CLUBS SOCIETIES ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEPTEMBER. Wind and the robin's note to-day have heard of autumn and berry. The green long reign of summer. The rust is falling in the leaves. September stands beside the sheaves. The new, the happy comes.

Not sad my season of the red And russet orchards gaily spread From Cholesbury to Cooming. Not sad when twilight valley trees Are shrouded on misty seas, And beetles go abooming.

Now soon shall come the morning snows. In January, soon the coloured clouds From oak and ash and willow, And soon the thorn and briar shall be In scarlet and in yellow.

Spring laughed and thrilled a million veins. And summer shone above her rains. In full September's faring; September talks as kings who know The world's way and superbly go In robes of wisdom's wearing. John Drinkwater, in "Collected Poems."

Day in Richmond. Mrs. R. G. Kittrell and Mrs. B. H. Perry spent the day in Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Harris Improving Mrs. L. H. Harris, of Henderson Route 3, is recovering, at her sister's home on Young street, after an illness of several days.

Rehearsal Tonight. The regular rehearsal of the choir of the First Baptist church will be held this evening in the church at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Returns to Massachusetts. Mrs. Marie Bruin, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Vanant, on Ghoslon avenue, left today for her home in Attleboro, Mass. She was accompanied as far as Richmond by her sister, Miss Eleanor Vaughan.

Mrs. Gary Meets The Sorosis Club

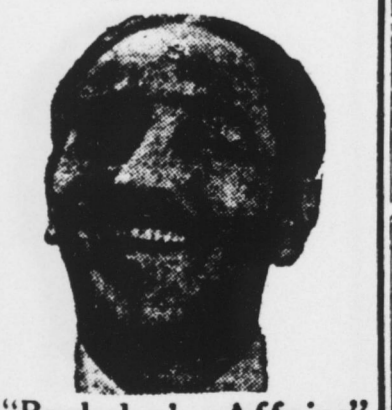

The Sorosis Club met Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of Mrs. R. C. Gary on Clarke street with the president, Miss Cornelia Gary, presiding over the meeting. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. J. C. Gardner, Mrs. Eric G. Flanagan read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll. Following the business session, Miss Mary Belle Gary, leader for the afternoon, announced the subject, "Poetry and read a paper on "The Technique of Contemporary Poetry." She spoke of the return of love for poetry and of modern poetry, giving in idea of the difference of modern poetry and poetry of other days. She gave "Patterns" by Amy Lowell as an example of modern poetry. In the absence of Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. P. H. Rose read Edna St. Vincent Millay's poem, "Renascence." Mrs. A. S. Watkins read the poems, "Santa Fe Trail" and "Humoresque" by Rachael Lind-

Immediately following the program, the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Thomas Gary, and sister, Mrs. F. B. Roberts served a delicious salad course which was followed by cake.

Students Club Has Its First Meeting

The first meeting of the season for the Students Club was held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. W. D. Burwell on Chestnut street with Mrs. Burwell, Mrs. W. R. MacNair and Mrs. J. Y. Paris as joint hostesses. Mrs. Burwell's home was decorated with lovely fall flowers and beautiful trees. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. W. D. Burwell, voicing a word of welcome to the members and invited guests. Mrs. J. Y. Paris presented the subject for the year, "Lectures by Eminent Educators of North Carolina" with social meetings held with miscellaneous programs. There will be nine lectures held this year and six social meetings by the clubs, it was said. Mrs. Paris told about each of the lectures in just a few words and aroused a great deal of interest in them among the club members. Miss Nannie Crowder gave "By Courier," one of O Henry's readings, which was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held on October 13, at which time Dr. E. McNeill Poteat, of Raleigh, will lecture to a joint meeting of different clubs at the Parish House. Those present, other than the regular members, were guests, Mrs. I. W. Hughes, Mrs. C. H. Egges, Miss Gussie Blackhall, Mrs. Egerton, of Greensboro, Mrs. A. M. Scales, Miss Maxine Taylor and Miss Shannon Morton. The hostesses served an ice course with coffee and nuts.

The Christian's Devotional Life THE WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

The Golden Text

Grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

II Pet. 3:18 (The International Uniform Lesson for Oct. 2 is Psalms 11-6, 119:9-16; Daniel 6:10; Matt. 6:5-15; II Tim. 3:14-17, being the first of a three-month course on "Christian Standards of Life." The Golden Text is II Peter 3:18, "Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.")

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL. Tennyson truly says, "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of," and likens prayer to "a golden chain that binds the whole round earth in every way about the feet of God." But despite this power of prayer it still remains our greatest undeveloped, if not undiscovered, source. Prayer is more than asking God for things. It is communion with God, opening the sluice gates of heaven for the inflow of streams of divine power and blessing into lives otherwise weak and barren. So the man of prayer is "like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; whose leaf also shall not wither, and whose increase shall not cease." What irrigation is to the desert, prayer is to human life. "Prayer changes things."

The Spirit of Prayer. Addressed to God, as prayer is, it should be free from ostentatious or hypocritical show "to be seen of men." This does not mean that prayer must always be in secret, but that, so far as concerns doing it for the praise of men, it must be as though done in a closet with fast closed door. "When ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streets; that they may be seen of men." But thou when thou prayest, enter thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy father who is in secret, and thy father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

The Content of Prayer. The content of our prayers should include more than the "vain repetition."

DOWNIE'S BIG SHOW COMING OCTOBER 15

Street Parade Circus Day With Wild Animals, Clowns and Everything

The first big circus of the season will be here soon. Downie Brothers three ring circus under the management of Charles Sparks, though their agent Fred C. Kilgore, have completed arrangements for showing here on Saturday, October 15. Mr. Kilgore stated that all arrangements have been completed including the street parade. Downie Brothers is said to be the largest circus in the world that gives a street parade. The brightly colored circus posters that seem never to lose their lure will soon make their appearance on the billboards and in the windows. The agent placed some sizeable orders for feed for the many circus animals as well as for groceries, meat, and bread for the large circus family.

us and his purposes for us and especially his provision for us in Christ. "Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness" for old and young alike, "furnishing completely unto every good work."
