

BAPTISTS LAUNCH DEBT FUND DRIVE

Seek To Raise Money To Pay off Obligations on Their Work

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 14—Beginning Sunday, January 15, Southern Baptists are launching a debt-raising campaign by which they hope to give every one of their four million members an opportunity to make a self-denial offering by the first of March for the purpose of meeting the debt-needs of their boards and institutions in 1933, in conformity with the regular debt-raising policy adopted by the last Southern Baptist Convention when it met in St. Petersburg, Fla. in May.

At a recent meeting of the promotion committee of Southern Baptists in this city, Dr. F. F. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church of Knoxville, and also president of the Southern Baptist Convention, was asked to lead the movement throughout the South. His own church anticipated the Southwide movement by putting it on last Sunday, raising $1,325 in its initial effort.

Dr. Brown explains that this campaign is not to interfere with the regular cooperative program of Southern Baptists, that only self-denial, sacrificial gifts, over and above the regular offerings, are to be solicited.

"Gathering up the Fragments" is a supplemental plan adopted by the promotion committee by which the old gold and silver in many homes will be solicited and turned into cash and applied to the debts of the denomination. Many people who are now devoid of ready money will be glad to contribute old jewelry to save the honor and credit of their denomination, said Dr. Brown.

The young people's society of Christian Endeavor will continue to have its meetings in the evening, but the time will be moved back to 7:15 p. m. Herbert Crawford is the leader of the young people's meeting.

All the regular services are expected for the First Methodist Protestant church tomorrow and during the week.

But why go to church any way? Because the human soul needs care and nourishment just as the body does. Our souls may be fed upon stuff which has no spiritual nourishment in it. Many today are trying to nourish their souls on a cheap diet—cheap books, cheap amusements, cheap emotions. These can not supply the strength the soul needs.

Worship is the best food for the soul. Those who deny themselves the benefits of public worship in the church are starving their souls. The spiritual food handed out at the churches may not be what we think we need every time, but we don't find what our spiritual natures need anywhere else.

God is trying to save Henderson through His church, but he can not save those who refuse the means of grace he has provided. The church service is one of the means of grace. Give God and His church a chance to help you.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAYING FOUNDATION FOR ITS REAL JOB

at least. They came back Monday anxious to keep up the pace. The trouble has been that they had very little to work on.

Just as there are few trimmings that can be added to a house until the foundation is laid, there is not a lot that a legislature can do until the budget, revenue and appropriations bills are before it. This year these bills are late. Whether or not that is the fault of any person or group, certainly it is not the fault of the members of the General Assembly. Yet they are getting the blame.

A fact that usually escapes the public is that most of the legislature's early work—once it has completed the flurry of early bills passed under suspension of rules—is done in committee. Visiting taxpayers who are impressed with the short time spent in session frequently go on with reports that the representatives are loafing. Perhaps the solons would be more popular if they equipped committee rooms with galleries.

Even though its progress was not spectacular, the Assembly has gone forward this week. It has taken the following preparatory steps: all of week, first class laborers at $18 a week, second class laborers at $12 a week and the pages at $10 a week.

One of the differences in the bill adopted and the one offered by the Forsyth Senator is in the pay of the pages. The pages had strong defenders in several members of the committee, who protested that the pages could hardly live on less than $250 a day, since the cost of living jumped considerably in the capital city during the time the legislature is in session.

CLOSURE PETITION READY TO BE OFFERED SENATE

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—A drastic closure petition was ready for presentation by Democratic leaders of the Senate today to break the filibuster against the Glass banking bill, but an immediate showdown was averted when the bank measure was laid aside for consideration of Philippine independence.

President Hoover's veto of the Philippine measure was a privileged question, and took precedence.

man, of New Hanover, to reduce the pay of all the employees of the General Assembly 20 per cent and to reduce mileage allowances from 10 cents to five cents per mile. This bill has already been scrapped by the salary and fees committees, and a new bill drawn to reduce the pay of legislative employees approximately $1 a day or about 15 per cent, retaining the five cents a mile mileage provision.

The resolution by Thompson, of Robeson, and five or six others, requesting the appropriations committee to reduce all appropriations for the next biennium 25 per cent below year's expenditures. This resolution was not even voted upon and was referred to the appropriations, where it probably will never be heard from again. Resolutions are not binding, even when passed, and are nothing more than an expression of opinion.

The MacLean resolution calling upon all elected State officials, including judges of the Superior Court and of the Supreme Court, to accept a 15 per cent reduction in their salaries for the next two years and instructing the salary and fees committee to bring out a bill to this effect.

Paul Muni Heads Exceptional Cast In "I Am A Fugitive From A Chain Gang"

A most unusual and extraordinary type of story comes to the screen of the Stevenson Theatre next Thursday and Friday, in the Warner Bros. picture, "I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang," starring Paul Muni, with the most brilliant supporting cast ever used at the Warner Studio.

The play is based on the autobiographical novel of Robert E. Burns. The picture treats of the astounding experiences of a man sentenced to a state chain gang for the theft of less than five dollars, who escaped and is still at large.

The cast is comprised of an impressive list of players selected from both stage and screen. There are thirty-seven actors in important roles besides fifty-three others in "bit" parts and two thousand extras who take the roles of convicts, guards, state officials, soldiers and civilians.

Paul Muni, the sensational "Scarface," was taken from the New York stage where he was playing in the biggest hit of the season, "Counselor at Law," to enact the leading role, the character of Burns himself in his autobiographical story.
