LAST CALL TO FRESHMAN PLAYS This is the last call to the Freshman Class Plays, which will be given at Central School Auditorium, on Friday night, December 14. The class does not want any one to get the idea that the plays are going to be comedies, for they are not. Both plays will be something on the order of religious Christmas Plays, although there may be a few funny things in them. The cast for the "Showman" is as follows: TThe Snowman-Tommy Jenkins, Neighbor Pen-Bobby Wall, Jon Blund-Edgar Edwards, The Brownie, J. U. Martin, Kloss-Malone Parham Lisa-Frances Furqueron. The cast for "Why the Chimes

Rang" is as Follows: Steen-Thad Harris, Holger-Billy Dennis, Uncle Bertel-Alex Davis, The Old Woman-Miriam Pinnell. Also Frank Futrelle, Dorothy Mc Duffie, Billy Southerland, Dorothy Cooper, Malvin Parham, Bobby Kittrell, Henry Manquin, Elizabeth Toepleman, and the mixed chorus Posters and cards have been placed in windows of different stores and the committees have begun working. The tickets for adults are red and those for children green. Admission is 15c and 25c and the class will appreciate a large audience.

WHO WILL BE WINNER? The home room appearance conest is nearing the close of the first month. The rooms have greatly im-proved in appearance. They have been more attractive in all respects. There has been a very close score.
