JUNE COTTON CONSUMPTION MOST SINCE 1912

$115,513,610 Distributed For Public Works To Begin Immediately

GOVERNMENT JOBS GET BIGGEST SUM IN FIRST OUTLAYS

Federal Public Works and Roads Get Nearly All of Huge Sum Already Agreed Upon

OTHER PROJECTS TO BE ALLOTTED SOON

Boulder Dam on Colorado River Well Taken Care of; Funds Apportioned By Bureau and Departments for Most Part, Ickes Announcement Says

Washington, July 14.—(AP)—The public works administration today said how it intended to distribute $115,513,610 as the first step in a program to create a million new jobs by October 1.

That $115,513,610, Secretary Ickes announced, will be portioned out this way: $64,561,542 for Federal public works; $50,000,000 for roads in parks, forests, Indian reservations and public lands; $932,068 for municipal water and sewer plants.

These brought to $753,513,610 the total allocated from the $3,300,000,000 fund made available less than a month ago. President Roosevelt already had approved the expenditure of $238,000,000 on naval construction and $400,000,000 on highways. An additional rivers and harbors program awaits the presidential oke.

This $115,000,000 distribution, Ickes said, is the first in the program of giving new work so that 1,000,000 men may be employed by October 1 in accordance with President Roosevelt's wish.

A vast number of additional projects are yet pending before the public works administration.

SALES TAX SET-UP STILL LOSING GAME

Bracket System Works Out Short of Three Percent Levy As Rule

Daily Dispatch Bureau, Raleigh, July 14.—(AP)—Some of the merchants of the State still do not fully understand the new three per cent sales tax law and regulations, and especially the provision that requires them to pay three per cent on their gross sales, regardless of whether every sale made is taxed or not, according to both Commissioner of Revenue A. J. Maxwell and Willard L. Dowell, secretary of the North Carolina Merchants Association. Many do not seem to understand that the tax must be assessed against each separate sale and not on the total of a series of sales.

Some merchants are segregating

W. S. Parker, Banker And Capitalist, Passes Away While At Morehead City

Resident of Henderson for Half Century Dies Suddenly at Summer Cottage At Age 83

WAS MANUFACTURER DURING MANY YEARS

Funeral Services Are Arranged and Will Be Held From Home on Andrews Avenue Saturday at 6 p. m.; Body Is To Arrive Here This Evening

Waiter Scott Parker, 83, banker and manufacturer, and resident and prominent man of Henderson for half a century, died suddenly at 8 o'clock this morning at his summer cottage at Morehead City. The body will be brought here late today and funeral services will be from his residence on Andrews avenue at 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

Mr. Parker arose as usual this morning and walked to the business part of Morehead, taking his early morning exercise. On his return, he remarked that he felt tired and went to his room and lay down for a rest. A few minutes later he was found dead.

At the cottage at the time were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cooper, his late granddaughter, and their daughter, Fannie, and another granddaughter, Miss Anne Peace all of this city and Mrs. B. H. Burroughs, a near relative.

A message was immediately communicated to Mrs. S. T. Peace, the only surviving child, in this city, and the news of his death that spread rapidly over the community came as a surprise and a shock to every one, for Mr. Parker was one of the city's best known residents, and an exceptionally active and alert man for one of his age.

The funeral will be held at 6 o'clock Saturday evening from the Parker home at the corner of Andrews avenue and Rowland street, and in

May Seek Voluntary Hour Limit

Washington, July 14.—(AP)—Hugh S. Johnson, administrator for the government's industrial recovery enterprise, told newspapermen today that he expected it to be necessary to ask voluntary imposition of hour limits and increases of wages by all business pending approval of individual codes.

This view was taken by him, although recognizing that agreements for minimum hours have been com-

Enrolling Office Cost About Half

Raleigh, July 14.—(AP)—Secretary of State Stacy W. Wade said today that he operated the enrolling office during the 1933 meeting of the General Assembly at a cost of $13,456.35 less in salary expenses than was expended in 1931. Salary costs this year were $16,497.87, Wade said, compared with $29,954.20 two years ago.

ECONOMIC PARLEY PREPARES TO QUIT

July 27 Now Fixed as Final Date for Recess That Will Be Taken

COMMITTEE NOTIFIED

Called on To Have Reports Ready by Next Friday; Every Effort To Be Made To Avoid Atmosphere of Finality.

London, July 14.—(AP)—The steering committee of the world economic conference decided today to recess the worldwide parley on July 27.

All committee were notified to have their complete reports ready by next Friday.

The full bureau meeting will be conducted the following Tuesday and the final plenary session will be held July 27.

It is understood that great care will be taken to avoid a note of finality at the plenary session. There will be a clear indication that the conference is expected to resume at a future date. This attitude would permit continuation of the tariff truce which was for the duration of the parley, and which many nations desire not to terminate.

The plenary session will have to confirm the steering committee's decision to close deliberations, but leaders considered this a mere formality.

Kidnap Banker Named Abductor

Atlanta, Ga., July 14.—(AP)—John K. Otley, president of the First National Bank, today positively identified a New York police photograph of William Delinski, former sailor and stationery salesman with a long criminal record, as the man wanted as the leader in the banker's kidnaping.

The Fulton county grand jury has returned an indictment against "Grover Collins" as the man who engineered the kidnaping of Otley, which lasted only a few hours, when Prior Bowen, 17-year-old school boy, released the banker from his bonds and blindfold.

BOY'S ABDUCTORS IN ANOTHER NOTE

O'Connell Kidnapers Demand New Set of Names of Go-Betweens

Albany, N. Y., July 14.—(AP)—Daniel P. O'Connell, uncle of the kidnaped John J. O'Connell, Jr., received a letter from the kidnapers today ordering the family to submit a new list of intermediaries to be published in three New York newspapers, the Sun, Journal and World Telegram.

The list of go-betweens, the third offered by the family, has been sent to the New York papers. The letter received today was signed by the kidnaped youth. The family established the authenticity of the signature.

The first letter from the abductors demanding $250,000, received last Saturday, bore young John's signature. Two other letters from the kidnap band did not carry his name.

Today's letter, the fourth the family has received was taken from the private mail box of Daniel this morning. It was not made public. It was said, however, that no reference was made to the boy's condition, nor was there any reference to the ransom.

O'Connell, brother of the political family, was kidnaped a week ago today.

State Gets Huge Park Road Fund

Washington, July 14.—(AP)—An allocation of $1,794,826 to North Carolina was announced today by the public works administrator for forests, park and Indian roads under the public works fund.

The allocation to North Carolina was itemized: $81,326,000 for forest highways; $373,000 for forest roads; $1,317,500 for park roads; and $23,000 to Indian roads.

GREAT SMOKY MOUNTAINS AREA GETS LARGE SLICE

Washington, July 14 (AP)—Officials of the National Park Service today said $2,635,000 of the $16,000,000 allotted to national park roads from the public works fund would be allocated to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park in North Carolina and Tennessee.

Park service officials said the fund would be divided equally between the roads of the park in the two states. No decision has been reached yet, they said, on their recommendation for allocation of about $2,000,000 from reforestation funds for completing the purchase of lands for the Smoky Mountains park.

RANSOM DEMANDED FOR ALTON BANKER

Alton, Ill., July 14.—(AP)—Two notes demanding ransom for August Leuer, 77-year-old Alton banker, have been received by Leuer's family, it was announced here today.

Agents for the family said neither of the notes bore Leuer's handwriting.

COTTON MILLS IN JUNE USE TOTALS OF 696,472 BALES

Month's Consumption More Than Double That For June Last Year, Government Says

SOUTHERN STATES LEAD IN RECOVERY

More Than 25 Million Spindles Active During Month, an Increase of Over Five Million Over June Last Year; Most of These Were in the South

Washington, July 14.—(AP)—Cotton consumption during June was the largest for any month since the Census Bureau began keeping monthly records in September, 1912.

The bureau said today that 696,472 bales were required by textile establishments during the 30 days.

The next largest consumption for any month since 1912 was 693,081 bales reported for March, 1927.

Consumption during June, exclusive of linters was more than double that of last year, when 322,706 bales were required.

Particularly noticeable was the record consumption by establishments in cotton growing states during the month, also more than double that of June last year.

Southern textile mills used 565,644 during June, compared with 275,832 bales last year.

Consumption of linters also increased sharply for the nation, with 81,468 bales consumed during June, compared with 46,775 for the month in 1932.

During the month 25,540,504 spindles were active in mills, compared with 20,646,960 last year. Of these during June 17,559,128 spindles were active in cotton growing states, compared with 15,347,908 active there during June last year.

For New England states, 7,242,352 spindles were active in June, compared with 4,569,172 active in June, 1932.

Wilson, July 14.—(AP)—S. C. Wells, 83, prominent citizen and one of the community's oldest business men, died here today. His widow, two daughters and two brothers survive.

Charlotte Bank Order Dissolved

Independence Trust Now Free To Enter Statewide Guaranty Bank Merger

Charlotte, July 14.—(AP)—Judge W. F. Harding today dissolved a temporary injunction restraining the Independence Trust Company of Charlotte from participating in a bank merger leaving the trust company free to become a unit of the recently organized Guaranty Bank.

Protestants against the merger, however, announced immediate steps would be taken to appeal Judge Harding's ruling to the State Supreme Court. E. J. Cansler, Sr., attorney for the protestants, said the appeal would not serve to stay the merger, though, if the trust company wanted to go ahead with its plans before the appeal was decided.

Other banks to be in the merger institution are the North Carolina Bank and Trust Company of Greensboro and the Page Trust Company of Aberdeen.

A temporary injunction restraining the Page Trust Company from participating in the merger is now in effect. Similar to the one against the Independence Trust Company it is to be argued before Judge A. M. Stack in Rockingham July 26.
