Bookland Election Had At Library

Girls and boys registered in the Bookland Election assembled at the H. Leslie Perry Memorial (Library, campaign headquarters, this morning at 10 o'clock to cast their votes for their favorite books in the city, county and state elections. The election was conducted as nearly as possible like a regular election.

Attractive blue, yellow and green ballots bearing the names of the book candidates which had been nominated by the children at a Bookland convention had been prepared, and the marking of the ballots was the final step in the campaign. While the votes were being counted Mrs. John Lee Wester told the campaigners a story which they greatly enjoyed. The meeting then adjourned to the side lawn of the library where the announcement of the election returns took place. There was much excitement as favorite candidates were announced as having won out in the election. Prominent among the winners were Pinocohio as Register of Deeds, Sara Crewe as Sheriff, Robin Hood as Governor, and Toby Tyler as State Representative. Mary Sue Newell was preseted with copy of Robin Hood for having made the best poster during the campaign. Her poster advocated Robin Hood for Governor.

As the voters left they were given lolly pops with jigsaw puzzles of Mother Goose rhymes and well known fairy tales. The Bookland Election Campaign was the library's plan for summer reading for the juvenile members. In previous summers fbook clubs and traveling through books have been arranged for the reading course.
