GATEWAY TO

Henderson Baily Bispatch 8 PAGES ONLY DAILY NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN THIS SECTION OF NORTH CAROLINA AND VIRGINIA.

TWENTY-FIRST YEAR

LEASED WIRE SERVICE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

HENDERSON N. C. THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 27, 1934.

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON EXCEPT SUNDAY.

FIVE CENTS COPY

LINDBERGH MEETS HAUPTMANN AT BRONX

Gorman Pleads Confidence In New Textile Labor Body

STRIKE CHAIRMAN ASKS WITHHOLDING OF A NEW STRIKE

Says Organization Had Confidence in Winant Board as Named by President Roosevelt

APPROVED REPORT BOARD SUBMITTED

Appeal Is Issued as New Board Begins Its Deliberations; Will Investigate Charges of Discrimination Against Union Members in Mills

Washington, Sept. 27. (A)-Francis J. Gorman, chairman of the textile strike committee, today called upon all workers to have confidence in the new textile relations board and to withhold any action toward renewal

Gormans plea to the former strikers was issued as the new board set up by President Roosevelt last night wen to work with instructions to investigate charges of discrimination against union members.

When the President appointed the textile inquiry board," Gorman said, with Governor Winant, Raymond Ingersoll and Marion Smith as its members, we immediately announced that our organization had confidence in the President's choice and the personnel of the board. Thereport of this board. and the recommendation made to the President received our whole-hearted

Dr. Poe Outlines New Constitution In Grange Speech

Lumberton, ept. 27. (AP)-A constitutional amendment to permi a $1,000 tax exemption for home owners and a law o permit the deduction of $1,000 in debt from he value of real estate wer's advocated by Dr. Clarence Poe, aleigh editor, in an address to the North Carolina Grange here last night.

Dr. Poe also included a Federal "equalization fund" of $1,000,000 for schools in a ten-point tax program outlnied yesterday to the Grange, which is holding is annual convention

Stacy Head Of Textile Labor Body

N. C. Chief Justice Is Picked by Roosevelt LAST THREE UNITS SENT to Bring Peace to Industry

Raleigh, Sept. 27. (A)- North Carolinian who became a member of the Supreme Court of his State at 36, and its chief justice at 41, today was chairman of a labor board designated by President Roosevelt to bring peace in the strike-orn textile industry. Chief Justice W. P. tacy left late yesterday for Washington to assume his new post, which he will hold only. through the board's formative period, or about two weeks.

Other members are Rear Admiral Mullenbach, of Chicago, who with Justice Stacy also constitute the personne lof the steel labor board, of which the North Carolinian is also chair-try, hails wit hdelight the appointment of Chief Justice Stacy, to whom three presidents have turned in their

New NRA Board Of Five Will Be Named Probably Today By The President

Shatters Alibi

Henry Uhlig

Bruno Hauptmann's statement that the late Isador Fisch left Lindbergh

futed by Henry Uhlig, Fisch's best friend, who told police Fisch bor-rowed from Hauptmann to make health-seeking trip to Germany.

Last Guard

mobilized

duty had returned home.

Units Sent

Back Home

(Central Press)

Set-Up Will Replace One-Man Leadership of Resigned General Hugh S. Johnson REORGANIZATION TO

BE TRUSTED TO IT

Few Indications as to Appointments to be Made by Roosevelt; He Is Preparing His Address to the Country to be Delivered Sunday Night

Washington, Sept. 27. (AP)-President, Roosevelt expects to name a board of five in the next 24 hours to administer the reorganized recovery unit. The President has decided definitely upon a board of five members to ne place the one-man leadership of the resigned Hugh S. Johnson. Pending the announcement by the President, there were few indications otoday as to who he had in mind to take over NRA. It was assumed the new board would take over much of he task of eorganizing NRA. Meanwhile, Mr. oosevelt was giving thought to the radio address he wlli deliver on Sunday night in another report to the nation In it he probably will discuss in ome detail his thoughts for the future for NRA, as well as his ideas on the business situation

Tonight the President will make a brief radio speech in connection with the New York Herald-Tribune current topics discussion

TREASURER THINKS PLAN MISLEADING

Troops On Duty In Johnson Takes Issue With Brummitt in Matter of Textile Strike in Teachers' Pav Carolinas All De-

Daily Dispatch Bureau, By J. C. Baskerville,

Raleigh, Sept. 27-The plan advo-Columbia, S. C., Sept. 27 (AP)cated by Attorney General Dennis G. Governor Blackwood announced to- Brummitt for increasing teachers' salday that demobilization of the South aries by merely increasing the State Carolina National Guard began this salary schedule, as suggested seveafternoon and wil lcontinue gradual- ral days ago in a special article writly until all units called out for guard ten by him and printed on the editorial page of The News and Observer, Adjutant General Dozier said the is misleading to both the teachers demobilization began about noon and the public and utterly impractiand should be completed by tomor- cal and unworkable, State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson said today when Return of the citizen soldiers to civasked by this correspondent what lian life will mark the end of the he thought of Mr. Brummitt's plan. first complete mobilization of the Mr. Johnson was asked for his opin-South Carolina National Guard since ion both because he is a member of the State School Commission and the State Board of Education, which determined the State Salary schedule HOME IN THIS STATE, TOO and because he was the first State of-children, wounded a third and fired her home because, she said, "I loved Henry A. Wiley, retired, and James them," remained quietly in the county jail here today after a coroner's jury ordered her held for grand jury ac-

(Continued on Page Six)

(Continued on Page Two.) Mother Killed Children Because She Loved Them

At today's brief inquest, Sheriff J. Organized labor in North Carolina, from Emanuel Bizzell, 15-year-old When she turned, I tussled with her center of the South's textile induswas in a hospital with a shotgun caped and ran to neighbors."

wound in the shoulder. The boy said his mother "took us need for an arbier in labor difficul- children in the car and drove most all day the day prior to the killing.

Newberry, S. C., Sept. 27 (AP)- | She then took us to Newberry that Mrs. Annie Bizzell, who killed two night and then we drove about our won community until about 11 o'clock. "Next morning I awoke as she was walking about my room and she asked me for my gun to kill a snake I told her I would kill it when I got dressed. She got the gun from under my bed and shot me in the shoulder. G. Blease read a deposition taken I fell and rolled under the bed. When

The boy said his mother, who killed her husband only a few months

(Continued on Page Two)

May Doom Hauptmann in Lindbergh Trial

New Jersey authorities are confident symbols used in Lindbergh kidnaping and ransom notes together with fingerprints left by kidnaper will send Bruno Hauptmann to the electric chair. Symbols, released for sublication for first time, are identical in kidnap note (top left) found in baby's room, and ransom notes religered at Col. Lindbergh and to Dr. "Jafsie" Condon. Hauptmann's fingerprints (below) are being thered against fingerprints reported found on window ledge. (Central Press)

Woman Is Killed In Wreck Of Auto

Pineville, Sept. 27 (AP)-Mrs. instantly early today in an automobile collision two miles from Pineville.

Jasper Burrage, of Charlotte, who was driving Mrs. White's automobile, told police it was struck by a larg esedan occupied by four Negroes, who fled after it struck

At the time of the accident, Mrs. White and Burrage were returning from Fort Bragg, where they had gone last night to take her son, Private M. White, back to

Strike Digs Deeply Into N. C. Taxes

Sales Tax Will Be $100,000 or More named yesterday by the President to Less for August and September

> Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, By J. C. Baskerville.

Raleigh, Sept. 27-Collections from the sales tax will be approximately $100,000 less in September than in August, and this difference is being Raleigh, Sept. 27 (AP)-Adjutant ficial to publicly advocate increased ascribed almost entirely to the effects of the recent textile strike, it was learned today from the Department of Revenue. It is also expected that the sales tax collections next month will be from $100,000 to $150,000 less than usual as the result of the strike, so that in all the state will have lost ap > proximately $250,000 in revenue as result of the strike. While the collections from the sales

> > (Continued on Page Six)

TOBACCO HIGH ON BURLINGTON MART Burlington, Sept. 27 (AP)-The tobacco market here sold 30,000 pounds of tobacco today at an average announced at $30.06 per hundred pounds.

FOR NORTH CAROLINA knew anything concerning the ran-

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; cooler Friday and in west and central portions tonight

Waiting Report On Strike Settlement

Report Expected Late Today from Code Authority on Terms of Recent Walk Out

SLOAN TALKS WITH CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Refuses to Divulge Nature of Discussions With Roosevelt; Cotton Code Authority Has Just Completed Two Day Conference in New York

Washington, Sept. 27-(AP)-President Roosevelt conferred at length today with George A. Sloan, president of the Southern Textile Institute who announced that a report would be made today by the Code Authority on the terms of settlement of the recent textile strike.

Sloan said the report would deal with questions before the board arbitrate the issues between labor and employers in the huge industry. He said the Cotton Code Authority had just completed a two-day session in New York, and as soon as the report was compiled lat etoday it would be released. Sloan declined to comment on his discussion with the President, and withheld any further comment until the Code Authority report was made

Grilled Mercilessly Herself Besides Worrying Over Her Husband

By LESLIE EICHEL New York, Sept. 27.-"Why don't you write something on Mrs. Hauptmann, wife of the accused man in the Lindbergh case?" a correspondent

One can merely surmise Mrs. Hauptmann's feelings. One can merely try to interpret her reactions. She probably could not analyze them herself. s this is being written, it is not known whether Mrs. Hauptmann;

(Continued on Page Two)

Washington Seeks Easing Of Credit

Washington, Sept. 27 (AP)-Effects to loosen credit by encouraging loans to enterprises and relieving mortgage-pressed properties were undertaken today at the Treasury and the White House.

RELIEF FINANCING FACING A DILEMMA

Hits Business Either Way: Let Best Method Win, Sinclair Holds

By CHARLES P. STEWART (Central Press Staff Writer) Washingon, Sept. 27.-Reliefe finacof a dilemma

If it relieves destitution as economically as i can, it hurts business.

must hurst business too.

his difficulty confronts not only union workers. Federal relief administrators. Reports The threat of another strike came

(Continued on Page Two)

BAIL OF PRISONER IS FIXED AT $100,000

Case to be Brought to Trial as Speedily as Possible, District Attorney Declares

LINDBERGH WEARS DISGUISE AT JAIL

Enters Unnoticed With Detectives; Hauptmann's Attorney Asks $5,000 Bail; Prosecutor Demands That All Bail Be Denied so Prisoner Can be Kept

New York, Sept. 27 (AF)-Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh made a surprise visit to the Bronx county building today, and, disguised in a line of detectives, viewed Bruno Richard Haupt mann, former German machine gunner, charged with extorting $50,000 from the flier.

District Attorney Samuel J. Foley disclosed the meeting after Hauptmann had pleaded not guilty to an indictment returned by a Bronx county grand jury yesterday charging extortion in the Lindbergh kindap case. Colonel Lindbergh made the trip from his Englewood, N. J., home accompanied by several members of the district attorney's staff, and rushed to the county building.

He entered the building unnoticed and as a disguise wore a pair of hornrimmed glasses and a cap.

Whisked to the sixth floor of the building in a private elevator, Colonel Lindbergh took his place in a line of detectives and the prisoner was brought in.

The disguise served to prevent Hauptmann from knowing that Lindbergh was in the line, but further details of the meeting were not disclosed by Foley. The district attorney said the outcome of the meeting would not be made public.

When the line-up was concluded, (Continued on Page Six)

Textilers Looking To

Carolinas Still Torn by Dissension With End of Great Textile Strike

Roosevelt

Charlotte, Sept. 27 (AP)-The Carolinas, torn by dissension in the wake n is between the well-knoown horns of the settlement of the greattextile strike, looked today to President Roos evelt's newly created arbitartion board to adjust the dispute in the industry. If, in administering relief, it al- As the first week since the end of lows for a profit to business it in the strike drew to a close an Assocreases relief's cost, and business ciated Press survey showed that 116 must foot the bill in the form of of its 709 textile plants still shutdown. higher taxes. And increased axation Union leaders in many instances claim ed widespread discrimination against from source htroughou the country, from Roanoke Rapids, scene of a bitindicate that it is puzzling state ad- ter controversy for the past few days, minstrators also. However, it is by but what effect the creation of the new arbitration board would have on the strike vote was not known.

South Carolina Youth Is Suicide In College Room

enrolled as a sophomore in the medi- locked. After entrance was forced, made by the young man's father.

spent the night in a hotel. Before starting on his return home death.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 27 (AP)- this morning, Mr. Jeffries went to bid David Jeffries, Jr., 24, of Union, who his son farewell, but found the room cal college yesterday, was found dead the student was found lying in the this morning with a bullet wound in floor, an automatic pistol nearby, his right temple on the floor of his with one shot fired, and a cartridge room. The discovery of the body was which was snapped but not exploded nearby. The youth was in his night The student was accompanied to clothes. The body indicated that Charleston by his father yesterday, death had occurred only a few hours and after the son was located in a before, the coroner said, reporting student lodging house, the father the death as suicide. No note was found nor any motive assigned for the