

TWO ARE SENT UP IN STORE-BREAKING

Numerous Drunk Cases Are Tried Before Mayor in the Police Court

Two men, Willie Jones and Commodore Young, both colored, were convicted in police court today of breaking into and robbing the store of C. T. Neathery on Garnett street of merchandise valued at $1. Probable cause was found by Mayor Irvine B. Watkins and each was bound over to superior court under $250 bond.

Robert Davis, colored, was fined $5 and costs for being drunk.

Charlie D. Poythress, white, was charged with being drunk and carrying a concealed weapon, but was discharged on both counts.

James Howell, colored, was fined $5 and costs for carrying a concealed weapon.

Plummer Hedgepeth, white, was fined $5 and costs for being drunk.

A fine of $1 and costs was imposed on C. W. Durant, white man, charged with being drunk.

Onice Davis, white man, was sent to the roads for 30 days for being drunk.

O. P. Jones, white, was fined $5 and costs for being drunk.

Brooks Eekham, white, was charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor or other opiate and also with possessing liquor. He was given 12 months on the roads on the drunken driving charge and fined $5 and costs for possessing liquor.

Two warrants, each charging drunkenness, were called against Albert Ray, colored, and in each case he was given 30 days on the roads.

Hazel Johnson and Lula Champion, white women, were charged with assaulting and beating each other, and prayer for judgment was continued on condition that they keep the peace and pay the costs.

Bill Norville, white, was charged with being drunk and possessing liquor, and was fined $2.50 and costs on each count.

Pete Davis, colored, was fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

Joseph Hall, white, was sent to the roads for three months for driving a car while under influence of liquor, and deprived of driving privileges for 12 months.

Carl Paschall, white, was charged with drunken driving, and was sent to the roads for 30 days, and prohibited from driving for three months, and gave notice of appeal, with bond being fixed at $200.

In the article in Saturday's Daily Dispatch about police court that day, H. W. Stanton was charged with having liquor in his possession for sale, and he said today it should not have been "for sale," that the warrant did not make that notation. The Dispatch is glad to make the correction.

North Henderson Child Badly Hurt By Passing Truck

A small boy, estimated to be around seven years old, was seriously hurt, with a fractured skull, when he ran into a passing truck near the drug store in the turn of the highway at North Henderson shortly before four o'clock this afternoon. The boy's name was Beard, but other than that he was not immediately identified. He was rushed to Maria Parham hospital, and preparations were made to operate at once.

The truck was driven by A. J. McKisick, and was owned by the Transportation Corporation of Virginia. It was loaded with heads of tobacco being shipped to Winston-Salem from Richmond, the property of the E. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. There was a report that the child ran into the truck and that the driver knew nothing of it until some one hailed him to stop.

BLAND'S INTERESTS TO BE RE-FINANCED

Bankrupt Hotel Man Aiding in Arranging His Affairs

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Sept. 17.—Federal Judge Isaac M. Meekins will probably by his appointment of a trustee in bankruptcy for the T. L. Bland cases have a great deal to do with the outcome of the hotel man's step into the bankrupt courts during the past week.

Mr. Bland went into the courts on a $989,000 indebtedness when it became apparent that he could not carry the immense load of his many hotel interests. A meeting of the Bland creditors to be held sometime this week will probably determine the fate of the Sir Walter Hotel, the one in which Mr. Bland lives.

The resort to bankruptcy after four years of tremendous work, in which there were great losses, came as a surprise as the worst of the embarrassment appeared to have passed. But the head of the Bland chain voluntarily took the bankruptcy.

It is said by people who do not pretend to speak by the book that there will be a re-financing which will put the hotelist on his feet an obk in the business again. There is no impression here that his unexpired 10-year-lease on the Sir Walter will be carried out in some way by him. The lease represents a very dividend on about $1,000,000. The Sir Walter was built in the very midst of the booms all over the country.

Since going into the bankruptcy courts Mr. Bland has been visiting his other hotels and working on the plans of the liquidating that must be done. His assets are placed at $717,000.

Overdraft For State Dwindling

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel,

Raleigh, Sept. 17.—North Carolina's cash overdraft in the general fund almost melted away August 31, dropping from $1,148,113.20 to $98,998.15.

The monthly receipts were $2,152,207.77 and expenditures $1,098,092.88, leaving the cash overdraft under $100,000 for the two fiscal months, or nearly negligible. The cash surplus in the highway and other special funds remained well up. This amount on hand was $9,728,175.71 and the July 31 showing was high. Receipts came a good cigarette gives you a lot of pleasure

... just about every cigarette smoker knows that—but here are some other facts to keep in mind...

For a cigarette to be milder and taste better it must be made of mild, ripe Turkish and home-grown tobaccos.

We wish you could go into the factories and see Chesterfield made. The mild ripe tobacco is cut in long even threads—then packed into the cigarette so as to make Chesterfield draw right and burn evenly.

A good cigarette can give you a lot of pleasure, and we would like for you to try Chesterfield.
