Paris, Oct. 12 (AP)—French police believed today they have unearthed the trails of two more members of the band of terrorists responsible for the Marseilles assassinations.

One led to the region of Lille and the other to Bellegarde, on the Swiss frontier.

The secret service worked tirelessly in a nationwide hunt as Peter II, boy king of Yugoslavia, and his widowed mother, Queen Marie, sped toward Belgrade. Their special express train was heavily guarded as it roared through Europe. No one was al-

No Further Inflation Is Now Likely

No Changes in Value of Dollar Contemplated, Senator
Lewis Declares

Washington, Oct. 12 (AP)—Senator Lewis, of Illinois, chairman of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee, said in a statement today no changes in the value of the dollar or other inflationary moves were being contemplated by the administration.

Frankly disturbed by widespread inflationary talk resulting from yesterday's White House conference, Lewis said Senator Bulkley, Democrat, Ohio, had been misunderstood if he left the impression President Roosevelt favors a further devaluation of the dollar.

Bulkley told newspapermen as he left the White House yesterday after a conference with the chief executive, that further devaluation of the dollar was not "an impossibility."

San Francisco, Oct. 12 (AP)—A resolution criticizing the appointment of S. Clay Williams as an official of the NRA, and suggesting that President Roosevelt made an investigation of Williams' "hostile attitude" toward labor, was adopted unanimously by the American Federation of Labor convention here today.

In recommending concurrence with the resolution the committee report declared:

"It is improper to appoint an individual to the RA whose public record shows him opposed to trade unions and to collective bargaining as set forth in Section 7A and B of the NRA."

"It is difficult, if not impossible, for trade unions to cooperate with an individual who denies their right to organize."

The recommendation of the resolutions committee was adopted by the convention without a dissenting vote and without a word of discussion.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 12. (AP)—The ransom for Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll has been paid and the family is awaiting instructions, was the announcement today from Berry V. Stoll, husband of the young society matron, who was snatched from their fashionable country home near here late Wednesday.

The statement, given by an attorney representing the Stoll family, conference with newspaper men said:

"We have carefully followed instructions, met all ransom requirements and are waiting fulfillment of promises. The parties may act freely without fear or hindrance."

"Barry V. Stoll."

SUSPECT IS BEING HELD
BY CHARLESTON POLICE

Charleston, W. Va., (AP)—Chief of Police John Britton said today Walter Childress, of Charleston, has been taken into custody for questioning about the kidnaping in Louisville, Ky., of Mrs. Alice Stoll.

He said there has been no charge made against him.

Britton said, "We just brought him in and are going to question him."

He added he knows nothing about Childress.

"We have some information," was the chief's only reply to questions why Childress was taken into custody.

Sensation In Slaying Is Likely

Washington, Oct. 12. (AP) — The Washington Evening Star said today that Federal agents investigating the Kansas City union station massacre had uncovered evidence of political and gangster combine so startling in its implications that a Federal grand jury investigation would be instituted almost immediately.

Rex Collier said in the Star story

Decision in the location of the high school ends an uncertainty of some six months or more, and settles what has been more or less a burning issue in the community, and lifts a load from the school board, which has wrestled with the matter for many long months, and which finally has made a decision that some said was unsatisfactory in some measures to every member of the board. They simply had to do the best they could with a bad situation, in which not a single site offered was ideally adaptable for the new school project, it was explained.

The Miller site includes the James I. Miller homeplace and the large lawn running along Charles Street and some distance up William; also the old Baptist church property, now owned by C. W. Hargrove, of Townsville; and portions of garden spaces to the rear of the home of Mrs. Andrew Harris on North William Street, and the S. T. Peace and W. S. Parker estate properties running back from Andrews avenue. The Miller property is in the price at $13,500; the Hargrove property at $6,000, with exceptions of some cut from that figure, and the remaining $3,800 for the rear garden properties of Mrs. Harris and the Peace-Parker interests.

In addition to the actual purchase price of the property, estimates made by W. H. Boyd, civil engineer, give $2,761 as the price for the grading necessary to condition the land for the building and the athletic field.

The high school building will face Charles street, running back northward, with short wings or L's on each side, these so arranged as to permit of enlargements and additions later as such may be desirable. The building will contain an auditorium with a seating capacity of around 1,000 persons, and also a gymnasium, and some 15 to 20 class rooms, in addition to quarters for sciences, sewing, cooking and the like, as well as administrative quarters.

Work is to begin as soon as possible, although that will not be earlier than Babson Park, Mass., Oct. 12.—I have not shared the general apprehension over labor troubles which has been more or less widespread during the past few months. The speedy crumbling of the San Francisco general strike and the routine early settlement of the recent textile walkout offer ample reassurance that the recovery movement is in no real danger from his source. Now that the President has come out with a direct request to management and labor alike, asking for a period of industrial peace I feel definitely hopeful on the labor outlook for the winter ahead.

Compulsory Arbitration Coming
There will be strikes, of course, but they are going to prove only local
