Christmas Greetings

Another year has passed, and the holiday season is here again. It is a time of happiness and good cheer, and we extend sincere good wishes to a large and growing family of friends and patrons in the four states of our acquaintance. It has in some respects been an unusual year, but we have endeavored to render a genuine service in our territory by giving greater values at lower prices than ever before in our history. We can offer assurances, too, that in our stores everywhere, will be found the finest and best assortments of Christmas merchandise and novelties, in the greatest quantity and variety, and with the greatest values, we have ever had. We invite you to our stores to do your holiday shopping, pledging the utmost in service and satisfaction. Our wish to every one is for a happy and joyous Yuletide season.

P. H. ROSE,
President and General Manager.
