Hauptmann Defense Seeks To Place Lindbergh Crime On The Dead Isadore Fisch

STATE IS PREPARED TO REFUTE AN ALIBI

Hunterdon County Prosecutor Asserts Fisch Had Nothing To Do With Kidnaping or Extortion; Trial At Flemington In Recess Over the Week-End

Flemington, N. J., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann's defense attorneys today put their handwriting experts to work in an attempt to show the $20,000 ransom money found in his possession was given to him by Isadore Fisch.

Edward J. Reilly, chief of the defense for Hauptmann in his trial for the murder of the kidnaped Lindbergh infant, said:

"We will prove that Fisch not only collected the ransom but also wrote the ransom notes."

Ever since his arrest, the Bronx reporter has insisted that the $20,000 ransom money found in his possession was given to him by Fisch, his former business partner, who died in Germany.

The state produced evidence of extortion against Hauptmann," Reilly said, "but so far there is no evidence of murder."

The attorney said the defense expects to prove Hauptmann innocent of extortion as well as of murder.

"He merely received unwittingly some of the ransom money from Isadore Fisch," he said.

Anthony M. Houck Jr., Hunterdon county prosecutor, said:

"The state is ready to refute any charge that Fisch had anything to do with this case. We are prepared to break down completely Hauptmann's alibi involving Fisch as the man from whom he obtained the ransom money"

Most Sentiment in Legislature Among Members From That Section

ISSUE NOT MAJOR ONE

Nearest Commitment from Members on Statewide Basis Is They Are Willing Again To Submit The Measure

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, By C. A. PAUL.

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—Perhaps it's the salty tang in the air down along the coastal country of North Carolina, or maybe it's because the frightful manners of those who go down to the sea in ships is contagious but, anyway it is apparent to most observers here that most of the sentiment against the State's prohibition law comes from that section. Prohibition will not be a major issue in the 1935 legislature now in session, but here and there it'll be made attempts to lessen the strong varbiage of the Turington Act.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Federal district court officials announced here today that an interlocutory injunction had been issued by the court restraining enforcement of the Huey Long-dictated legislative acts which authorize State supervision of industrial pensions.

The order was directed against the State attorney general, Gaston L. Poterie, on suit brought by the Standard Oil Company of Louisiana, which operates an extensive refinery business in Baton Rouge, and the Standard Pipe Line Company, an affiliate of Standard Oil.

Body Will Lie In State In Capitol Building Several Hours Sunday Afternoon

FUNERAL IN OXFORD MONDAY AFTERNOON

Had Long Been Prominent Democrat and Very Active In the Party, Having Held Many Important Offices; Was Strong Churchman And Fraternalist

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Dennis G. Brummitt, attorney general of North Carolina, died at 12:10 o'clock this afternoon after a critical illness of several days with pneumonia.

Hope for Mr. Brummitt, who was 53 years old, was abandoned early this morning. He suffered an attack of influenza a week ago. Complications developed due to a chronic bronchial condition and this week pneumonia set in. From the outset his condition was considered serious.

Mr. Brummitt will be buried Monday at Oxford. Services will be held from the First Baptist church there at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The body will lie at a funeral home here until noon tomorrow, when it will be taken to the State Capitol to lie in state until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. It will then be taken to Oxford to the home of Mrs. Brummitt's uncle, Dr. Benjamin K. Hayes.

Brummitt was a native of Granville county, and known from one end of the State to the other for his work in the Democratic party.

Back in 1908 he served as secretary of the Granville County Democratic Executive Committee, and from 1910

ROOSEVELT COULD BECOME DICTATOR

But He Is A Democrat and Prefers To Retain Status Quo Affairs

By LESLIE EICHEL, Central Press Staff Writer

New York, Jan. 12.—President Roosevelt easily could become a dictator. Present congressional majorities give him the power.

He could obtain the power by will of the people. He would not have to vitiate or liquidate parliamentary opposition, as in Italy, or Germany, or Austria. (Russia never had any to amount to anything.)

Hauptmann's Guard Increased As Net Tightens

Two state troopers and a deputy sheriff closely guard Bruno Hauptmann as he is brought into court for another session of his trial at Flemington. Only one trooper was assigned during the first days of the trial.

Will Get Larger Federal Aid Money Because State Is Entitled to More; Liquor and Relief Are Linked In Capital's Week-End Gossips

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, BY J. C. BASKERVILLE.

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—Looking backward over the half week and forward to the remaining eight, a dozen, or fifteen more, Governor Ehringhaus appears to be in position to write as much of his ideas into law as any man who has ever held his great office.

Nearly all the observers of events concede to the governor a hold on the General Assembly that no recent predecessor has had. The agricultural East, whose pitiful plight two years ago justified the militant pessimism that dominated the State policy, has become the governor's unqualified friend, and Piedmont, with its manufacturing interests, has sent men here who will follow the executive lead. The governor's message Thursday night by no means completed the program which he will lay before the assembly. He has many things more to present. After the first few days of this assembly, one hesitatingly prophesies that this body is going to deal generously with persons and institutions deserving generosity, and that the governor will receive legislative sanction to the overwhelming majority of his requests.

Not Specific. The executive in his Thursday night message did not indicate what per

Many Legislators Think Program In Address Is Very Desirable

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—"A New Deal for North Carolina" is the opinion many members of the 1935 General Assembly voiced of the program for the state outlined by Governor Ehringhaus in his message Thursday night. Particularly is that true of his social plans, which included old age and employment insurance, a textbook rental system, and approval of the Federal child labor amendment among other things.

"A wonderful program," said Dr. Charles A. Peterson, Republican

Senator Weathers, of Wake, Seeks To Impose $15 Charter Fee on Religious and Charitable Organizations Incorporating Within The State

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The General Assembly stayed in session a total of eleven minutes today, the Senate meeting for six minutes and the House for five. Six senators and about 20 House members attended the sessions.

The Senate got a statement read on its minutes by Senator Williams, Republican, of Yadkin, branding as "absolutely false and untrue," an article which appeared in a newspaper stating that the Republicans in the legislature were attempting "secretly and furtively" to prevent Tam C. Bowie, of Ashe, from being seated in the House. Williams arose to a point of personal privilege.

The statement the Republican referred to was not carried by The Associated Press.

Senator Weathers, of Wake, introduced a measure proposing to put a fee of 15 on charters for benevolent, religious and charitable organizations which have no capital stock. Under the present law such charters are issued free of charge by the secretary of State. Commercial charters cost $40.

The House received and passed one

Tobacco's Rise Seen In Figures

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Tobacco growers of North Carolina received an average of $28.60 per hundred pounds for 337,651,807 pounds sold prior to January 1, an increase of $12.50 per hundred over the 1933 average to the same date. It was reported today by the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service.

The value of the tobacco crop for the season was set at $122,142,000, as compared with $86,444,000 last year, and $35,428,000 in 1932. The increase in the value of the tobacco crop "is largely responsible for the State's rank of third in the value of all crops this year," the report said.

Sales up to January 1 a year ago aggregated 472,655,536 pounds at an average price of $16.11 per hundred it was shown.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 12 (AP)—Amelia Earhart Putnam, Honolulu to California flier, was beginning to feel the strain of the long flight across the Pacific, she said in a conversation with radio station KFI at 9:15 a. m. eastern time, today.

"I am becoming quite tired," Mrs. Putnam said.

Although the flier declined to answer questions asked her as to where she would land, friends here believed she would stop at Oakland and not continue to Salt Lake City, as some friends said she might.

The flier left the army airport 25 miles from Honolulu at 10:15 p. m. eastern time yesterday.

School Book Rental Plan Seems Sure

This Legislature Is Likely To Provide It On Governor's Recommendation

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—A state-owned rental system for school textbooks appears likely to be incorporated in the legislation enacted by the 1935 legislature, if opinion of observers here is of any value.

Several members of the General Assembly are out spoken in their approval of such a step. Others, and they are many, say they want free textbooks. The governor himself said the same thing Thursday night in his message to the legislature. He suggested that steps be taken toward the establishment of a rental system which would eventually lead to a free system. He pointed out that 25 per cent of the State's elementary school pupils were without books for the first six weeks of the school term, and that represents a very severe loss, not only to the pupils themselves, but to the taxpayers as well, because that much schooling is thereby lost.

Dr. Ralph McDonald, of Winston-Salem, House member, said, "It suits me just fine. I have long been an advocate of just such a step."

"It is an excellent move," said John Sprunt Hill, of Durham, who long ago endorsed the rental system. "We have such a system in my own county and I fully realize how valuable and necessary just such a system is. We
