A world-wide search for the heirs to her $1,000,000 fortune, began in the last lonely days of her life by Mrs. Ida Wood, 94-year-old recluse who died in a New York hotel last March, has ended dramatically in the home of a plumber at North Sale, Mass. Mrs. Wood is now believed to have been a great-aunt of Mrs. Catherine Sheehan, inset. Her husband, Maurice, is shown in his shop, above. Mrs. Wood kept most of her fortune hidden.
