LANDSLIDE TOWARD STATE DEMOCRACY IS NOW EXPECTED

Party Headquarters In Raleigh See the "Breaks" Coming Their Way Continuously

FLIGHT OF TILLETT CONSIDERED BOOST

Republican Lieutenant Governor Aspirant Wanted In Georgia On Bad Check Charge; Newell Strongest G. O. P. Candidate, But Is No Threat To Reynolds

Daily Dispatch Bureau, in the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Sept. 26.—Democratic leaders from all sections of the State who have been visiting party headquarters here as well as Chairman J. Wallace Whoberne of the State Democratic Executive Committee and his associates at the progress being made by the Democratic cause. They point out that the Democratic party is getting the advantage of the "breaks" in North Carolina just as it seems to be over the nation as a whole.

There is no disguising the fact that Democrats here are chuckling over the predicament in which the State Republican ticket is now placed, in spite of a tendency to sympathize with the individuals, perhaps. But with Boone P. Tillett, the Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, wanted in Atlanta, Ga., on a bad check charge with reputation papers already honored, and with Jake F. Newell, Republican candidate for the United States Senate demanding Tillett's removal from the Republican ticket, the situation is almost made to order. Democratic leaders agree. In fact, indications are that the Democratic campaign managers in this State will scarcely have to devote any attention to the Republican campaign within the State, thus making it possible to concentrate upon the national campaign.

OWNERS BLAMED IN ROCKINGHAM STRIKE

Raleigh Thinks Gardner's Moves Throw Responsibility There

Daily Dispatch Bureau, in the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Sept. 26.—Although the efforts of Governor O. Max Gardner to end the textile strike still in progress in Rockingham have not succeeded as yet, the opinion is stronger than ever here that he has pursued a wise course and that he has done everything he could do to end this strike, both within his legal and moral powers. In fact, the conviction here among those who have followed the governor's efforts is that the responsibility for the continuation of the strike rests squarely upon the mill owners, and that the strike would now be over if these owners had been willing to meet their employees and the governor anywhere near half way.

Governor Gardner has had nothing to say concerning the strike situation since his statement of Saturday in which he announced that his offer to arbitrate the strike had been declined by W. E. Cole, president of the Hannah Pickett Mills, and by George Entwistle, president of the Entwistle Mills. But it is known that he is deeply disappointed at the refusal of these two mill heads to even try to arbitrate whatever differences still exist and thus bring an end to a situation that is already causing much suffering and hardship to hundreds of families directly employed by these mills, as well as to hundreds of others less directly connected with the governor has definitely decided not to send any troops to Rockingham, just as he has decided to use troops in all recent strikes.

Those who know Governor Gardner know that he takes a much different view of strikes and strike difficulties than did Governor Cameron Morrison. (Continued from Page Two.)

Daily Dispatch Bureau, in the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Sept. 26.—Not only will Franklin D. Roosevelt be elected president of the United States in November, but he will be elected with the help of New York and Pennsylvania, both of which will go Democratic this fall, though normally Republican, according to Odus M. Mull, of Shelby, former chairman of the State Democratic Executive committee. Mr. Mull has just returned from a trip to New York and reports that sentiment there has changed decidedly within the past three weeks, and that the election of Roosevelt is now being generally conceded.

A little over three weeks ago when I was in New York, talking with bankers and business men there, not a single one of those I came in contact with thought Roosevelt had a chance and maintained Hoover would again (Continued on Page Three.)
