Jr. Tuesday Club Meet In Louisburg

The Junior Woman's Tuesday Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. Conrad B. Sturges at her home in Louisburg, it was stated today. An interesting program has been planned and the members were urged to attend the meeting.

Mrs. S. R. Adams Hostess to Club

On November 8 Mrs. S. R. Adams entertained the Townsville Garden Club at their regular monthly meeting. The meeting was opened by the president, with usual devotional exercises. After a short business session the program chairman, Mrs. Louise Taylor took charge. The first number on the program was special music by Mrs. W. B. Tarry, consisting of two vocal solos, "Within the Garden of My Heart" and "I Had a Flower." These were quite appropriate and greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Tayor then introduced the speaker of he afternoon. Mr. Charlie Tucker of Warrenton, N. C., Mr. Tucker made most interesting talk on "Blue Sells," which grow in profusion near Townsville, also highway beautification. He urged the garden club to adopt the Blue Bells of Townsville as t club project for the coming year. We feel that our club is highly favored in honoring this spot on which nature has bestowed so much beauty and loveliness within our reach. We esolved that it would no longer waste its sweetness on the desert air, at the conclusion of the program, the nostess assisted by Miss Alline Garyor served a delicious salad course to he members of the club and the folowing guests: Mrs. W. T. Rowland, Misses Alline Taylor and Mrs. Nannie Graham house guest of Mrs. Geo.

Miss Gooch Weds Mr. Knott on Nov. 6

On Tuesday evening, November 6, he home of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Gooch of Oxford, route five, was the scene of a beautiful and impressive cerenony when their daughter, Miss Ethel LeMay, became the bride of Shirley Wilson Knott, of Henderson.

The living room was artistically ar-anged with an improvised altar bank d with greenery and baskets of white hrysanthemums and lighted by burnng white tapers.

The ceremony was performed by fficiated at the wedding of the ride's parents 22 years ago. Rev. W. D. Poe, of Oxford, pronounced the

Just before the ceremony, Miss Julia. Reams Lee, of Raleigh, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

As the processional began, Mitte Miss Annie Critcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Critcher and cousin of the bride, entered carrying the ring in the heart of a lily. She was prettily dressed in blue organza. The bride had no attendants and entered with fitly framed together groweth unto the groom. Her bouquet was of Talisman roses. Her wedding costume was going away suit of blue crepe with apelet and fur trimmings with blue ccessories to match.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a motor trip to Florida. Mrs. Knett was educated at the Oxford high school and the Women's college of the University of North Carolina and has a host of friends in and around her community.

To rebuild these thousands of miles of secondary or county roads, or which the counties formerly spent about $10,060,000 a year for maintennance, the highway department will need several millions of dollars of State funds, it engineers maintain. In the budget it presetned to the Budget Bureau a few weeks ago, it asked for $10,000,000 for new construction next year, in addition to $10.000 000 a year for maintenance. and $6,000,000 for new construction the following year, with the $10,000,-000 a year for maintenance. Of this $10,000,000 for new construction, it is proposed to spend $7,000,000 of it on the secondary roads and only $3.000 .-000 in matching the $3.000,000 it will get from the Federal government on the Federal aid roads in the State system. Of the $6,000,0000 asked for the following year $3,000,000 would be used on the secondary roads and $3,000,000 used to match Federal funds.

If the highway department does not get a considerable sum for new construction, especially on the secondary roads in the cuontry districts, used extensively by the school buses, rural mail routes and by the farmers as feeder roads to the State highway system proper, it will be compelled to use more than it should of the maintenance funds for a type of maintenance that is really new construction it is pointed out.
