Warships Bombarding One Town Held by Extremists; New Flare-Up Comes Just as Government Has Claimed It Had Broken Backbone of Revolt

Madrid, Spain, Oct. 8 (AP)—Overtaking of a huge government arsenal was taken by rebels today in a new outburst of revolt against the government, cropping out simultaneously at several points.

Reports from Barcelona said three towns in the outskirts of the city, Matorell, Sabadell and Badalona, were in the hands of anarchists. Troops were dispatched to the trouble center.

Reports reaching Madrid also said troops were bombarding Ugo and Gijon in Asturias province, where the rebels were reported solidly entrenched. Warships were bombarding Zujon laying down a barrage for advancing troops. The reports said the rebels were equipped with machine guns and light artillery; and were well fortified within the city. Casualties were reported to be heavy.

In the capital, government forces pounced upon the anarchists and syndicalist revolutionary committee, arresting its members.

Barcelona reported troops and rebels were staging pitched battles with in the city, with the telephone exchange in danger of falling into extremist hands at any moment.

The new flare-up of the four-day revolt that has taken an estimated 500 lives, and caused some 3,000 casualties, came when the government has announced that the backbone of

Power Rate Reductions December 1

Greater Consumption for Same Money To Be Allowed By Carolina Company

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, By J. C. Baskerville.
Raleigh, Oct. 8.—Rates to small power users who buy their power from the Carolina Power and Light Company will get a reduction in rates effective December 1, Chairman Stanley Winborne, of the State Utilities Commission, said here today. The exact schedule of rate reductions has not yet been filed with the commission as yet, so he was unable to give the amount of the reduction. The lower rates will result in a material saving to the smaller power users, however, he indicated. The reduction will be the same that will go into effect in South Carolina on December 1.

The Carolina Power and Light Company has already made a reduction in its rates to cotton gins, retroactive

His Victory Evens the Series Between Cards and Tigers at Three Each

DUROCHER DOUBLES, SCORES WINNING RUN

Dean Follows Peppery Shortstop With Lick To Right as Durocher Slides Under Cochrane With the Winning Run; Game Very Close All the Way

Navin Field, Detroit, Mich., Oct. 8.—Paul Dean pitched and batted the St. Louis Cardinals to a 4 to 3 victory over the Detroit Tigers here this afternoon in the sixth game of the World Series to bring the count in games won to 3-3.

It was the "Daffy One's" blow in the seventh inning that sent the fourth and deciding run, Durocher, who had just doubled, scampering across the plate.

Schoolboy Rowe worked for the Tigers and was nipped for 10 safeties while the Dean boy was holding the Tigers to seven safeties.

Cards Score Early

St. Louis scored in the first inning when Rothrock laced out a double. Frisch was out but Ducky Medwick sent out his first hit of the day to put Rothrock across the plate.

Detroit evened things up in the third when Jo Jo White got a free pass to first and went to second on Frisch's error. Cochrane sent him home with a single.

The Cards forged ahead in the fifth with Durocher getting a single and went to second. Martin singled to send him home and continued to third on a bad throw by Goslin. He came home when Rothrock grounded out, Rogell to Greenburg.

Tigers Rally

White led off the Tigers in the sixth with a walk. Cochrane singled and Dean errored Gehringer's lick, allowing White to score. Goslin was safe when Cochrane was thrown out at third. Rogell flew out to center and Greenburg singled to score Gehringer. Owen grounded out, short to

Morehead Port Fund Is Coming

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, By J. C. Baskerville.

Raleigh, Oct. 8.—A representative from the legal division of the Public Works Administration is here today to confer with Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus and Assistant Attorney General A. F. Seawell concerning the remaining legal aspects in connection with the Morehead City Port Terminal project and the present status of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. Now that the lease which the Norfolk and Southern 1. on the old "Mullet Road" has at last been cancelled, placing the governor in position to deal with any railroad or corporation for re-leasing the A. and N. C., indications are that the PWA is about ready to approve the loan of $450,000 to the Morehead Port Terminal Commission and that its construction can proceed without further delay.

Increasing talk is being heard here of the proposed formation of a corporation, composed of North Carolina business men, to lease, and operate the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, extending from Goldsboro to

JERSEY GRAND JURY GIVEN ITS CHARGE

Court Says Indictment Should Be Returned If State Presents Sufficient Evidence; Witnesses Secluded in Separate Room For Hearing

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—James M. Fawcett, counsel for Bruno Richard Hauptmann, said today that he was prepared to introduce "witnesses in any court" to show that Hauptmann was not present at either the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby or the transfer of the $50,000 ransom money.

Flemington, N. J., Oct. 8 (AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh came back to Hunterdon county today to tell the grand jury what he knew about the death of his 21 months old son, kidnapped 31 months ago.

The filer immediately went to the grand jury room to testify.

Flemington, N. J., Oct. 8 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Thomas W. Trenchard today solemnly charged a Hunterdon county grand jury to indict Bruno Richard Hauptmann for murder if the State presents sufficient evidence that Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., met his death accidentally or intentionally at the hands of the German carpenter at the Lindbergh Hopewell estate March 1, 1932.

The justice directed the grand jurors to return to hear the testimony of the 23 witnesses summoned by the State. George N. Robinson, of Jutland, a retired dealer in farm supplies, the foreman of the grand jury, led the jurors into the star chamber.

TVA Loses In Ruling In Tennessee

State Utilities Body Refuses To Dismiss Protest Against Private Sale

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 8 (P)—The State Railroad and Public Utilities Commission today overruled a motion of counsel for the Tennessee Valley Authority that petitions protesting the sale of privately-owned electric utilities property or the authority be dismissed.

The commission defined the ground on which the sale may be protested, citing that questions as to the constitutionality of the federal statute creating the TVA "are not within the province of the commission".

Owned by the Tennessee Public Service Company, the properties involved are located in and around Knoxville. The TPS seeks to sell them to the TVA for $6,190,000.
