CHURCH SOCIETIES ARROUNCEMENTS

MARRIAGES PARTER SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

SOCIETY NEWS

LIFE EVERLASTING. A little plant her white hand set Beside the gate one vanished spring 14 vivid with remembrance yet, A lovely thing.

to gaze at it in awe When I was young. Its very name could conjure dreams as moon, as Or sunset's flame.

Life Everlasting! She is gone
Who held this humble flower dear,
Yet faithfully it blossoms on. From year to year.

For though time briefly separate That land beyond death's guarded

Whete life lives on forever! Richard Moreland, in Extensien Magazine.

Enters School in Balitmore Lawrence Harris left yesterday for Banmore where he will enter school Here for Week-End. Howard Allen, student in Richmend Medical College, spent the

Miss Linehan Visitor. Miss Dorothy Linehan, of Raleigh, spending a few days here with Miss Rebecca Church on North Wil-

To Enter N. C. C. W. Misses Margaret Bunn and Elizabeth Poston left this morning for Greenshore where they will enter N. W for the fall term.

Returns to Norfork

Scull has returned to set holde in Norfolk a., after spend-

Mrs H M Church and family. Home from Elen. R A Whitten, Jr., student at Elon Conege spent the week-end in the with his mother, Mrs. R. A. Whit-

Howland street

Here from Washington Greege H. Spooner, Jr., of Washthe week with his wife, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. M. Church.

Returns from Winston-Salem. Miss Katherine Young returned from a two week's visit to friends in and has as her Miss Elizabeth Webster Returns to Norfolk.

Miss Mildred Brinkley returned to Notice Va., yesterday after spendmy sometime in the city as the house gues ther cousin, Miss Margaret Bricke on Harrell street.

Guests of Rev. E. R. Nolson. Garland Nelson, Cary Nelson, of Washington, D. C., and Jimmie Johnson of Wooster, Ohio, spent the Mrs E. R. Nelson, of Gary street.

B. I'. W. Club To Meet The B. P. W. club will meet in the H Leslie Perry Memorial Library Luesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today. A program has been planned and a full attendance is

To Flora MacDonald College. ara Mae Ellis left today for Fora MacDonald College at Red Springs to resume her studies after spending the summer vacation here r parents, Mr. and Mrs. Her-

Mrs. Smith To Be Hostess.

Robert Long Smith is the hostess for the next regular meeting of the Bridge Luncheon Club, which will be held on Wednesday morning a' Il o clock at West End Country Cub Members planning to attend are sed to get in touch with Mrs. Bmith immediately so that reserva ons may be made.

To Train for Nurse.

Miss Elizabeth Fleming left yesleiday for Richmond. Va., to spend a few days with relatives before enelling St. Elizabeth's hospital, where the will be a student nurse. She was

STEVENSON

NOW SHOWING 4 MARX BROS. in

'HORSE

FEATHERS" Added Comedy: ANDY CLYDE

Boudior Butler"

AND CURIOSITY 10-25c; Night .. 10-85c

With every child at Delicious "Horsefo

Coming: THURSDAY-FEDAY CHARLES FARRELL and JANET GAYNOR in

Miss Esther Wicker Smith, to Com-mie Winton Rigsbee, December 26, 1982, in Richmond, Va. "FIRST YEAR" of friends in this section.

HE HAS WAYN HAIR I

Tala Birell, interesting European screen actress, has selected this blue cloth suit with blue and green print crepe blouse. The jacket has no collar and from the three-quarter length sleeves the blouse peeps out. A scarf, edged with a fluted ruffle, is arranged with one end on the outside and the other buttoned inside the incket and extending below it.

Week-End in East Carolina. Ralph L. Holland spent the week-end visiting friends in Kinston and other cities in the eastern part of the State.

st of Miss Cooper. Miss Elizabeth Proctor spent yes-terday with Miss Elizabeth Cooper while en route to her home in Lum-Resurns to Wake Forest. Crawford Peace expects to return to Wake Forest College tomorrow to enter his sophomore year at that berton.

Visiting in Wilmington. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Rose, Jr., and little daughter left yesterday to spend a few days with friends in Wilmington.

From Ellerbe Springs. Miss Elizabeth McCormick and companied by her mother, Mrs. Miss Lillian Kearney have returned ward Fleming, who will visit in from Ellerbe Springs and other cities in the southern North Carolina.

> Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rowland, of Bishopville, S. C., are the guests of Entertain Friends Mrs. E. W. Powell at her home on North Garnett street.

Returns to Lumberton Market. Reed Harris returned to the tobacco market in Lumberton after spending the week-end in the city with his mother, Mrs. A. J. Harris.

Prayer Meeting Band To Meet. The Prayer Meeting Band will meet Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock in the home of H. T. Tucker on Alexander avenue, and go from there in a body to White Memorial M. E. church, where Rev. D. E. Earnhardt is conducting a special meeting.

Returns to Bristol College. Miss Hallie Frank Mills returned to Virginia Intermont College at Bristol, Va.-Tenn., today to resume her studies there. She was accom-panied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mills. who will return to the South Carolina tobacco markets for December Marriage Is Now Announced Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Perry ansounce the marriage of their sister, Mrs. Ribsbee will be remembered here as a nurse at Maria Parham hospital at one time, and has a num-Kerley.

Occasional -Wife & EDNA ROBB WEBSTER

were mechanical. She was thinking that papers rustled or elipped tomeither about her nose nor the angle gether caused "lightning" over the air, and various other facts concernttle, with excitement and apprehenhon. In another half hour, she would be speaking into the microphone to thousands, perhaps. There also was a possibility that she would be speaking to no one, except Peter. She laughed shakily at the thought. All that effort and anxiety and ex-pense, just to speak to Peter!

true. The response to her Tiny Tots had been too convincing of her pub-lic's interest, and the advertising of Hoyt. lic's interest, and the advertising of her radio programs too thorough to deny her an audience. She visioned that audience now, vaguely, reaching far out integimitless space, instead of her own chic figure in the dressing room mirror at the office. Her new autumn ensemble of transparent not express in words: her forgiveness of the page at off by a smartly ness for this secrety and the importrim purse and a perky white bow venture. on the snug black velvet hat perched "Whyjauntily on the back of her black anticipated that formal meeting with the man whom she had known as "dad" all her life. It might not be quite fair of her to surprise him like this, but she thought she deserved the right to make of it an important The circumstances had warranted it, she believed.

Mr. Bowman's car was waiting at the curb to whisk them away with a sense of importance. It had been a long time since Camilla had ridden behind a liveried chauffeur. She would never have supposed that last time, that the next event would be a mani-that the next event would be a manifestation of her success in her believed work, and so soon.

Arrived at the towering building on the top of which was the broadcasting station, an elevator whisked them upward and deposited them in a large, handsomely appointed reception room where a girl at the switchboard announced them. The program manager, Mr. Ritchie, appeared presently and greeted Camilia with deferent graciousness.

"You must get acquainted around place to avoid the least fractional arising. Camilla thrilled to this new experience of being a part of that vast organization of education and amusement that flooded the air all over the world from these perfectly regulated units.

A red light flashed above the letter A on the signal board, and the voice of the station announcer began his introduction to the Wheatheart for the group.

Cereal program. The orchestra followed instantly with a gay selection.

Mr. Ritchie introduced Mr. Hoyt

"You must get acquainted around"

Area light flashed above the letter A on the signal board, and the voice of the station announcer began his introduction to the Wheatheart for the group.

Cereal program. The orchestra followed instantly with a gay selection.

Mr. Ritchie introduced Mr. Hoyt

Who in the world but you, dar-you are going to be one of our regu-lar visitors," he told her pleasantly. so we'll go right in now. Mr. Hoy any minute.'

and drew her hat over her head at a pert angle, but her movements were mechanical. She was thinked

Mr. Ritchie looked from one to the other, as puzzled as was Alexander black velvet was set off by a smartly ness for this secrecy and the importance of her responsibility to his ately.

"Why-of course, I know Mrs. An-She joined Mr. Bowman in the twinkle of pleasure that she remembered so well gleamed in his eyes to the studio to introduce her to that important client of the firm, then. He took her hand quietly. "My heartiest congratulations, Camilia," twisted smile. Mr. Alexander Hoyt.

Even in her trepidation, she had to smile a little to herself when she anticipated that formal meeting with

There were a few moments of comwith deferent graciousness.

"You must get acquainted around briefly and he, in turn, presented here and make yourself at home, if Camilla. His audience and the occuling, would think of calling me before I left here?" she exclaimed joyyou are going to be one of our regular visitors," he told her pleasantly.
"You will broadcast from studio A, herself when he said:
"The

They passed through several rooms pass on to you a lovely surprise imagine, and I'm going to have to into a spacious, high-ceilinged room, soft-carpeted, heavy velvet hangings at the high arched windows. Two have pot known who first thought concert grand planos made little important in the concert grand planos made little important grand planos made little important grand planos made little important grand grand grand grand grand grand grand pression in the room's size, other musical instruments stood about, inscluding a little old-fashioned organ; own little girl, grown up and work-you under."

I. before this afternoon. Imagine my fan mail day after tomorrow snows own little girl, grown up and work-you under." cluding a little old-fashioned organ; a few chairs.

A half dozen microphones were suspended from the ceiling. Camilla she was working somewhere with had been there before, to try out her voice; at that time she had been surprised that the "mike."

"Ilfe for your entertainment and were not like those one saw errors."

"Ilfe for your entertainment and were not like those one saw errors."

"In grown up and working she was working somewhere with then, as I promised."

"I called because I was afraid you would forget."

"If for your entertainment and "As if I could!" Camilla repriments in the working somewhere with the work would forget."

"As if I could!" Camilla repriment the limit of the working somewhere with the work would forget."

"As if I could!" Camilla repriment the limit of the working somewhere with the work would forget."

"As if I could!" Camilla repriment the work is a splendid and beautiful.

would love her as much as I do. And now, I am going to let her tell you the first adventure of her little people over the radio. Miss Anson." Camilla never knew quite how she managed to control her voice after that comment. Fortunately, she had written out her story so that she could refer to it in emergency, which gave her a sense of security, and she managed to get through the ordeal somehow. Her voice sained confidence and clarity as she continu Il that effort and anxiety and exence in an anxiety and exence in anxiety anxiety and exence in anxiety and exence in anxiety anxiety and exence in anxiety and exence in anxiety anxiety anxiety and exence in anxiety chair with a feeling of weak exhaustion, wondering if she had been a dallure. But Mr. Ritchie smiled re-assuringly and whispered. "Spien-did," under cover of the music which

Mr. Hoyt took her arm affection-

"I can't tell you how proud I am. Camilla, nor how much I appreciate what you have done for me. Your son-my Camilla—can it be possi-ble?" He was speechless, but that mother will be immensely pleased,

"Sorry, but I can't tonight dad You know, Peter leaves day after tomorrow for New York to sail on the sixteenth. But I shall be seeing ment and explanation and then the you more often when he is gone. I room began to stir with other arrivals, people coming and going, or-chestra instruments being tuned, an less busy very soon. I do want to atmosphere of waiting expectation. talk with you about—everything, and A huge clock on one side of the I'd like to have some co-eperation room, with a long, impatient second on some of my ideas hereafter. It's hand, measured off the passing time been—" she stopped a little breath-rapidly.

Lights flashed on a signal board. Finally, double sound-proof doors were closed, everyone was in his place to avoid the least fractional second of delay (Carville brettlet).

"Thought I'd better catch you so we'll go right in now. Mr. Hoyt has not yet arrived, but I expect him any minute."

"Boys and girls, I am not only gowhile I could. How do I know where ing to introduce to you the creator you may be going next? A famous of the Tiny Tots, but I am going to wife is the most elusive thing I can

"Perfect-wonderful. I'll bet your

Rotary Charity Ball To Be Tuesday Night

much activity during the day as those on Friday night, and at a dance for in charge of putting the warehouse the "Debs" on Saturday morning in in shape and the decorators were busy with their duties.

Evergreens are to be placed about the warehouse as soon as the clean- card. ing of the floor is completed and the decorations will be strung in place today and tomorrow. Special light-ing effects will be used in the warehouse tomorrow night, it is thought to add much to the beauty of the Mrs. R. E. Clements, chairman of the ladies in charge of the refreshments, had her committee busy today preparing for a large crowd that will feast at the cabaret tables tomorrow night. Refreshments are to be sold, with the profits derived from them being turned over to the same charity fund that the ball receipts are themselves. The cabaret is some what new around in this section, and it is thought that it will meet heartily with the approval of the dancers. Spectator seats will be erected to day or tomorrow to accomodate the crowds expected to view the dance from this vantage point. These seats will be sold at a nominal cost to those desiring them. Jelly Leftwich and His Orchestra are expected to arrive in the city to morrow afternoon to begin their preparations for the ball Tuesday night This orchestra has just completed en-

Macy, and Rowland Ellington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gill, Sunday.

Miss Marion Woodlief spent last week in Henderson as the guest of Misses Kathyn and Lillian Murphy. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Woodlief and on, Ashby of Winston-Salem, spent the past week-end with friends in Henderson and with relatives here

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooksie and little daughter, Rose, of Washington, D C S. G Stainback and Mrs Laura Birdsong of Halifax, were the guests of Mrs. Josie Duke Woodlief last Friday evening.

Mrs. W. T. Landis Improved. Mrs. W. T. Landis has returned to her home in Oxford after spending several weeks in the city with her aunt, Mrs. J. Y. Landis, on Chestnut street, and her friends will be glad to learn that she is much improved after a lengthy illness.

The Big Henderson Warehouse, the gagements in Raleigh, playing for the place of the Rotary Club's big Charity Black Cat Cotillion Club dence on Ball tomorrow night, was a scene of Thursday night, the Deputante Ball the Sir Walter notel. This band is generally liked through this section and is expected to be a big drawing

A short veil adds a smart touch to the ensemble worn by June Clyde, pretty ingenue of the screen. Her suit is brown with three-quarter length coat trimmed with beaver. The hat is brown

Removal Notice

I have moved from the Horner Building to the building formerly occupied by Barnes Music Store next to Henderson Furniture Co.

S. Hayes Grocery

'Phone 247-248

With Chicken Fry

By MISS MARION WOODLIEF Misses Madolyn Ellington and Natalie Smith entertained a number of their friends at the home of Mrs. Thad Woodlief on Friday evening with. a chicken fry. Those enjoying Misses Ellington and Miss Smith's hospitality were: Misses Alice Cline Smith, Mary Allen Row land. Hazel and Helen Woodhief Crystal Wynne, Ila Mae Young, Eliza beth Young, Ada Newell Watkins, Rachel Watkins. Eunice Watkins. Annie Laurie Rowland, Ruth Giil, Myrtle Mitchell, Sallie Mitchell, Rachel Edwards, Grace Edwards, Emid Kerley, Lessie Woodlief, Eleanor Woodlief, Phyllis Smith, Eleanor Smith, Elizabeth Browne; Messrs. Fyrrest Smith, Edwin Ellington, Dwight Rowland, C. B. Woodhef, Wayne Woodlief, Jasper Wynne, Charlie Kit-trell, Freddie Fallis Finch, Edwin Young. Conrad Coghill, Bill Watkins, Norman Smith, Walton Smith, Wood row Hayes, Jack Fuller, Donald Mitchell, Carl Edwards, Bill Roe, Tal-madge Edwards, Bryant Cettrell, Paul Kerley, Bob Kerley, Claude Kerley, Kenneth Woodlief, Arnette Stedge Paul D. Woodlief, Thad Woodlief, Horace Woodlief, Mesdanies Thad Woodlief, Horace Woodlief, T. W.

Bobbitt News By MISS MARION WOODLIEF

and Mrs. W. Duke Woodlief spent the past week-end as the guests of Mr. Woodlief's mother, Mrs. Josie Duke Woodlief.

Mrs. Josle Duke Woodlief, Mr. and Mrs. W. Duke Woodlief, Miss Luna Duke of this place and Miss Brent Smith of Richmond, Va., spent Saturday in Wilmington, N. C., and Sunday in Dunn, visiting Mrs. W. Duke Woodhef's mother.

Misses Kathyn H. Murphy and

Marion C. Woodlief, and Messrs Bill Royster of Oxford and Alex Finch of this place spent Sunday in Ra-leigh with friends and relatives. Miss Hazel Willis of Greenville College, Greenville, N. C., returned home with Miss Kathyn Murphy, Sunday from Raleigh. Norman Smith spent Sunday in Durham With friends and relatives. Mrs. I. W. Finch and son, Ries spent Sunday afternoon with her daughter Mrs. Robert Lassiter at Warrenton. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Gill had as their guests the past week-end their son, Paul of Durham.

Misses Charlotte and Elaine Woodlief who spent last week with their aunt, Mrs. D. N. Nelms of near Louisburg, have returned home Mrs. Harwood Pace and children were the guests of Mrs. W. N. Smith Wednesday afternoon.

Betty and Hubert Hight were guests of Rowland Ellington Wedresday afternoon James Finch of Washington, D. C., was the guest of Rowland Ellington Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Otho May and children of Henderson were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Woodlief the past week. Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Rowland and children, Annie Laurie, Robert and

CHARITY BALL

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 13 Big Henderson Warehouse

Time 10 'til 2-Music By

JELLY LEFTWICH And HIS ORCHESTRA

Dancing Per Couple $2.00 Spectators 50c Per Person

Under auspices of Henderson Rotary Club for the benefit of community service work.