

NEW BUILDING IN AUGUST INCREASES

Month's Total $9,050, or Ten Times July; None In August, 1933

New building for Henderson took an upward spurt in August over the same month a year ago and also over July of this year...

Mrs. A. C. Wiggins' new house on North Garnett street, where the old D. Y. Cooper home stood...

Total new building for the first eight months of 1934 for Henderson is $42,389 in 16 permits...

SLIGHT GAIN FOR POSTAL RECEIPTS

$2,816 for August, Against $2,795 Last Year, Increase of $31.07

Receipts of the Henderson post office last month amounted to $2,816.52, which was a gain of $31.07 over the figures for August, 1933...

Receipts for the first eight months of 1934 are $24,777.74, as $23,170.01 for the corresponding period a year ago...

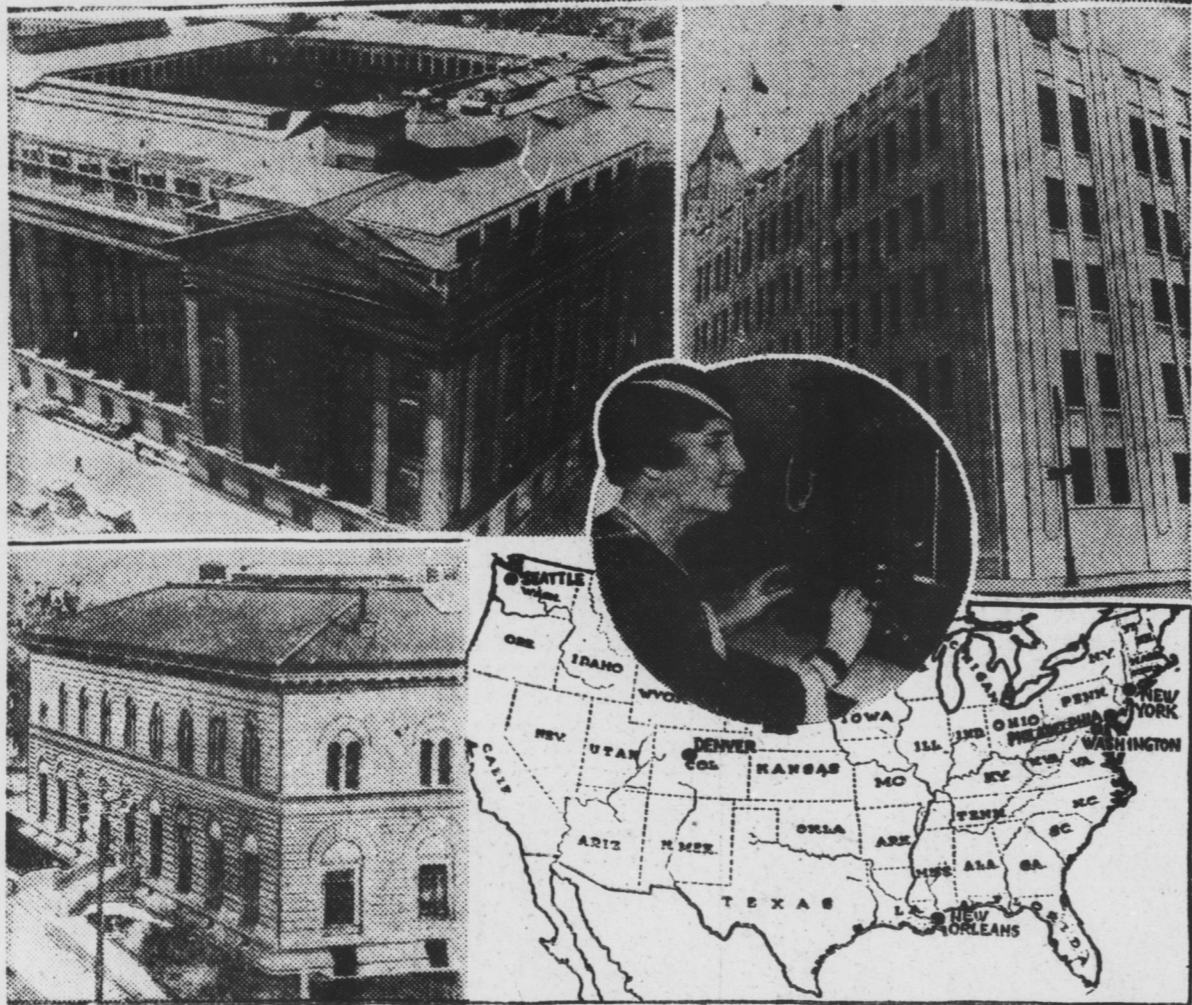

RECORDER'S CASES FOR DAY RUN AFOUL

Two defendants faced Recorder R. E. Clements in county court today, but the cases failed to bring definite convictions at the time...

Ed Steed was charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, namely a shotgun, on Robert Glover, also colored. The case was continued to next Wednesday for final disposition...

To Open Business School The office of the Henderson Business school will be open each morning during the week of September 3 from 9 to 12 so that those interested in entering school September 10 may register or secure desired information.

Uncle Sam's Gold Hoard Stored in Few Places

Movement of gold ingots, estimated as worth between $1,500,000,000 and $2,250,000,000, from San Francisco to Denver mint (lower), is part of Government program to concentrate gold supply in the few places, shown on map. Treasury in Washington (top left) has about $18,000,000 worth. Assay Office, New York (upper right), is the depository for the New York and New England districts...

Another Perfect Month For Fires

For the third successive month, no fires were reported in Henderson in August. In May the total was only $35 and in April only $25. There were no fires likewise in August last year nor in July a year ago.

For the first eight months of this year the fire loss for the city is $91,700, which was almost all accounted for in the month of March with two large fires. In the first eight months last year the total was only $4,800.

Marriages Slump Month of August By Slight Margin

Marriages slumped in August in Vance county, when there were only ten, according to the records in the office of the register of deeds, as compiled today. It was the first time this year the white couples outnumbered colored, there being six white and four colored couples. In August last year there were 14 licenses, 11 of them going to white and three to colored couples. In July this year there were five white and six colored couples licensed.

For the year through August the total number of licenses issued was 155, as compared with only 102 for the same period a year ago.

FLOYD EXONERATED IN FATAL ACCIDENT

Colored Woman's Death In Wreck July 20 Is Held Unavoidable

T. P. Floyd, Jr., who had been under bond in connection with an automobile wreck on the Oxford highway the night of July 20, in which Euia Clack, wife of William Clack, Negro, was fatally injured, was exonerated by a coroner's jury at a final hearing of the matter Friday afternoon...

Clack and his wife and their infant child and Ed Branch, all Negroes, were riding on a wagon returning from a church meeting, when the car in which Floyd and a companion rounded the curve and struck them from the rear. Branch and the infant were badly injured. Clack was less seriously hurt. The white boys in the car suffering only minor injuries.

PETE BAKER ASKING PARDON FROM ROADS

Material is being assembled by an attorney to back up an appeal for a pardon for Pete Baker, Hungarian resident of this city, who is serving a two year term on the county roads for assaulting his wife and another woman in their apartment here last spring. He was given a hearing April 16 before Mayor Irvine B. Watkins in police court, and was given two sentences of two years each, but to run concurrently. Pete is making the appeal for clemency in his own name. The papers will be presented to State Parole Commissioner Edwin M. Gill in Raleigh when completed.

LISBON SNEED DIED HERE ON THURSDAY

Lisbon Sneed, 73 year old Negro, died at Jubilee hospital Thursday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock of complications, being in failing health for some years.

He was well respected by whites and colored, having been janitor of the court house for a number of years as well as served in that capacity at the First Methodist Protestant church and other places.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at Kester Temple A. M. E. Zion church at 3:30 o'clock with interment here.

CAN YOU ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS?

See Page Four

- 1. Name the hero of Homer's Iliad. 2. What nickname has been given to Faneuil Hall, Boston? 3. What is the name for the doctrine that life is, or tends to become wholly undesirable, or that the world is essentially evil? 4. On what body of water is the French port of Dieppe? 5. What new divinity was set up by the French Revolutionists in 1793? 6. Which is the largest of the five Great Lakes? 7. What is the fruit of the oak tree? 8. What is hydrated oxide of iron? 9. Whom do Roman Catholics reckon as the first Bishop of Rome, and the first Pope? 10. In which state is Rainbow Natural Bridge?

Second Shipment Of Cows Received

A second shipment of relief administration cattle from the drought regions of the west was received here today, and the animals were trucked to the W. B. Tarry farm in Townsville township where they will be grazed on pastures in the lowlands of Nutbush creek, off Roanoke river.

Today's shipment came from Raleigh, where they had been sent first for inspection. There were 26 head in the shipment. Additional shipments are to be sent here at an early date, nearly 400 more having already been allotted to this county.

DISTRICT RED MEN TO GATHER MONDAY

Local Tribe To Send Delegation to Roanoke Rapids Convention

Red Men of the district that embraces this part of the State will meet, for their semi-annual gathering next Monday at Roanoke Rapids, and Mohawk Tribe, No. 58, of Henderson, expects to send some 25 or more members to the meeting. The district comprises tribes in Henderson, Epsom Durham, Rocky Mount and Roanoke Rapids.

The first session of the meeting Monday will begin at 5 p. m. The program calls for an address of welcome by Kelly Jenkins, mayor of Roanoke Rapids, and the response by Mayor Irvine B. Watkins, of Henderson, who is sachem of the local tribe. J. B. Gee, past sachem of the Henderson tribe and also past great sachem of the State is on the program for an address.

A banquet at 6:30 p. m. will be held followed by an evening session, at which time the officers for the year will be elected and the place for the next semi-annual meeting will be chosen.

Preparations for sending a large delegation to the convention were made by local council Friday evening, at which time the local tribe had a program in honor of its past sachems with several timely talks. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

Opposition to Strike Is Widespread in Carolinas

(Continued from Page One.)

ville-Jencks Company, scene of the bloody 1929 communist strike, predicted disorder there. The mill management said a large percentage of its employees, however, were opposed to the strike.

WORKERS AT GOLDSBORO ARE AGAINST STRIKING

Goldsboro, Sept. 1 (AP)—The Goldsboro News-Argus said today that a canvass of the employees of the Borden Manufacturing Company here indicated they were opposed to the general textile strike. The plant is the only textile mill in Wayne county.

PACOLET EMPLOYEES ASK MANAGEMENT TO RUN MILL

Spartanburg, S. C., Sept. 1 (AP)—Nine hundred and fifty of the 1,109 employees of the Pacolet mills of Spartanburg county have signed a petition opposing the general strike called by the United Textile Workers of America, and requesting the management of the mills to keep the plants open, according to G. W. Anderson, mill treasurer. "We expect no trouble whatsoever, and will be open Monday morning as usual," Anderson said.

ERA Pay Hits New Top Here

Nearly 300 persons, or 298 to be exact, shared the $1,901.42 distributed today for work done during the past week on projects sponsored by the relief administration of the county. It was announced by D. S. Bryan, disbursing officer of the county administration. This is a new record high for both men employed and the amount of money paid out since the present relief set-up began functioning.

There were no new projects, it was stated, but a few more men worked on the same projects, which accounted for the increased payroll.

KIWANIS PREPARES FOR ITS ELECTION

Officers To Be Chosen At Meeting Next Friday; Hypnotism Program

Preparations for the annual election of officers were made by the Kiwanis club last night at its weekly luncheon meeting. The election will be held at next Friday's meeting. Ballots were distributed to the members last night to be marked and handed in during the week.

Mr. Perry, dry cleaner, entertained the members with a hypnotism program, which was something very unusual and held the interest of the membership closely. The program for the evening was in charge of G. S. Webb and D. T. Dickie. Mr. Dickie as vice-president presided over the meeting in the absence of T. S. Kittrell, the president.

W. R. Erice, new manager of the Rose 5, 10 and 25c Stores here, joined the club. He was a Kiwanian at Burlington, where he managed a Rose store before coming here.

Mr. Perry, who put on the hypnotism numbers, was a guest of the club for the evening, and the attendance was 83 percent of the membership.

TO GET JUDGMENTS ON TAX ARREARAGES

Papers have been prepared for the securing of judgments in 60 instances in which back taxes have not been paid on property to satisfy claims by the county of Vance, it was stated today at the office of Clerk of Superior Court E. O. Falkner. Advertisements will be made of the purpose to obtain judgments. Accounts involved in these actions date as far back as 1930 in some instances.

200,000 Workers From Silk Industry Called From Jobs

(Continued from Page One.)

and worsted industries. Some of these are now unemployed.

Employers have contended, however, that not more than 15 percent of the workers would be involved.

DEADLINE FOR STRIKE TO BEGIN SET FOR TONIGHT

(By the Associated Press.) The deadline for the textile strike, its scope broadened to include more than half a million cotton, wool, and worsted workers, falls at 11:30 p. m. tonight.

The nation's textile centers await tensely the first test of the strike. The hours are when work would normally be resumed Monday in parts of the South and Tuesday after the holiday in the northeast.

The union had called out 425,000 cotton workers and 100,000 wool and worsted workers from about 1,500 mills in 21 states, most of them in the east; the managements say not more than 15 percent will strike.

Developments: Washington—Hope of averting the walk-out abandoned; strike leaders warned against communist agitators; National Labor Board seeks early settlement.

Macon, Ga.—Mill managements determined to open Tuesday; strikers resolved to permit no workers to enter the plant; pickets blocked train yesterday for more than an hour before it was able to move several cars of finished products.

Manchester, N. H.—Amoskeag Mill officials announced shutdown, but other New England mill owners maintained they will resume operations Tuesday.

Chicago—International Ladies Garment Workers Union threatens general strike October 1 of cotton garment workers.

SHARP INCREASE IN REALTY TRANSFERS

Were 25 In August Against 14 Years Ago and 19 July This Year

A sharp increase in real estate activity in the county is revealed in the figures for papers filed for record with the register of deeds during August, when the total was 25. In August a year ago the total was only 14, and in July this year was only 19.

For the first eight months of this year there have been 224 real estate deeds filed, as compared with only 135 for the corresponding period last year. May was the biggest month this year so far, with 40, while March had 31 and April 33. July's 19 was the smallest business for a month of 1934.

AROUND TOWN

No Court Held.—No session of the police court was held today, there being no cases set for trial.

Wrecks Are Reported.—Two minor wrecks were reported early today near Middleburg, one north and the other south of the village. No one was injured in either affair, but cars involved were slightly damaged.

Man Is Injured.—A white man whose name was not learned suffered a very painful injury to his right foot when trying to get off a Seaboard freight there early Friday night. He said he was on his way back to his home in Connecticut after being in the South. He was given medical attention.

Labor Day Only Part A Holiday

Labor Day Monday will be only partially observed by business here, it was learned today.

All the banks, the post office and the railroad freight offices both Seaboard and Southern, will be closed for the entire day. Inquiry today revealed, however, that most retail concerns would operate as usual on the holiday. Two of the largest said they expected to operate.

There will be the usual opening of the stamp and general delivery windows at the post office from 10 to 11 a. m., but there will be no city or rural deliveries. Box mail will be put up as usual, and outgoing mails will be dispatched as on any other day.

A clean steel pot scraper may be used to scrape carrots. Use with a circular movement. It is quicker and more effective than a knife. Potatoes for baking may be scrubbed in the same way.

Announcing The Opening of the CAROLINA SHOE & HARNESS REPAIR

(Nat Mitchell's Old Stand.) Expert Shoe and Harness Repair Work by Experienced Workmen.

OPENING SPECIAL

Sept. 3 to 6, we are offering new heels free with every half sole job for men and women.

H. C. Anderson

(Jeweler and Watch Repairman.) Will be located in same building with us. Watches—Jewelry—Diamonds Expert Repair Work of All Kinds.

The Busiest Days Of The Business Year

begin for Henderson and the district on the 11th day of September, 1934, when the Tobacco Market opens.

For 45 years Citizens Bank and Trust Company has been serving the tobacco growers, dealers and warehousemen of the Henderson section. Its complete facilities and long experience make it a particularly valuable business ally at this season

Whatever your connection with the tobacco industry, or your requirements in service, you will find an alliance here a source of satisfaction and profit

Citizens Bank & Trust Company HENDERSON, N. C. Established in The Year 1889

CONVERSATION HAS CHANGED

When a group of women get together, dry cleaning and experience with cleaners has always proved an interesting topic of conversation.

Today the subject has changed to dry-cleaning VALUE. Price comparison has taught the fact that the only bargain in dry cleaning is QUALITY.

Take note of how many women today are recommending VALET Cleaning as the best in town.

Our Prices Are Very Reasonable.

If you want the very best in Dry Cleaning. Phone 464.

Valet Cleaning Co.