New Uniforms Are Being Issued To Independents

Suits Are Gifts of Merchants, White With Blue Lettering And Stripes

GAME SLATED TO BE CALLED AT 4 O'CLOCK

Manager Boyd Will Send Harris or Pleasants To Mound With Hamm Receiving, While Visitors Battery Will Be Ellington or Breedlove With Jackson Catching

The Henderson independents, all dressed out in new uniforms, will play Middleburg here tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at League Park as a feature event of the first Wednesday that the business houses of the city are closed.

The local baseball nine will appear for the first time in their new uniforms, contributed by the merchants of the city. The suits are white with blue stripes. Across the chest the word "Henderson" is written in blue letters about four inches high, while on the backs of the uniforms are written the names of the contributing firms. The suits were being passed out today, and any member of the team who has not secured one, may call at the Green Grill, where Otto Pahlman will pass out the "togs".

The dope coming out of Middleburg give the battery for the game as Ellington or Breedlove, and Jackson, while Skipper Boyd, of the Independents, will have his choice between Harris and Pleasants with Hamm doing the receiving.

A very large crowd is expected to turn out for the game, and a small admission will be charged for this and all games played by the club during the summer months.
