THANKS!

Gratitude is the state of being thankful; the appreciation of favors received. This is just the attitude Henderson High School has for our town paper—"The Daily Dispatch."
For five years this paper has made possible a school publication for our high school by giving us the use of two or more columns once a week for publishing school news. This means a great deal to the High School student-body because through it we see what's going on in various activities of different groups and classes. If not only is beneficial from the standpoint of amusement and pleasure but has an educational value as well. "The Barks of the Bulldogs" as our paper has been called for a number of years is sponsored by the Senior class but each class will be responsible this year for some portion of the paper. This affords unusually good training along this line for those representing the various classes. Also it gives the public, our friends, and those who are interested in our High School an opportunity to keep in touch with the happenings at school.

If it were not for the generosity of this splendid daily paper in giving us this space weekly it would be impossible for us to have a school paper, as our finances do not permit such. So we feel greatly indebted to you and your paper, Mr. Dennis. We thank you for what you have done for us in the past and for the kind offer of this year. We shall strive earnestly to show you our appreciation by giving to you material worthy of publication and in keeping with the high standards of your paper, our own "Henderson Daily Dispatch".

SPOOKS TO WALK?

We seniors have something up our sleeves and you had better be looking in all the dark corners before you pass, because a ghost might get you. Anyway, be prepared because we are going to spring a surprise on you.

NEW BUILDING?

We walked into a much nicer school this year and are justly proud of our new environment. After a summer's work, the old high school doesn't seem the same with its new paint.

BULLDOGS TO PLAY ZEBULON TOMORROW

Light Workout Given Squad Today; Team Goes To Wilson on Friday

A light drill this afternoon tapered off the Henderson high school Bulldogs' work for their game here tomorrow afternoon with the Wakelon high school of Zebulon.
The game was originally slated for last Friday but rains caused the game to be postponed until Tuesday so as to draw a better crowd.
Coach Hank Powell did not announce his starters today, pending the outcome of the workout this afternoon.

Besides this game, the locals meet Wilson high school there Friday afternoon. Friday's foe has a 12-0 victory over Oxford and a tie with Rocky Mount last Friday. They will be plenty tough for the Bulldogs to handle.

A good crowd is expected to turn out Tuesday to witness the first home appearance of the Bulldogs this season.

first to end the threat.
It was the seventh that saw Paul Dean make up for his error by his hit across the plate on a fast throw in by Pete Fox.

Ernie Orsatti, the star centerfielder of the Cardinals turned in a beautiful game at center despite of his injuries. He pulled Rowe's long lick down in the ninth when it looked as though it was labeled for an extra bas knock.

stairs, and a few other things. It really makes a right nice place in which to work, even though it is a great deal overcrowded. However, this does not suppress the ever present desire to graduate from a new, clean efficient, and romy high school that will prepare us and our successors to meet more successfully the hardships encountered in life.

MASCOTS

We have been a very busy class so far this year doing a number of things that Senior classes always have to do each year but the crowning event of our achievements was the election of our class mascots. We would like to introduce you to the mascots of the Senior Class of 1935: Miss Nancy Jean Hight, age 3; and Roy Bradford, age 5. They are both very attractive children, and we are sure they will help us to make our class look its best this year in all of its public performances.

WHITE WAY

Don't forget, though, that we helped Henderson celebrate the opening of the new "Main Street" and the installment of our white way. Our most beautiful girls were placed on floats, some helped the different organizations to which they belonged and the rest marched with the high school as a body. We helped out, so help make us successful in our undertakings.

As the Sophomores stand at the threshold of nineteen hundred thirty four and thirty-five, they see nothing but success and high achievements for the class. It is their desire and intention to outshine all classes of former years in scholastic achievements and in the school activities, namely: Athletics, Glee Club and the Debating club, Dramatic club, and the Public Speaking club. Many of them have already manifested their interests by taking part in the activities which have been organized.

The officers of the Sophomore class were elected at a class meeting on September thirteenth and are as Eugene Patterson, Vice-President, follows: Mabel Parham President, Scott Cooper, Secretary and Treasurer and Miss Athleen Turnage as Sponsor. With these most efficient officers and such an excellent sponsor, the Sophomore Class will be sure to move forward at a rapid gait.

The Sophomores will present their play about the first of November. Several excellent plays are under consideration and a selection will be made as soon as possible. All together, Sophomores, for the best play ever.

The freshman class of Henderson high school held its first meeting and was organized during the first week of school. The officers elected were as follows: Rowena Daniel, president; Malone Parham, vice-president; Dorothy McDuffie, secretary and treasurer.

The class, coming up from the seventh grade, has an enrollment of 59 boys and 76 girls, making a total of 135 members. It is hoped that all can go through the whole four years to graduate in 1938 in a new high school building as the largest class in the history of the school.

The class is finding many new things in high school, among which is the custom of going from one room to another for the various classes. The class is divided into four home rooms, with Miss Bickley, Miss Morton, Mr. Pigford, and Miss Turnage as home room teachers.

Some members of the class have already started high school activities by going out for football. Others are taking part in the Glee Club and Dramatic Club. Still others are interesting themselves in various kinds of work.

Most of the class were in the group that represented the high school in the parade in the Greater Henderson celebration Thursday.

Appendages

Editor: Ellard Yow
Just look at the student wearing green bows. No, they haven't lost their minds; it's just part of the Dramatic Club initiation. The Dramatic Club is very lively this year. It has forty members, and its officers are Nancy Parham, President, Bill Bryden, Vice-President, Mary Mitchell Baity, Secretary and Treasurer. We're expecting the club to be a spry outfit as the green bows were.

The Girls Glee Club has gotten off to a very encouraging start this year. Last Monday night at its initial meeting it had thirty-two members present. The Glee Club is expected to have a very satisfactory season this year under the leadership of Mr. Harrison and Miss Taylor.

Wild confusion prevailed along the Castellana boulevard, near the ministries, where several nurses were promanaging with infants.
A group of extremists was arrested as the firing died down.

GIBSON REALLY WAS SENT BY TEXTILE LABOR BOARD

Washington, Oct. 8. (AP)—Roland Gibson was one of ten investigators the Textile Labor Relations Board sent into various mill centers last week. Gibson, reported to have been charged with sedition and false representation in Rutherfordton, N. C., was sent to the Carolinas to investigate charges of discrimination against strikers after the textile strike ended two weeks ago.

Textile board officials today had received no official notice of Gibson's arrest. They attempted to communicate with the investigator, and said that until they heard from him they would have no comment on the newspaper reports.

Roosevelt Seems Unable To Answer

dent of the Republic Steel corporation) Says Steel Men Feel Sure Bottom Is Passed. Reports Best Two Weeks Since June. Periodicals Show Pickup Is General Throughout Steel Trade.

Both statements of opinion probably are true. But neither is quite down to bed rock.

Business interests in the Cleveland area, as well as in all other areas, are worried. The larger interests frankly are battling labor. The smaller interests are battling for existence. Beyond all that, however, they are worried because of a Great Change. Where is it leading? The Roosevelt administration does not seem to be able to answer. And, if it did answer, the response would not be satisfactory.

And labor, too, demands an answer. It believes its gains have been illusory—that it actually has suffered loss of rights and income. As for the steel business, it is certain to pick up. The government is spending so much money on projects that steel will benefit. The moment, however, there is a lull in the spending, steel droops. It is unnatural. It is inflation. But tell the steel men that—and they don't care, any more than do farmers, or seemingly anybody else, if inflation brings them money, even temporarily.
