Lawyers Representing The Marchers Make Scant Headway In Efforts To Invoke Law To Release Group, Demanding $50 Each and Unemployment Insurance

Washington, Dec. 5 (AP)—As Congress met today in a heavily guarded Capitol, an army of demonstrators who descended upon the city last night were still bottled up by bluecoats on a short stretch of pavement in the outskirts.

Following and firing against police, the motley throng once again marching, broke up and headed for the city of police.

When the blue ranks tightened around them, the leaders turned and jeered the police for their brutality.

Lawyers representing the marchers made little headway in efforts to make the law as a means of releasing the group from its pavement camp and permitting the demonstrators to march to the Capitol in support of their plans to demand repeal and enactment of unemployment insurance.

Extra Congress Session From Spring Until Fall Inevitable, Stewart Says

So Great and so Pressing Is Public Business, Not More Than Fourth of It Will Have Been Completed by End of February; Roosevelt Not Fearful

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington, Dec. 5.—Congress will hardly have begun to dispose of the urgent problems awaiting legislative solution by the date constitutionally fixed for the present lawmaking body's final adjournment and a change in administration, next March 1.

From all indications Democratic managers are anxious as party managements usually are to avoid an extra session early in the new regime. The volume of business to be handled on Capitol hill, however, is enormous. If a quarter of it has been acted on by the end of February, it will be surprising and not much of the remaining three-fourths can very well wait.

President-elect Roosevelt is said not to share his advisers' dread of a congressional adjournment to the beginning of his term. This is fortunate that it is inevitable with every prospect that it will continue through most of the spring, summer and fall of the New Yorker's first year in the White House.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Six reputed leaders of a strike which has disrupted fruit picking in Vaca valley were kidnaped from Vaca valley early today, whisked away in automobiles, and reported painted red, beaten and told never to return to the vicinity.

The men were among 15 persons arrested during a clash in front of the public library Sunday. Police estimated 1,000 people participated in the fray when townsfolk up a parade and 150 striking fruit workers, who are demanding a wage of $1.50 a day.

The six were taken from jail by a group of men who drove rapidly into the country in seven automobiles, warning others not to follow. License plates on the cars were covered.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS TO HOE OWN ROW

COMMITTEEMEN MEET

Tyre Taylor, in Raleigh, National President, Outlines Plans At Gathering Of Leaders Held In Atlanta

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 5.—(AP) The nation's young Democrats plan to elect their own officers, maintain their own headquarters and hold their own national convention in the future.

Tyre Taylor, of Raleigh, N. C., national president of the Young Democrats of America, here to preside over a meeting of the national committeemen today, said the young men have decided to retain their individuality as a part of Democracy. The organization, since its formation at Washington prior to the campaign which saw Franklin D. Roosevelt swept into the presidency by the greatest of popular majorities, has been operating under resolutions passed there.

WARLICK AMBITION KNOWN LONG WHILE

Newton Judge Has Had Eyes on Governorship In 1936 for Months; Reynolds and Warlick May Not Have Approved Meeting In Charlotte Last Week

Daily Dispatch Bureau. In the St. Walter Hotel. BY J. C. BASKERVILLE.

Raleigh, Dec. 5.—Instead of helping Senator Robert R. Reynolds or assisting Judge Wilson Warlick of Newton, to get the Democratic nomination for governor in 1936, the movement launched in Charlotte Friday night to form a Statewide Reynolds "organization" to back Warlick for governor, is likely to prove a boomerang, according to the bulk of belief in political circles here. Not that those who have launched or are attempting to launch this Statewide Reynolds organization are not sincere in their enthusiasm and efforts. But the reaction here is that any attempt to set up a political organization now to dictate the selection of a governor in 1936, is likely to prove more embarrassing to the candidates it is supporting than anything else. The opinion also prevails here that the action taken by this group in Charlotte must have been taken without Judge Warlick's knowledge and probably without Senator Reynolds' knowledge of its intentions.

It has been known here for some time that Judge Warlick has been considering becoming a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1936. Intimations to this effect were heard here even before the Democratic primaries of the spring and summer. He has been considered here as one of the most formidable of

PEANUT GROWERS ARE ORGANIZING

Meeting Held In Many Eastern Carolina Counties For Purpose

Scotland Neck, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Throughout the peanut belt of North Carolina growers assembled in mass meetings today to perfect an organization for withholding the crop from the market.

Meetings were to be held in the court houses of Washington, Martin, Edgecombe, Halifax, Hertford, Northampton, Bertie, Perquimans and possibly Chowan counties. The Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce has charge of organizing the "Scotland Neck" market band plan adopted at a meeting of growers of North Carolina and Virginia at Murfreesboro last Tuesday.

Under it peanuts could not be sold without the permission of a central committee, which would inspect prices offered. Picketing would be resorted to if necessary to persuade farmers to fall in line.

House, By Narrow Margin, Declines To Kill Dry Law

Reynolds Sworn In U. S. Senator

Washington, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Robert R. Reynolds, of Asheville, N. C., was sworn in as a member of the United States Senate today to succeed Senator Cameron Morrison, of North Carolina.

Reynolds' credentials were presented along with those of Walter Walker, of Grand Junction, Col., and E. S. Grammers, of Washington State. All three new members were elected to complete unexpired terms, Reynolds taking the seat of Morrison to complete the term of the late Senator Overman.

Republican Group Aids Roosevelt

Independents To Be Lined Up By Senator Cutting, Who Hurries To Capital

Warm Springs, Ga., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Senator Cutting, of New Mexico, first of the independent Republicans to visit Franklin D. Roosevelt, laid his legislative views beside those of the President-elect in a long conference here today, decided they were similar and left for Washington to talk with colleagues about a concerted program.

While the Democratic president-elect was turning to a brief period of rest between series of calls, Senator Cutting sped northward for the opening of the short session of Congress, taking with him the view that the independent Republicans should get together to agree on a concerted plan of action, upon the legislation that will be the business of the session.

In the group that came to see Mr. Roosevelt today were Governor Harry Woodring, of Kansas, and Guy Helvering, national committeeman for that State, and General J. S. Coxey, now mayor of Massillon, Ohio, the leader of the famous march upon Washington in the last decade of the 19th century. Mayor James L. Key, of Atlanta, also was on the list of callers.

MISSING WITNESS FOUND IN WINSTON

Russell Sherwood, Wanted In Mayor Walker Case, Prisoner on Ranch

Winston-Salem, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Russell T. Sherwood, missing witness in the Seabury investigation into fiscal affairs of New York City, is alive and well, and has taken steps to fight for rights, Cardis Walker, an accountant, said here today.

Sherwood, one-time secretary to and close associate of Jimmy Walker, former mayor of New York, spent several days here last week. Cardis Walker said, and employed the latter to make an investigation concerning assessments, penalties and liens filed against him by the collector of internal revenue in New York.

Missing for months, Sherwood was quoted by Walker as saying he "had been held a prisoner on a ranch in northern New Mexico."

Walker said Sherwood told him he had been advised to remain away from New York during the first part of this year, but that, with the convening of the Democratic National Convention in Chicago, he found himself a prisoner on a ranch which he said was

Stronger Immigrant Law Urged

Secretary Doak Says Enough Labor In United States For Long Time

Washington, Dec. 5.—(AP) Tightening of immigration laws to limit entry of aliens to those actually needed in specific trades was recommended to Congress today in the annual report of Secretary of Labor William N. Doak.

He also urged that retraining of the English language be made an essential requirement for naturalization. The secretary, in reviewing his department activities in the fiscal year ending June 30, stated only 35,776 immigrants were admitted—the smallest number in more than 100 years—and that 32,838 either had been deported or sent out of the country at their own request or allowed to leave to avoid deportation.

"Mature consideration of our conditions leads me to believe," he said, "that the country will not likely again be in condition to absorb successfully a similarly vast number of aliens as were allowed until a few years ago. I believe that in development of our resources and the natural increases of the present population, we have approached or reached a stage when the facilities and opportunities of employment will not exceed our supply of workers at home."

WILL ROGERS says:

Santa Monica, Calif., Dec. 5.—Everybody is knocking this "Lame Duck" Congress, but do you know, those fellows have chance to make a real name for themselves, and make us ashamed that we fired 'em.

They know exactly how the people voted on every question that they will be asked to decide on. They know the majority didn't want prohibition. They know the majority don't want the debt canceled. They know everybody wants government expense cut in half.

So, when any question comes up, all they have to do is read the election returns. Course, if they want to still be on the minority side of all these things, we will know exactly why they were defeated.
