Movement For Cotton Acreage Reduction In State Formally Launched

STATEWIDE DRIVE TO START MONDAY FOR THE SIGN-UP

Details Concerning Contracts Have Not Been Received From Washington Authorities

WHOLE JOB IS TO BE DONE IN WEEK

Contracts To Be Placed In Hands of Individual Farmers by Next Monday, Dean Schaub Says, That Being Date United Campaign In State Begins

Raleigh, June 21.—(AP)—More than 75 leaders of agricultural organizations of North Carolina met here today and started the machinery moving for reducing the State's cotton crop by 363,000 acres under the Federal reduction plan.

Dean I. O. Schaub, head of the State College Extension Service, and leader for the State, outlined the plans but details concerning the contracts have not been received and could not be studied.

United agricultural forces of the State will start the cotton reduction campaign June 26 and the drive must be completed June 29.

The college extension service, State Department of Agriculture, vocational education department, North Carolina Cotton Cooperative, State Grange and other organizations were represented at the meeting and a number of individual bankers and farmers also attended.

Dean Schaub told the representatives that limited information and lack of contracts would probably hinder the movement a little, but that

THREE MORE STATES LINE UP FOR REPEAL

Iowa, New Hampshire And Connecticut Make Fourteen in a Row

(By the Associated Press.) Long dry Iowa, with Connecticut and New Hampshire today brought to 14 the states which in unbroken succession have voted to knock the 17th amendment out of the Constitution.

The Hawkeye state's swing today from the position she had maintained for nearly two decades left trying fixing their hopes for a halt in the parade on Alabama and Arkansas, both voting July 18.

In the doubtful column when the balloting began, Iowa brought in a substantial majority for the repeal amendment, even though it was not as big as that in Connecticut and New Hampshire. But with 611,000 votes in and only 130 precincts miss-

Four Boys Sentenced 5 Nights In Cemetery

High Point Youths Plead Guilty to Opening Woman's Grave To Take Pictures To Further Scientific Study; Take Turns in Serving the Sentence

High Point, June 21.—(AP)—Four high school students who opened a grave here to take pictures to further scientific study in a school club, pleaded guilty today to disturbing a grave and each was sentenced to spend five nights from 10:30 p. m. to 1:30 a. m. alone in the cemetery.

Each also was taxed with the costs. The charge against the four previously was grave robbing but it was explained the youth had taken nothing from the grave, and since this charge was a felony, it was changed to disturbing a graveyard.

The boys are Evans Truesdale, 19; John Thomas, 18; James Gianoulis, 17; Charley Drakulakas, 17. They were arrested the night of June 15 by officers, who were on

Jobs Will Range From Collectors of Internal Revenue To Postmasters, Farley Says

REVENUE JOBS TO BE COMPLETED NOW

Marshals, District Attorneys and Customs Collectors To Be Included; No Postmasters Giving Satisfactory Service Will Be Ousted From Jobs

Washington, June 21 (AP)—Postmaster General Farley indicated today that 1,000 or more appointments will be made after President Roosevelt's return from his vacation cruise about July 1.

The jobs will range from collectors of internal revenue to postmasters. He could not say exactly how many names would be ready for the President's approval.

The appointments for collectors of internal revenue will be completed in this batch, Farley said. Others will include marshals, district attorneys and customs collectors.

Farley said the Post Office Department was now preparing for postmaster examinations, and appointments to these positions would be made rapidly.

He also reiterated that the administration would not remove any present postmasters from his job who is performing satisfactory service.

However, he added, "complaints are being received daily in a number of cases and where the complaint is justified, we suggest a resignation."

One Death When Nazi Make Raid

Hitler Forces Move To Crush Hugenberg's National Party in Germany.

Berlin, June 21 (AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler's Nazi administration moved against Dr. Alfred Hugenberg's Nationalist party today with a series of raids upon various party headquarters in which one man was killed, and with orders dissolving the Nationalist auxiliary organizations.

The fatality occurred at Frankfurt-on-the-Oder, where a man was shot during a raid on the party headquarters.

Dr. Hugenberg, who recently returned from London after he had been virtually repudiated by other German delegates to the world economic conference, was remaining incommunicado. Some quarters asserted that today's events would result in his resignation from the cabinet, in which he is minister of economics and agriculture.

(Before Hitler gained power in Germany, the Nationalists were his allies. He no longer needs them now, as he has a majority in the Reichstag without them, and he has effectively nullified the power of the legislature any way.)

cameramen as he waves from the deck of the Amberjack II. Other photos show the schooner in full canvas and the chief executive with his son, James, and other members of the party. The president expects to be at the wheel a large part of the time during the two weeks' cruise in New England waters.

Employment Gaining Rapidly Over State

Textiles Leading the Way Back to Normal; Over 50,000 of 175,000 Idle Last Winter Now Back To Work; Twice That Many By Fall Is Expected

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, BY J. C. BASKERVILLE.

Raleigh, June 21.—The decided increase in industrial employment, together with the Federal government's program for providing additional employment through the Civilian Conservation Corps and through public construction work, such as road building and allied lines, is materially increasing employment in North Carolina and helping to solve the unemployment problem, according to Ronald B. Wilson, acting director of the Governor's Office of Relief. Out of 175,000 able-bodied persons who were unemployed in the State during January and February, fully 50,000 have gone back to work in the various mills and factories that have started up in the last two months, Wilson believes. More than 7,000 others have been given employment in the Civilian Conservation Corps camp in the State, while 10,000 more will have jobs doing highway construction work by mid-summer, when the State gets its new road building projects under way.

"There is every reason to believe that there will be at least 100,000 more people at work by fall than were employed in January and February of this year," Wilson said. "General Hugh S. Johnson, director of the national recovery program under the national recovery act, estimates that there will be at least 4,000,000 people back at work by October who have been out of work for the past two or three years. North Carolina's proportion of this would be about 33,000. This number, added to those already back at work in the mills and factories and those going back steadily now, together with those who have

MITCHELL BANKING CASE GIVEN JURY

Former New York Money Baron Charged With Fraudulent Income Taxes

New York, June 21.—(AP)—The case of Charles E. Mitchell, until recently a powerful figure in the banking world, who is charged with defrauding the government of more than $850,000 in income taxes was given to a Federal court jury today.

At 11:25 a. m. EST, Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard concluded his charge, and the case, which has been on trial since May 11, was turned over to the 12 men.

The maximum prison sentence, should Mitchell be convicted, would be ten years, and the maximum fine $20,000.

ROOSEVELT HOLDS BOAT CONFERENCE

Sees Colonel House at Gloucester Before Going on Up Coast

Gloucester, Mass., June 21 (AP)—On the rolling waves of the sea town harbor, President Roosevelt interrupted his vacation cruise for a couple of hours this morning to discuss both international and domestic affairs before proceeding on up the coast.

Colonel Edward M. House, intimate advisor of President Wilson on foreign problems boarded the Amberjack II just after Mr. Roosevelt had risen from a late sleep making up for yesterday's long haul from Nantucket, which ended here just before midnight.

The convention assembled this morning to choose among these three cities and to select national officers who were nominated at yesterday's meeting.

Record Top In Heat Is Looked For

Weather Forecasters Expect First Day of Summer To Hang Up New Marks

Charlotte, June 21.—(AP)—Weather forecasters here today looked for a summer's record already established to topple today over various sections of the Carolinas as the mercury in Charlotte went to 95.8 degrees at 12:15 p. m. A reading at the same time yesterday was 92.5.

The bureau said the thermometer here probably would register 100 before the end of the day.

From various points came reports of higher temperature readings today than yesterday.

Shortly after noon Raleigh's thermometer read 99, and forecasters predicted it would pass the 100 mark. Yesterday's highest was 99.1.

Cotton Spinning In May At Highest Peak Since October, 1929

Washington, June 21 (AP)—Cotton spinning operations during May struck their fastest pace since October, 1929, reflecting a revival of buying and increased demands for their products.

The Census Bureau announced today that during the month United States mills operated on an aggregate of 88,309,664 722 spindle hours. In October, 1929, the number of hours was 9,005,849,000.

Since 1929 the number of spindles in place has dropped from about 34,000,000 to 30,959,216 as of May 31. Partly as a result of that operation, were carried on at a higher percentage of capacity on a single shift basis than at any time since the bureau began keeping records in August, 1922.

North Carolina reported 1,846,343 active spindle hours, and the average per spindle in place was 301.
