U. S. To Avoid European Political Discussions, Norman Davis Says

U. S. IS READY TO TALK DISARMAMENT WITH ANY NATION

Problems Impending Include Threat of Arthur Henderson To Resign Chairmanship

ITALY AND FRANCE AT CROSS PURPOSE

Italy Holds Four Big Powers of Europe Must Reach Accord Before Much Progress Can Be Made; American Delegate, Back Home, Still Optimistic

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Norman H. Davis reiterated to news men today that the United States would not participate in any European political discussions, but was ready to talk disarmament with any nation. At the State Department it was assumed Davis would work out with his chief how far America will go in disarmament talks abroad. Among the problems to be dealt with in this government policy is the threat of Arthur Henderson of Great Britain to resign as president of the disarmament conference. Davis was expected to report Italy and France as distinctly cross purposes as to proceed in the effort to get Germany to re-enter arms negotiations, and that the Italian view is that some arrangement can be worked out more satisfactorily in a conference, including only the four great European powers—Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany. Davis expressed optimism upon his arrival in New York, despite the tangling arising from Germany's withdrawal.

The officers said they had no word as to her destination or reason for her removal. The transfer followed the return from Washington of Fred K. Hochler, Cincinnati director of public safety, who intimated but declined today flatly, that he had requested that the notorious woman be taken elsewhere. He said that Sanford Bates, Federal prison administrator, felt that publicity concerning the woman's imprisonment here was undesirable.

Hoots and Catcalls From Spectators Anger Acting Chairman of Senate Committee

OVERTON ELECTION TO SENATE PROBED

Counsel for Defeated Senator Broussard Plainly Tell Senators They Have Lost Confidence in Them As Trying To Whitewash the Investigation

New Orleans, La., Nov. 14.—(AP)—Amid hoots and catcalls from the spectators, Edward Rightor, counsel for former Senator Edwin Broussard, and Francis Williams, New Orleans political leader, today were cited for contempt of the special Senate committee investigating the election of Senator John H. Overton by the acting chairman, Senator M. M. Logan, Democrat, Kentucky.

Livid of face and trembling with emotion, Senator Logan shouted for United States marshals to get the names of the disturbers and bring them before the bar, and he would cite all of them for contempt for their "shameful" conduct. No names were obtained, however, and the hearing went forward in a tense atmosphere.

The outbreak came after Mr. Rightor had read a statement on behalf of his client Senator Broussard, saying they "had lost confidence in the committee," and were withdrawing from the investigation, as they had become convinced that the inquiry "had degenerated into an effort to purify Huey P. Long and whitewash their investigation."

Senator Long, whose political organization had supported Senator Overton, had just left the witness stand when Mr. Rightor took the floor.

Soldiers barricaded themselves behind walls during the fusillades and subsequently raided several buildings in an unsuccessful search for the assailant. #### German "Exaltation" Fraught With "Adventurous Possibilities," Foreign Minister Tells Chamber; Says Neighbors Dare Not Disregard Grave Risks

Paris, Nov. 14.—(AP)—French fears of Chancellor Hitler's danger to peace were openly acknowledged by Joseph Paul-Boncour, minister of foreign affairs in the Chamber of Deputies today. He declared German "exaltation" was "fraught with adventurous possibilities." "It is perhaps," he said, "a menace to European stability."

Paul-Boncour implied that a face to face talk between France and Germany had been refused by declaring: "No accord or allegiance can be made except within the framework of the League of Nations."

Referring to the German elections Sunday, which expressed German confidence in their governmental policy by an overwhelming vote, he said: "Hitler's victory Sunday will accelerate the demand. Despite repeated assurance of peace, and regardless of the government's will, the underlying principles of the movement create risks which the neighbors dare not disregard."

Urges Drivers' License To Curb Auto Accidents

Raleigh, Nov. 14.—The usual weekend crop of automobile accidents in which a score or more persons were killed or injured only serves to emphasize the need for a Statewide drivers license law by which habitually careless and reckless drivers could be prevented from driving cars. Capt. Charles D. Farmer of the State Highway Patrol pointed out today: "Until a drivers' license law is enacted, making it possible to keep an accurate check on reckless drivers and the accidents in which they are involved, and to revoke these licenses for cause the number of accidents is going to increase. Captain Farmer believes: "Take this case here on my desk

PARLIAMENT TOLD BY THE ADMIRALTY OF BUILDING PLAN

Expansion Decided Upon In Light of American and Japanese Armament Increases

COURSE DETERMINED WITH MUCH REGRET

Will Be Policy of British Government, However, To Restrict Vessels of Larger Sizes as Much as Possible. First Lord Monsell Declares

London, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The British Admiralty today announced revision of its 1933 naval program to include two new type 9,000-ton cruisers, with increased armament and one cruiser of the 5,200-ton Arethusa class. Sir Bolton Meredith Ayres Monsell, first lord of the admiralty, made a statement of this decision at the admiralty in the House of Commons. He said the decision was made after reviewing the latest cruiser programs of other countries, and "following the most anxious consideration and with much regret."

Ayres Monsell emphasized that the United States and Japan, under the terms of the London naval treaty, were entitled to build the ships which those two countries contemplated, but that, nevertheless, it would be the policy of the British government, by agreement, to restrict the vessels of larger sizes as much as possible. He also said it would be the British policy to reduce the maximum size of cruisers to be constructed in the future by agreement.

He stated that revision of the 1933 program of naval construction would not increase its cost but on the contrary, would result in a small reduction of the expense.

Caldes de Tuy, Spain, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh said today he is thinking of making an exploration tour across the Atlantic Ocean by the southern route similar to his recent stage by stage flight of the North Atlantic, and has no thought of a non-stop flight. #### Austria Warned By U. S. On Persecution Of Jews

Vienna, Nov. 14.—(AP)—United States Minister Earle warned today that the American sympathy with Austria would be immediately forfeited if this country goes anti-Semitic. The diplomat said the United States looked sympathetically upon Austria's growth and independence and is anxious to help Austria in every way, but he cautioned against anti-Semitism. "Ninety-five per cent of all Americans," he said, "are either fugitives from persecution or descendants of people who crossed the ocean because of religious or racial persecution. They cannot cooperate sympathetically with a country where people are persecuted on account of birth." He told newspaper men that he had communicated this friendly warning to representatives in all provinces Austria during his recent major tour, and said: "I was assured that there was politically no anti-Semitism anywhere in Austria, except Vienna."
