LEAD REVENUE
Raleigh, April 6 (AP)—The biennial revenue bill containing a three percent exemptionless retail sales tax, was placed on the Senate calendar today. The super division of the legislature will meet at noon Monday to start to work on the tax measure as a committee of the whole.
A number of major changes have been made in the measure since it passed the House.
Thirteen senators met for 20 minutes this morning to pass seven local bills and receive the revenue act from the Senate finance group. Fifteen House members met three minutes to receive the bill.

Raleigh, April 6.—The revenue bill is at last in the Senate, with the three per cent sales tax back in it, with the dividends tax removed and with the amount to be diverted from the highway fund fixed at three per cent of gross gasoline sales in the State, or between $1,630,000 and $1,790,000 a year, depending upon whether or not gasoline sales continue to increase.
But even with this increased amount to be diverted from the high-

No Point in Letting President Have Power To Draft Men When Congress Can Do It, Opponents Argue; Volunteer System Is Declared Unfair, Unjust

Washington, April 6.—(AP)—The House today voted down an attempt to delete from the McSwain anti-war profits bill its provisions for drafting man power in time of conflict.
It tossed aside amendments aimed at the clause by Representative Goldsborough, Democrat, Maryland, and Smith, Democrat, Virginia.
In so doing the House again supported indirectly its action yesterday in approving an amendment providing no drafted troops may be put on foreign territory except to prevent invasion of the United States.
"There is no point in letting the President have authority to draft the

U. S. Headed For Chaos If This Reckless Spending Is Kept Up, Babson Says

BY ROGER W. BABSON, Copyright by Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.
Babson Park, Fla., April 6.—I returned from my transcontinental trip optimistic concerning the course of business over the next two or three years, but I am not sure about what will follow. It is quite possible that many of my readers will live to see conditions far worse than those of the past three years.
I have just finished reading the income and expense report of the government for the first eight months of the fiscal year. It is appalling. For a long time, I have wanted to unburden my thoughts on government spending, but I have not dared talk frankly. Today, however, I feel that I must speak without mincing my words. This the most important message I have given you in months.

One Out of Five on Relief.

According to government figures, 23,375,000 people are now on relief—one person out of every five. This is an increase of 77 per cent over a year ago, yet business is at the same level as last April. The nation's workers in normal times total about 50,000,000. Subtract our present army of 6,000,000 Federal, State and local government employees and the 10,000,000 workers who are now jobless, and we have 34,000,000 working in private

GOES TO ROOSEVELT ON FISHING JAUNT

"Where's the Money Coming From?" Thomas Asks, Urging Printing Press Money To Pay It; Glass Says People Must Pay and Predicts Biggest Howl Yet Heard

Washington, April 6.—(AP)—The New Deal today staked $4,880,000,000—vastest peace-time appropriation in history—on its plans to swing from relief to public works while the nation watched to see who would be chosen to direct the task and just how the job would be tackled.
Showing a bit of last minute speed after 75 days of struggle and delay, Congress completed action on the mammoth measure yesterday when the Senate passed a conference report on it—66 to 13—and the House did likewise, 317 to 70.

The President, fishing off the Florida coast, was expected to sign the legislation into law as soon as it could be sent to him by airplane. Vice-President Garner and Speaker Byrns planned to affix their signatures today, winding up the congressional formality.

The question, "Where is the money coming from?" was raised in last-minute Senate debate yesterday. Senator Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, asserted there had been little talk about that phase of the matter and protested that the bill should contain a plan for issuing more silver back currency.

Senator Glass, Democrat, Florida, retorted the $4,880,000,000 would come from the tax payers, and when it

State Gets Large Road Work Funds

$19,575,000 for North Carolina Won't Have To Be Matched by the State

Washington, April 6.—(AP)—Representative Cartwright, Democrat, Arkansas, chairman of the House Roads Committee, announced today the apportionment by states of money to be expended for road construction and grade crossing elimination under the work-relief bill. The States do not have to match the fund.

Under the apportionment, North Carolina will receive a total of $19,575,000, of which $12,000,000 to be used on roads and $7,575,000 for grade crossing.

Raleigh, April 6.—Factional fuses between different groups in the Senate Finance Committee, especially between those who opposed the dividends tax section and those favoring the two per cent sales tax rate, are responsible for the delay in getting the revenue bill out of committee and before the Senate. It is generally agreed here. The House passed the revenue bill almost two weeks ago. Since that time it has been in the Senate Finance Committee, which has been wrangling over what to take out and what to leave in the bill.
