Highest Government Post To Nazi Chieftain

NOTHING LESS WILL SATISFY, HE STATES

Place In Cabinet Refused by Hindenburg, But Hitler Wants Whole Hog Or None, and Leaves, Pledging Against Violent Seizure of the Government

Berlin, Aug. 13.—(AP)—President von Hindenburg talked for 15 minutes this afternoon with Adolf Hitler, head of the National Socialist party and announced after the conference that the present cabinet under Chancellor Franz von Papen will remain in office. Hitler reiterated his demands that on the strength of his power in the ranks of the party he be made chancellor of Germany. The president refused for "moral reasons and for the sake of the fatherland." With great dignity he added that his conscience would not permit him to entrust to one party the sole responsibility for the entire German people. He entreated Hitler to be content with a cabinet office, but not that of chancellor. The Nazi chieftain refused. He asserted that nothing but the chancellorship would satisfy him, and that he would not share the responsibility with others. He straightened his shoulders, clicked his heels, saluted and left. It was understood that Hitler had given his assurance that no illegal attempt would be made by the National Socialist party to seize the governing power.

Mills And Hurley Pushed Into Campaign Background After Rout Of Bonus Army

By CHARLES P. STEWART Washington, Aug. 13.—Virtual elimination by the G. O. P. campaign management of Secretaries Ogden L. Mills and Patrick J. Hurley from the party's speaking program, between now and election day, expresses a mouthful concerning Republican strategists' own estimate of popular reaction to the recent "Battle of Pennsylvania Avenue," with which the two cabinet members' names are prominently associated. Mills' demanded as custodian of the property on which the bonus forces had squatted, for the trespassers' eviction from government land, primarily was responsible for the employment of troops to oust them. Hurley issued the actual order which brought the regulars from Ft. Myer to Washington. Hardly necessary to say, the policy really was President Hoover's but he cannot very well be pushed into the campaign background. Secretaries Mills and Hurley can be, and an attempt is being made at G. O. P. headquarters in the capital to conceal the fact that it is being done or the reason for it. If the administration was under any impression that its method of scattering the bonus seekers would be favorably received by the public, local ex-service men's organizations, many of whose members were eye-witnesses of the affair, were not long in undeceiving it. The council of administration, consisting of department and post commanders and representatives of each of the 14 District of Columbia chapters of Veterans of Foreign Wars, was first on record, with resolutions condemning "the shameful disregard for human rights shown by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, chief of staff of the United States army in carrying out the brutal and un-American order of the president." Vincent B. Costello post of the American Legion followed with the declaration that "we denounce and condemn the president of the United States and other federal officials re-
