MARRIAGES PANTIES SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

SOCIETY NEWS S.

FORECAST

I thought it was a song of fall The green leaves sang today. of goidernrod and thistles tall and asters by the way.

Of vines aglow with jewels rare, of gay-icloaked bush and tree, of brighter skies and purer air. Lone walks through field and lea.

Of cozy evenings, quiet, long, Books, fires-the old, old way, I thought it was a wistful song The green leaves sang today. Frances Higgins.

Visiting Relatives. Mrs. D. M. Vick is visiting relawes and friends in Norfolk, Va.

Visiting In Sumter. Miss Amy Vick is spending a few days in Sumter, S. C., as the guest of Miss Ann Rowland.

Motor To Hickory.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. S. Davis motored to Hickory over the week-end and Mrs Davis remained there for a visit.

Returned from Washington, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. White and littie daughter Jane, have returned from a visit to relatives in Washington, N.

Few Days In Sanford.

Mrs. A. S. Davis and Mrs. P. H. Thomas are spending a few days in Sanford as the guests of their brother W. W. Robards.

Viss Mary Elizabeth Hobgood is spending commitime in the city with her grandmother, .: rs. H. T. Hobgood on Vance street.

Leaves for New York. Miss Ruby Faulkner left Saturday sometime with Mr. and Mrs. George hiss Lucy Respess, of Washington. N. C. are the guests of Mr. and Mis. B. Vilite.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tanfield and Guests of Mrs. White.

Guests of Mrs. Smith.

Mrs J Cramer and sons, Harry and Lewis of Rocky Mount are the house guests of Mrs. Robert Long Smith on he Oxford Road.

In New York City. Mrs J Harry Edwards is in New York City doing the fall buying for E G Davis and Sons Company, it

Res and Mrs. Basil Walton and

Home from Visit.

candren have returned to the city from a visit to Mrs. Walton's sister in George Gilliam. in Franklinton

Week End at Virginia Beach. Mr and Mrs. J. C. Cooper have re ained from a week-end stay at Vir Mis. J. P. Zollicoffer at their cot

Go To Hickory.

age there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shaw have gone Camp Mishemowke, near Hickory to bring Turner Wortham, who has been spending the past month in camp there, home.

Miss Edwards Home.

Miss Ruth Edwards has returned nome from a two week's visit with her sister Mrs. T. Cooper Ferebee, in Covington, Va., Linwood Edgerton, of Norhna spent last week-end as their

Dates For Music Classes

Mrs W. W. Parker announced to day that the dates for the opening of her music studio for piano for pupils has been changed to August 29 for new pupils and on September 5 the old pu-P. s will resume their studies.

Decline Invitation.

Miss Betsy Cooper, popular memter of the State's younger social set, who was chosen as one of seven Hen ierson young ladies to make her debut at the Debutante Ball on September 9 in Raleigh, will not accep the invitation, it was learned today on account of the serious illness o her grandmother, Mrs. John D. Coop-

Arrives In City.

Arthur Gasaway of Illinois arrived in the city Friday and will be asso clated with the Henderson Business School in the bookkeeping department Mr. Gaseway is an expert in higher accountancy and has taught in the and North schools of Illinois and North Carolina as well as in two of the ding business colleges of the coun-He is a graduate of Bowling Business University, having received his B. C. A. there.

Announce Birth of Daughter. Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Tippett announce the birth of a daughter, Thelma Rececca, August 22, at Maria Parham

CHURCH SOCIETIES ANNOUNCEMENTS

I'M BEITING BOB GOT ME WITO THIS MESS! LISTEN, ETTA! WITH ME OUT OF WILL YOU PLEASE FORGET THE BOX THE WAY HE'LL HAVE ETTA ALL TO HIM SELF! AND GET SOME PACKING DONE I'M GOING TO PHONE HER-MEIRE ME OUT OF HOME! THIS IRON BEDROOM!

Miss Gill Hostess

ETTA KETT

By MISS MARION WOODLIEF. Miss Clara Evelyn Gill delightfully entertained the Epworth Leaguers of Plank Chapel church at her home near Henderson at a backwards party, on Saturday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 c'clock.

door by the hostess. They were dressed backwards and came in backwards saying "good night." Rev. and Mrs. eleven o'clock H. Hardcastle and Mrs. John Gill the hostess. made up the receiving line, after passing the receiving line the guests were ushered into the spacious living room where they were seated in a large circle. The first thing on the program was a shaking hands contest. Three Annie Laurie Rowand, Marion Woodpeople were given pennies to give to the thirteenth person they shook hands with The idea of this was that Early Gill, James Gill, Carruth the ones receiving the pennies should Strange, Charlie Kittrell, Donald add another penny every day and Mitchell, Roger Mitchell, Ries Finch, would someday be a millionaire. Following this numbers were given the Mrs. R. E. Pittman. Mr. and Mrs. T. boys and girls to choose partners for the "Farmer's Love Letter" contest. hostess, Miss Clara Evelyn Gill. This contest was won by little Miss Jane Hardcastle. The prize being a miniature bride. Next was a peanut hunt. The guest were divided into four groups and were called, dogs, cats, sheep and cows. The ones who found the most peanuts won the prize. The cats were the winners in pinned the name of a bird on each day afternoon from 4 o'clock to 6. Herbert Bowen, Mrs. Oscar Hoyle, one's back. The one writing down the greatest number of names of birds 5:30 when they were called together Hoyle.

bead into his hands. In his gesture needed.

gnawed in Peter's mind. Only the her comfort.

he sunk into the absorbing quicksand hibit," pensively.

knocking was repeated, more as it is."

"Hello, everyone," she called cheer- enigmatically.

therefore is difficult to cure.

calousy and of his overwhelming de-startled him violently, so deeply was of despair. He aroused himself with an effort and thought, "Camilla has perative. He called crossly, "Come fully, then stopped with an inquiring

cerity. "Didn't I hear her come in early this afternoon?"

"Well, it's a good thing I came over in time to pull you out of your foom. Another half hour and you cealed her own suspicions of the sitation and her good humor encour aged Peter. "All the more reason,

then, why you should have supper with me, anyway. That's just one of the disadvantages of having a genius for a wife. Of course, she can't afford to spend all her time chirping

"Tired, I guess."

"Oh, I'm all right," he insisted,

"Of course, you are. You've worked all day, haven't you? Come along."

laid for three. She also talked easily pass out." Her banter con-eyes met the pleasant greeting in win?"

Are to succeed, at the same time.

would be like that, he told himself comfy for awhile. Is your plece al-

The more Peter brooded over his struggle with physical forces instead of molding bits of clay. The ignomind his wrath settled upon Camilla miny of love—that makes servants because she was the object of his of parasites and weaklings of slaves.

well, she can't. I'm sick of it all." her glance defiantly. "So, I'll enter it

The door opened and his hostile like that, if it hurts your chance to thought Camilla was here. I ran in Besides, supposing that you don't to ask you both to have a little win the prize, you can put it into supper with me. I'm alone — and lonely." She laughed, without sin-before."

rity. "Didn't I hear her come in He made a gesture of hopelessness "Who is going to loan money to a fellow who has made a clay

"Yes, she was here." Peter replied tonelessly, and added, "but she had tonelessly, and added, "but she had tonelessly, and added, "but she had win him a prize or that he might copy it in marble and perhaps find smoothing back the bright, disor-dered curls with a big, shapely hand. women insist upon taking care of me. What's the matter with me, any-

He obeyed meekly. Following Avis about that this afternoon," he conacross the hall had got to be something of a habit. Rather a pleasant let her help me with her money. Of habit, too.

Avis was a clever actress. To preve that she had anticipated two guests for supper, she removed one what kind of a fellow wants his wife to keep him aven if he had a supper she could speep it, but hald for three. She also talked easily do something worthwhile? That I and sparingly while she served Peter wasn't in our agreement in the first unebitratively. Here was a "rist place."

Avis employed, but memaged to keep in the drive het wedge in cau.

around the room. "Oh, I row money on a chance like this?

light knocking at the door week, I had planned to have it prize for this. Miss Madolyn Ellington was the winner of this prize. Mitchell won the prize, a toy automobile.

Between contests and games punch and cake were served. Mrs. T. C. Gill presiding at the punch bowl. Mrs. R. E. Pittman and Mrs. H. Hardeastle were judges of the most

The guests were met at the back castle presented the prize to Mrs. sell Pulley, Furman Busbee.—Report-Pittman. The guests began to leave about eleven o'clock saying good morning to

> Those present were: Misses Gladys Strange, Natalie Smith, Alice Cline Smith, Madolyn Ellington, Ruth Gill, Sallie Mitchell, Myrtle Mitchell, Jane Hardcastle, Alma Gill. Florine Smith, Early Gill, James Gill, Carruth Rev. and Mrs. H. Hardcastle, Rev. and C. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. John Gill and

Junior Class Has

The Junior class of Fullers Chapel his.

A bird hunt was next. The hostess their teacher, Mrs. L. G. Frazier, Friassisted bby Mrs. L. G. Frazzier, Mrs. from the backs of others won the and asked to assemble on the lawn The following children were pres-

WHEN CAMILLA had gone, Peter made him comfortable and enter-Camilla herself when she said, "I tained him quietly. Just what he think you are quite right about that, was all the weariness and despair of When they left the table, Avis sug- down on their pride these days, and his whole past. Never had life gested without insistence, "You allowing their wives to do it all. Of seemed so futile and ambition such surely don't need to work tonight.

mockery. He might have known it You should rest. Sit down and be admire a man with some sand."

bitterly. Camilla had made practical most finished?" She turned the volume low on the radio, and a sentimental voice crooned, "You take me him. He was a dreamer who couldn't twee take care of himself.

He believed it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the woman he loved, but it was his pride that was hurt because he couldn't support the her money?"

"I think you are both right, under the circumstances. I see her point exactly—" Avis was shrewd, "—but I also see yours."

deadly polson of jealousy could so distort both love and pride. But the and pampered and indulged, found I think I had better do is to get a most malignant factor in jealousy is her greatest pleasure in serving and good honest job and go to work at that it cannot be admitted, and humoring this young giant who looked as if he had been made to

He blew smoke into space, with bronzed before sending it to the ex-

"Of course, you should. Why not?"
"That costs money," he replied,

"Don't be absurd," she reproved him gently. "What's a little saving

"I can't save what I don't have,"

"Well, wouldn't it pay you to bor-buyer for it? That's all the collateral I have to offer. Did you ever hear of a financier who would take such a long chance as that?"

"A better guarantee would be your talent and ambition," she suggested.

He laughed ironically. "Who would believe that I had anything so val-

"I know you have." Her eyes held

"Oh-that!" he dismissed the implication of her words, instantly. And added presently. "Funny how the women insist upon taking care of "Women?" Avis asked vaguely.

"Oh, Camilia and I just had a row guests for supper, she removed one to keep him, even if he is trying to another cigaret. "I have meet of the plates from the table that was to keep him, even if he is trying to another cigaret. "I have meet of the plate from the table do something worthwhile? That uable as that?"

his gaze, significantly.

bitterly. Camilla had made practical most finished?" She turned the vol-just common human jealousy which the divan, arranging the pillows for I also see yours."

contentment.

CCASIONAL WIFE & EDNA ROBB WEBSTER Author of JORETTA

where there was a large bon-fire, each ent: Bobbby, Louise and Julian Frazpresent enjoyed weiners, rolls and 'er, Milton and Thomas Hoyie, Willemonade. Those present were Miss liam, Edwin and Davis Bowen. Ruby. Saturday Evening Following this a motor romance contest was enjoyed in in which Myrtle Elsie and Ida Mae Edwards, Helen Crisson. Dailby and and Ida Mae Grissom, Dailby and Josephine Grissom, Evelyn and Ruth Clayton, Carrie Belle Sparks, Juanita Pully. John Fuller Coghill, Edgar Carl Grissom, I. J. Oakley, B. H. and Edward Lee Grissom, Thomas and Allen Kelly, Rufus and Lewis Clayton, backwains dressed person. Mrs. Hard- Franklin Sparks, J. P. Rose, Rus-

Birthday Party To Three Children Powell.

Bobby Frazizer, Ruby Hoyle and William Frazier were recently entertained at the home of Mrs. R. I. Frazier with a birthday party in honor of the three children who celebrat ed birthdays during the same week

The children enjoyed games, both indoor and outdoor between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock, after which ice cream and cake were served the small guests. Each of the children had a birthday cake upon which were the number o candles corresponding to the number of years of age the per-A Weiner Roast son was. Bobby had five candles, Ruby four, and William three and each blew out his own.

The hostess, Mrs. R. I. Frazier was

LIPSTICK GIRL ETC

Peter. So many fellows are letting

"I'm glad somebody does," he shrugged. "Well—that's that! What

"That's it-what. And where? Jobs eing the least plentiful thing in the world just now, that complicates the me tell you something. Will you

"I'm beginning to believe the sup-osition is true that genuine artists

you being the first and best example

"Is that all you have to tell me?

know that already," disdainfully.

admit the truth. Then, see here! Did you ever realize that no business success is ever founded on hope and ambition and ability, alone? Every success has to have a financial foundation. Yet, of all the stupid people in the world, artists imagine that they are not self-made unless they starve and freeze and live absolutely world. Is that sense?" she demanded.

"Put into words, it doesn't sound practical," Peter admitted. "But what else can they do? You think I should "Absolutely not. No more than a his wife's money to go into any bust-ness. But he would borrow money and sell stock for a foundation, and then set to work to make good. Your talent and your future are just as you were as practical as you are artistic, you would borrow money to comfortable living, and then give

Peter sighed. "I had hoped to make

"You are stubborn, aren't you?"

"All right, granting that you are right and my future is worth an in-

"No one else needs to be," she re-another cigaret. "I have meany to a safer place to put it than in the plied casually, intent with light

ican sculptor of the future!" (TO DE CONTINUES to yourself and Camilla."

Avis smiled

vinced?"

take my wife's money, then?

"Well, that's a good start. You

"Then don't be silly, Peter.

magic touch of toil."

problem even better.

"At what?"

Itiously. She restored his tranquility, personal as if she were answering

Rebecca and Mildred Hoyle, Mary and Edna Bowen and George and William

Flat Rock News By MISS MABEL NELSON.

Mr. J. W. Reavis, T. P. Hester, and Mrs. Henry Satterwhite and daughter, Gladys spent last Thursday in Thomasville, N. C., as the guests of Mr. Reavis' daughter. Mrs. H. L.

Miss Janie Wortham spent last week in Raleigh, as the guest of her cousin, Mrs. E. W. Moore.

Rev. J. W. Braxton was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wortham and family Sunday.

Miss Blanche Wortham spent Sun-Nelson.

ter, Mrs. Frank Rose of Thomasville, Louis Davis is sepnding sometime this week in Durham, as the geust of relatives

returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fowler and family of Florence, S. C., are visiting Miss Elizabeth Wilkerson spent ometime last week in Townsville, as the guest of Miss Fay Howell. Miss Josephine Langston of Henderson spent the past week-end with Misses Helen and Mabel Nelson. Miss Fay Howell of Townsville is spending sometime this week with Miss Elizabeth Wilkerson.

Mrs. T. P. Hester entertained her Sunday school class last Tuesday even ing at 8 o'clock, with a Hide Party. The secrets of several games being hidden on the lawn were found and played by the guests, after which the members found a hidden truck loaded with hay, on which they enjoyed a very pleasant hay ride. After the ride refreshments were served in the din-May with Misses Helen and Mabel ing room by the hostess.

Nelson.

Those present were Misses Ethel Elizabeth Wortham, Ester Clarke,

Katherine Reavis, Nellie Reavis, Mildred. Mary Lee and Louise Twisdale. Ruth Hope, Mavis Hester, Annie Pearl 666 SALVE for HEAD COLDS. Jones, Grace Neathers and Alma Richardson. Messrs Harry and Claude Most Speedy Remedies Known.

Person Honeycuit of Durham, who Wortham, Jr. Eldrice Clarke, Robert has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Lee Jones, Thomas and Brodie Rich-Christine Gardner for sometime, has ardson, William Ellis, Kemp Hester and Louis Davis. Sunday school was held at Flat Rock M. P. church at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Fowler's sister, Mrs. George Har- the superintendent. Mr. H. E. White in charge.

Preaching services were held at 11 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. J. W. Braxton in charge.

Christian Endeavor met at 7 o'clock. Those taking part on the program were: Misses Ethel, Elizabeth and Blanche Wortham, and Mavis Hester, Messrs. Claude Wortham, William Ellis and Rev. J. W. Brax-

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and family of Durham were the guests of Mr. Davis' father, Mr. W. T. Davis, Sunday.

Checks Malaria in 3 days, Colds first day, Headaches or Neuralgia in 30

In 1931

Good Buy

For equivalent value

TODAY

The Same Styling Same Tested Values Same Fine Fit Same High Quality

Difficult to believe, isn't it, that you can buy genuine, fur-trimmed Printzess garyear you'd have paid as much as $35.00 for tinguished Printzess.

There is quality in every chie line . . . silhouettes reflect the latest themes and a wide range of colors in rich autumn shades is available for your selection. Choose a Printzess and know you are well groomed for fall. Other Printzess coats for street, dress or sports at $16.50 to $98.50.

Wednesday Specials

Standard brands of sheets 81x99, 79c, 63x90, 69c Pillow cases, 42x86, pair 25c Crinkle bedspreads, 72x108 89c Printed broadcloth, 39c quality, yard, 15c Large bath towels, 5 for $1.00 Linen Dresses, $5.50 values, $3.79, $3.95 values, $2.98

$5.95 lace trimmed dresses $3.95

Voile dresses, $2.95 value, $1.98, $1.95 value $1.39, $1.50 value 98c, $1.00 value 79c.

Two pound jar best grade peanut butter 20c 24 pounds Vanco plain flour 55c One quart Wesson oil 35c Eight cans Pet milk 24c

E. G. Davis & Sons Company

Brinisess

ments for $25.00, for equivalent value last these coats. Beautifully designed and tailored in the fine manner that has always dis-

One lot of ladies' shoes, pair $1.00'