Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 6 (AP)-First week bright leaf tobacco sales in Georgia totalled 6,966,738 pounds for an average price of $22.62 per hundred pounds, John Darcy, statistician of the State Department of Agriculture, reported today.

The sales were some 2,000,000 pounds under sales for the first week of 1933, when 9,153,547 pounds were sold.

The Department of Agriculture made no official average of last year's price, but an unofficial average for the prices paid on each of the 15 markers for the first week was 12.81 cents

Valdosta, with four warehouses, led all markets in sale of the flue-cured leaf, with 1,224,852 pounds for an average of $23.32 per hundred pounds. The highest average price paid on the first week at any market was 27.31 cents per pound for 222,232 pounds at Strickland's warehouse on the Adel

The highest average for all warehouses at any one market was 24.45 cents per pound for the 976,310 pounds

Raleigh, Aug., 6.-State officials here generally and the Department of Conservation and Development in particular, are in hearty accord with the righteous indignation being expressed by the Gastonia Gazette, The Charlotte News and other newspapers in the State's places of natural scenic interest. A few days ago, in an editorial entitled "High Handed", The Gazette protested against the charging of a bathing fee of 25 cents by the management of Atlantic Beach at Morehead City to even get to the ocean and against the charging of a similar fee of 25 cents at Blowing Rock in order to see this famous rock and the view from it.

Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus and Secretary of State Stacy W. Wade have already let it be known that they did not approve of the action of the proprietors of Atlantic Beach Morehead City charging a fee of 25

Negro Accused of Assault in Moore Is Denied A Bond

Carthage, Aug. 6. (AP)-Melvin Mc-Laurin, 25, a Negro taxi driver of Gibson, was ordered held for superior court without ball after a preliminary hearing in recorder's court today on a charge of criminal assault upon Ina Katherine Jordan, 19, of Greensboro.

The girl was the principal witness against the Negro, testifying he twice assaulted her Saturday after offering her and her sister, Mary Elizabeth, 16. a ride as they were hitch-hiking their way to Greenshoro from Fayetteville. Chief of Police K. G. Deaton, who with Night Officer A. F. Dees arrested McLaurin, quoted the Negro as confessing the crime. McLaurin did not take the stand and the defense offered no evidence. The victim of the assault testified forced to submit to McLauren's advances.
