Britain To Pay $7,500,000 Dec. 15 On Debt Here

NEGOTIATIONS END WITHOUT AGREEING ON FUTURE POLICY

Token Payment Will Be In American Currency In Lieu of $117,000,000 Due Dec. 15

Conference Closes Without Prejudice Until Commercial and Monetary Conditions Become More Clarified; France's Default Policy Is Unchanged

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today announced the end of British war debt negotiations without an agreement, but with the payment of $7,500,000 by Great Britain on December 15 installment.

The token payment will be paid in American currency in lieu of the $117,000,000 due from the British in mid-December under the existing agreement.

The President announced that, in view of the part payment he would not regard the British government as in default.

This was the attitude taken last June, at which time the British paid about ten percent of the amount due, and that in silver at the rate of 50 cents an ounce to the amount of $11,000,000.

In his statement today, Mr. Roosevelt concluded the debt negotiations were ended without prejudice "until certain factors in the world situation

RUSSIAN KNOWN TO PALMETTO WOMAN

Litvinoff First Cousin To Mrs. Bella Bogen, of Denmark, S. C.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 7 (AP)—There's a "local angle" for South Carolina in the forthcoming visit to this country of Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet commissar of foreign affairs, to discuss Soviet recognition with President Roosevelt.

Mrs. Bella Bogen, whose home is in Denmark, S. C., but who is visiting a daughter here revealed that she is a first cousin of the Russian diplomat, and that she and Litvinoff as children lived in Bialystok, Poland.

"I remember him coming to mother's house for cookies," she said. "He was very fond of them."

Wet-Dry Fight In State Is Only Just Beginning

Regardless of Outcome Today, Next Year's Primary and Election Campaigns Will Be Knock-Down-and-Dragnet Affair for Members of Legislature

Daily Dispatch Bureau, Raleigh, Nov. 7.—Regardless of the outcome of today's election on repeal of the eighteenth amendment, the fight over prohibition in North Carolina is just starting, according to most observers here. It is also evident that politics and prohibition are going to become about as badly tangled up together as has ever been the case in the past and that a good many politicians in both parties are going to find themselves tangled up, too.

Two more campaigns in which the liquor issue will be dominant and in which feeling is expected to be aroused to a greater extent than in the campaign closing today, are in prospect for next year. It is agreed, no matter which way the state votes on repeal today. For in spite of the claims of the drys to the effect that the election today is really an election to decide on whether or not the open saloon shall be brought back to North Carolina, the only issue involved today is the repeal of the eighteenth amendment and whether

Body Submerged In Boiling Water

Edenton, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Lee Hollowell, 57, foreman at Wilkes Veneer Company plant here for about 20 years was carried to a Norfolk hospital today suffering from horrible burns received at the plant, where he was working when he fell into a steam vat where gum logs are steamed.

Little hope is held for his recovery.

Hollowell was working at the plant when he fell into the vat, and his body was completely submerged in boiling water. The skin was peeled off from his neck down.

Soviet Envoy Faces Momentous Conversation With President Roosevelt on His Arrival; No Treaties Are Planned, Litvinoff Tells Interviewers

Jersey City, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet commissar for foreign affairs, left here at 11:32 a. m. today in a five-car special train for Washington for his conversations with President Roosevelt.

Litvinoff arrived for his momentous conversations with President Roosevelt, expressing the hope that "the establishment of normal relations between the Soviet government and the United States would now bring actual disarmament."

"We shall negotiate no treaties while we are here," the Russian foreign minister told interviewers, who met him down the bay on the liner Berengaria.

From the liner he was taken in a special tug to Jersey City, where he caught the special train for Washington.

INSULT U. S. FLAG DENIED BY CUBAN

Miami, Fla., Nov. 7.—(AP)—J. A. Rubio Padilla, Cuban student, today issued a signed statement denying Havana dispatches saying he was reported to have wiped his hands on the American flag before boarding an airplane for Miami yesterday.

Dispatch To Give Returns

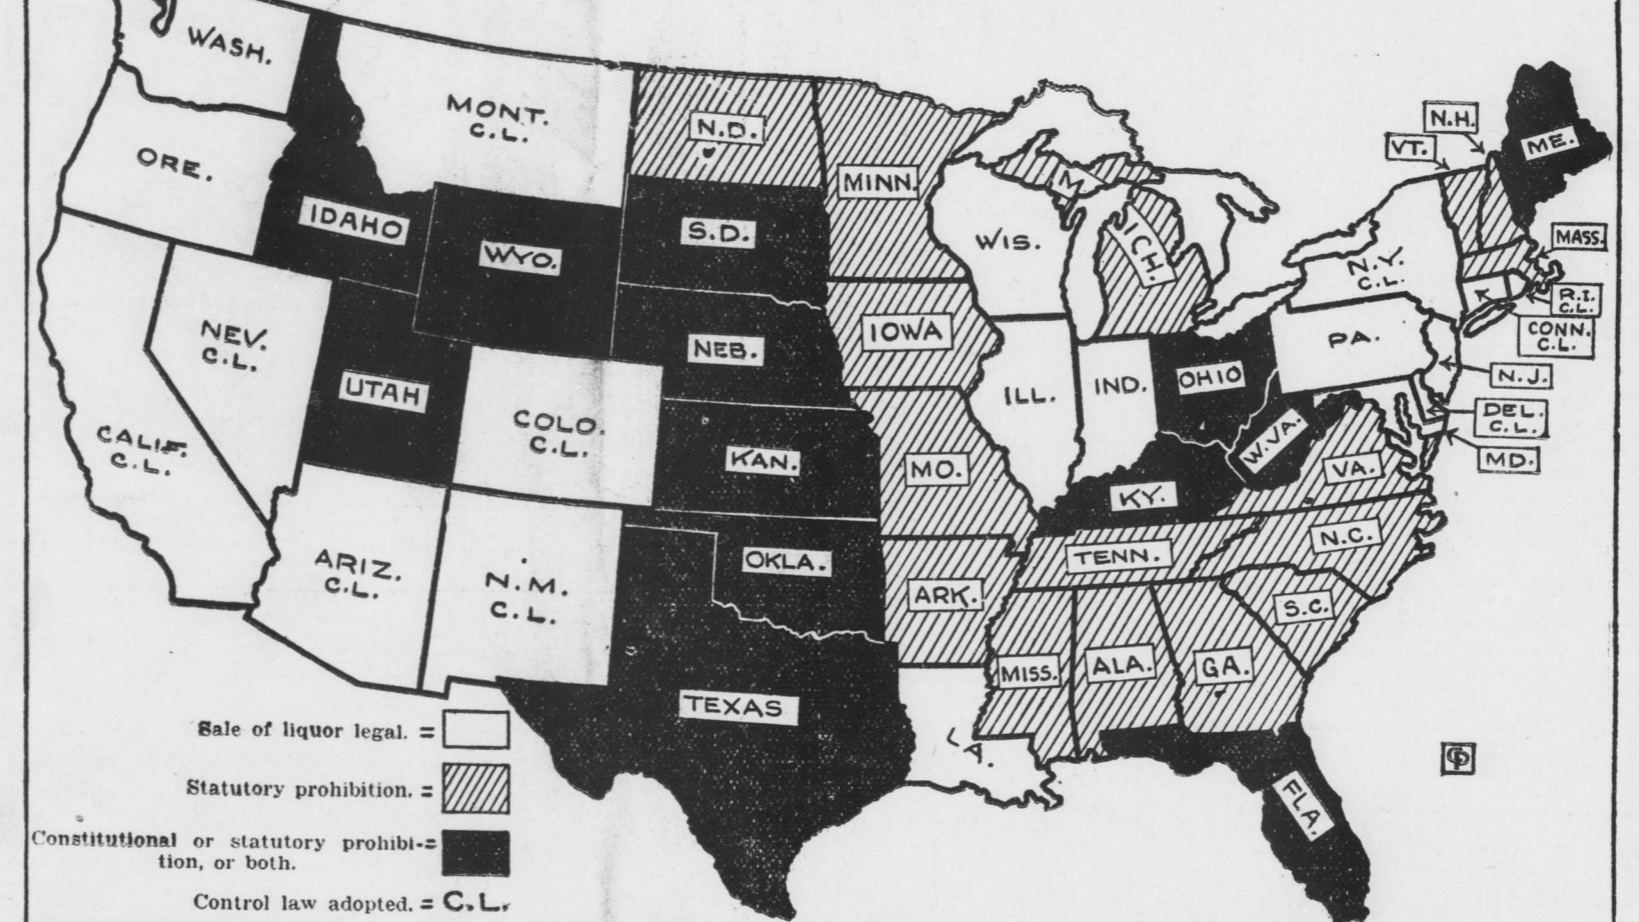

Returns from the Statewide election on repeal of the eighteenth amendment will be given out by the Daily Dispatch tonight, and the public is invited to gather in front of the office to receive the returns.

WEATHER

FOR NORTH CAROLINA. Fair tonight and Wednesday; slightly colder Wednesday and in west portion tonight.

Here Are the 19 States Where Sale of Liquor Now Is Legal

With the repeal of the eighteenth amendment, the sale of liquor becomes legal in 19 states, 10 of which have already adopted laws to control the liquor trade. Sixteen states have statutory prohibition and 13 have constitutional or statutory provision or both.

UPWARD SWING OF GOLD HALTED HERE IN U. S. QUOTATION

Price for Day Is Fixed Same as Monday When Gold Develops Weakness In London

CONTINENT BUYS UP SUPPLY IN LONDON

Once Price Here Again Fixed at $32.84, Same As Yesterday as Temporary Halt Is Called In Flight of Price for Domestic Metal Mined Here

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The upward price swing for newly-mined domestic gold was halted at least temporarily today when an R. F. C. price of $32.84 announced was set for the metal, representing no change from the previous quotation.

The local price came in the face of dispatches from London telling of new gold weakness, which had developed there.

The London opening slipped off to 129 shillings, 11 1/2 pence, representing a drop of one shilling, 10 1/2 pence.

The United States equivalent of the London price was $31.84 on the basis of sterling opening at $4.90.

Foreign dispatches said that the available supply of bar gold in London, amounting to 490,000 pounds sterling, was reported sold for the continent.

Washington Hoping For Farm Help

Strikes Are Settled In Many Places, But Farm Tension Is Not Lessened

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The administration, professedly cheered by reports that Southern farmers had acquired a better frame of mind along with ten-cent cotton loans today, renewed its efforts to temper the mid-western unrest that frequently has flared into violence.

Six States Vote On Repeal; One Man Killed In Kentucky

(By the Associated Press.)

Voters in half a dozen widely scattered states today are inscribing the answer to whether thirteen years of national prohibition shall end next month.

Of almost equal importance to a large portion of the electorate is New York City's three-way mayoralty contest, in which Tammany's long reign is at stake.

Elsewhere on the off-year November election horizon—in scattered city and state elections—political observers hoped to gauge sentiment with an eye to congressional campaigns next year.

Confidence that the balloting in Pennsylvania, Ohio, North and South Carolina, Kentucky and Utah would climax the administration's campaign to restore liquor was expressed by Postmaster General Farley.

Wet organization leaders forecast anti-prohibition majorities in at least three of the six states voting—all that is necessary to assure elimination of the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution—while dry organization captains said there were good chances for halting the hitherto unbroken wet parade.

Although voters expressed themselves today, actual repeal could not materialize until the first week in December. The ballots elect delegates to State conventions, which December 5 or 6 will ratify or reject a new constitutional amendment repealing the eighteenth.

Repeal leaders in North Carolina predicted that the count tonight would show the Tar Heel states, bone dry for a quarter of a century, in the anti-prohibition column.

But dry spokesmen countered with the prediction that today would record an interruption in the hitherto unbroken march of the states into the repeal brigade, and that this State would not be one of the three needed to erase prohibition from the Constitution.

Violence flared in Kentucky. One man was slain in a quarrel between Negroes at a voting place near Louisville. He was tentatively identified as Hugh Charles.

In Fleming county, Warr Dearing, 72, was shot and critically wounded, and his son, Jim, 48, was arrested in connection with the affair.

In an effort to interpret the NRA to a state that is one of the local points of farm discontent, Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator, was to speak in Minneapolis.

He had the difficult job of explaining higher retail prices to an agricultural state that found its purchasing power declining.

Secretary Wallace had voiced his opinion that payroll increases would soon be reflected in greater urban purchasing power for farm products.

He said the rise in industrial prices seemed to have been checked, remaining practically unchanged in September and October.

"FLOGGING" GUARDS IN S. C. SUSPENDED

Greenville, S. C., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Four county chain-gang guards ordered held by a coroner's jury in connection with the death of a Negro convict, following a flogging October 24 have been "indefinitely" suspended.

STABBINGS OCCUR IN NEW YORK CITY AS TERROR RULES

One Entire Election Board Arrested in One of Stormiest Elections in Generation

FUSIONISTS WARN OF TROOPS APPEAL

Thugs In Evidence At Many Voting Places and Fusion Workers Are Their Objective; Force of 18,000 Police Officers and Men On Duty

New York, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Violence and disorders accompanied voting in the municipal elections today, with Fusion forces threatening to demand protection of National Guard troops from gangs of marauding thugs.

One man was stabbed, a score of election workers blackjacked and beaten, and an entire election board arrested as voters balloted in one of the stormiest elections in a generation, in which Tammany is fighting for survival and national political influences re-exerting string taut pressure.

Assemblyman Hckenburg telephoned Chief Police Inspector John O'Brien from Fusion headquarters that a request for troops would be forwarded to Governor Herbert H. Lehman unless widespread disorders were quelled within fifteen minutes.

A police alarm was sent out in Brooklyn for a cruising squad of thugs who stabbed George Bennett, a worker for Candidate Joseph V. McKee, and marauded workers and watchers at various polling booths.

Added to an increasing number of arrests for illegal registration was the entire election board of the 23rd election district, which was jailed on charges of permitting votes to be cast by persons allegedly unqualified.

The first instance of violence came a few hours after the polls opened, when three Fusion party workers at

LITTLE INTEREST SEEN IN RALEIGH

Light Vote Cast, With Women Voting In Larger Numbers Than Men

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Raleigh voters showed little interest in the State repeal referendum today.

A survey of a number of city precincts at 11 o'clock showed that none had more than 185 votes up to that time, though some cast about 750 each in the last State election.

Precinct officers said women were voting in larger numbers than men during the morning, with the balloting appearing light.

CRAWFORD TO GO ON TRIAL DEC. 12

Virginia Court Overrules Objection on Lack Of Negroes on Jury

Leesburg, Va., Nov. 7.—(AP)—George Crawford, Negro, is to go to trial in the London county circuit court on December 12 for the alleged slaying of Mrs. Agnes Boeing Hilly at Middleburg, Va., on January 13, 1932.

The defense motion to quash the indictment was overruled today by Judge James L. McLemore in circuit court here.

Immediately after the jurist rendered his verbal opinion, Charles H. Houston, of Washington, Negro attorney, filed an exception with the court. He asked for a ruling on his charge that a caste system of using only white persons on grand juries in Virginia existed.

It required 22 minutes for the judge to state his conclusions on the basis of testimony taken at yesterday's hearing.

Industrial Wrangling Is Quieter

Cheered by Better Feeling in South, Administration Turns to the West

(By the Associated Press.)

Further progress toward settlement of industrial disputes was reported today.

But in the troubled farm strike area there was no apparent lessening of the tension. A request for State troops from Mayor W. D. Hayes, of Sioux City, at whose markets the anti-selling movement has been directed, was held by Governor Clyde Herring of Iowa, pending developments.

The past 24 hours saw a settlement of the tool and dye makers strike in some of Detroit's automobile factories and in more than a score of smaller plants in that city.
