Seeks Plan Of Utilities

Rigid Restrictions Upon That Industry First Act of New Commissioner

Raleigh, Jan. 3 (AP)-Rigid restrictions today had been thrown around the payment of dividends by utilities, the issuance of additional capital stock and rates of depreciation in a sweeping order issued by Utilities Commissioner Stanley Win-

Winborne took office only on last Monday, the office of utilities commissioner supplanting the three-man Corporation Commission, which was abolished by the 1933 legislature. The order was issued on his second day as State utilities commissioner.

The order was designed, Commissioner Winborne said, "To protect the financial integrity of the utilities and the public interests." A study of utility reports on file in his office, Winborne declared, "showed that unnecessary burdens have been placed upon the public x x x the payment of dividends in excessive amounts is in the lavatory. Outlaw Is Suspect In Lindy Case

Fern Sankey, Fugitive from St. Louis,

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 3.-(AP)-County Attorney Kinkead today expressed the belief that Fern Sankey, fugitive outlaw sought for the abduction of Haskell Bohn here in June, 1932, "may have had connection" with the Lindbergh baby kidnaping. From evidence found on Sankey's ranch at Gann Valley, S. D., Kinkead said he deduced that the desperado intended to kidnap Jack Dempsey, former world's heavyweight cahmpion, and Babe Ruth, the ball player. "My personal opinion is that Sankey is not out of the Lindbergh picture," the county attorney said. Mrs. Fern Sankey. wife of the outlaw, was acquitted in St. Paul of a the abduction of Bohn son of a re-Robinson, captured in Canada, pleadpowers to reorganize the city gov- prepared to demand an additional year-term in the State Prison. He implicated Sankey.

Motorists, but Says State Meant Business

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, BY J. C. BASKERVILL. Raleigh, Jan. 3-While he regard the inconvenience caused those motorists who have been arrested for operating their automobiles with old 1933 license plates, Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus said today that on the whole he expected two very beneficial results from the strict enforcement of the license law.

"The first result of the manner in which the State Highway Patrol has been enforcing the law and arresting drivers of cars with old licenses, is that it has demonstrated to the people of the state that when we say we are going to do a thing we are going to do it," Governor Ehringhaus said. "We gave the people plenty of warning during the 30 days that the 1934 licenses were on sale that after sunrise on January 1, any one operating
