Certificates Will Be Used In Normal Course of Business To Replace Other Forms of Currency As They Are Turned in to Treasury for Redemption

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Treasury may soon issue $11,000,000 in silver certificates backed by silver received in last June's war debt payment.

The Thomas amendment to the farm law which authorized acceptance of debt payments in this medium, required that the silver thus received be backed for an issue of certificates.

The process of assaying the metal received has just been completed.

The next step would be the engraving of the certificates.

Treasury officials denied today that this would be considered inflationary as the certificates will be used in the normal course of business to replace other forms of currency as they are turned in at the Treasury for redemption.

There was no statement as yet as to what denominations the certificates would be.

The political session was overshadowed during the night by violence marked by the explosion of 12 guns and rifle and machine gun firing.

Wiggin's Stock Sold For Saving

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Evidence was presented to Senate investigators today that Albert H. Wiggin sold large holdings of stock in the Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit Company in 1932 shortly before the board of directors, of which he was a member, voted to pass a dividend.

Previously the former chairman of Chase National Bank testified that his income during the past five years aggregated $5,881,000. His payments during that time on Federal income tax totaled $1,365,234.

The banker, who was head of the finance committee of the B. M. T. at the time of the sales, said he did not definitely know the dividend would be passed, but thought it probable because of notes due to his bank.

Referring to documents, Wiggin said the Sherman Corporation, one of his family companies, held about 26,000 shares of the stock, and disposed of virtually all of it.

He agreed that there was a "marked depreciation" in the price of the stock after the dividend was passed.

MISUNDERSTANDING ABOUT REPEAL; HERE ARE FACTS

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, BY J. C. BASKERVILLE.

Raleigh, Nov. 2.—With the repeal election now only five days away, there are still thousands of people who do not yet understand just what they will be voting for in that election or just how they will vote, judging from the questions being asked of election officials. Many still have the impression that there will be only one ballot and that the only thing necessary will be to vote "for" or "against" repeal of the eighteenth amendment. But this is not the case, since there will be nothing on the main bal-

NATION CRUSADING, EHRINGHAUS SAYS

Governor Tells Lumberton Folks Not To Forget Their Own State

Lumberton, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Governor Ehringhaus today urged citizens of this section not to forget their own State and its problems when they rejoice at the fight of President Roosevelt to restore prosperity.

The chief executive reviewed a long NRA parade here and addressed the mass meeting of citizens from surrounding counties.

Asserting the nation is fighting the greatest and most paralyzing economic stress it has known in more than a century, the governor said it is significant "we fight it in the spirit of a crusader at war, willing, yea eager, to make every sacrifice and endure every burden which a holy cause imposes to the end that our country's good name and welfare may be preserved."

North Carolina as a State and its individual citizens are joining in doing their part in the recovery movement, he continued.

Death of Woman At Charleston Is Police Mystery

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 2.—(AP)—A woman's scream, a pistol shot and the sound of a fleeing automobile—mere phantoms so far as police were concerned—were all officials had to work on today as they investigated the slaying on a street here of Mrs. John Ravenel, Charleston widow.

The 69-year-old woman was found dying a bullet wound near the right arm pit, on a sidewalk here last night. She died a short while later in a hospital, and police were reluctant to label the death murder, accident or suicide.

Mrs. Harry Salmons, who lives near the spot where the woman was found told officers she heard a pistol shot, followed by a woman's scream and the sound of an automobile being driven away from the section about the time Mrs. Ravenel was believed to have been wounded.

DOLLAR DECLINES IN FOREIGN MARKS

Details of Foreign Purchases and of Status of Negotiations With Great Britain Are Guarded Secret; Hoping To Avoid Currency Depreciation

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Roosevelt administration today denied before the world an offer to buy all the foreign gold that is shipped to this country and again advanced the figure at which the R. F. C. makes purchases of the new output of domestic gold mines.

For the latter a price of $32.36 an ounce was established, as compared with $32.26 yesterday.

Meanwhile, the bouillon quotation at London, presumably in response to the Roosevelt plan, rose from $31.52 yesterday to $32.11 today.

The dollar was weak, declining overnight to $4.82 to the pound. It also weakened against the franc.

Details of plans for purchasing the imported gold, including the price to be paid, remained undisclosed, as did the status of negotiations with Great Britain.

These were undertaken for the purpose of avoiding a currency depreciation rate between the two countries as a result of the American operations. The theory behind Mr. Roosevelt's program is that if gold prices can be raised and held at a high level both here and abroad, there will be an automatic adjustment which will raise domestic commodity prices upward as well.

Higher prices is the first objective of the President's recovery program.

Raleigh, Nov. 2.—Tobacco farmers in the eastern counties are already beginning to forget about the "Hoover Depression," and are beginning to call these better times "Ehringhaus Times" instead, according to a State official who has recently returned from the eastern part of the State.

"Well, how are things coming along?" he asked a tobacco farmer in a Kinston tobacco warehouse the other day, merely thinking to make conversation. "Are things looking any better?"

"I should say things are looking better," the farmer said. "It sure looks as if the old Hoover depression that these new times have come on times have gone for good and to stay. These new times are Ehringhaus times. That governor we got now has sure helped things for us farmers down here."
