WALK AT NIGHT.

We who walked out at night alone Saw more than earth, saw more than stone. Wild roses, drowsy in the dew, The iris blue as sea is blue. We heard the rustle leaves can make As soft as waves along a lake. We heard the emerald like light. Trail their emerald like light. We saw two sheep beneath the trees And glow brighter than the stars.

Gill Saturday afternoon and enjoyed an Easter Egg Hunt, which was given them by their teachers, Mrs. B. L. Rowland, Mrs. T. L. Fuller and Mrs. R. L. Lassiter with Mrs. Alexander substituting for Mrs. Lassiter in her absence, which was caused by illness of her small daughter. The children, about 30 in number, united in playing games, swinging and other amusements until eggs were hidden; each teacher going in the opposite direction, hiding them. The hunt began and the interest and excitement increased as each discovered one egg after the other until all the eggs had been found. Russell Hayes, Margaret Brummitt and Bruce Hayes won the prizes for finding the largest number for their respective groups. The eggs were then collected and equally divided among the children.

The hostesses expressed their thanks to Mrs. Gill for her liberality and willingness to open her home so freely for the pleasure of others.—Reported.

Military Ball To Be Strictly Formal

The Military Ball that is to be staged at West End Country Club Thursday evening, May 2, at 10 o'clock in honor of the inspecting officers and visiting officers here for the inspection will be strictly formal, the committee on arrangements stated today. All military guests will wear uniforms. For the past two or three years, the ball has been an annual affair with the local officers as hosts, and it has taken its place upon Henderson's social calendar as one of the outstanding events of the year. It will be even more so this year, taking in a wider scope than heretofore, a large number of high ranking military officials in North and South Carolina being invited and expected to attend.

No announcement has been made as yet as to what orchestra will furnish the music but it will be of high order. Probably the outstanding event of the affair will be the presence of the Adjutant General of North Carolina, J. Van B. Metts and the Adjutant General of South Carolina, James B. Dozier. These, together with other high ranking officials in uniform, will lend a great deal of color to the affair.

The decorations to be used throughout the ball room will bear militaristic features.

When Change of Life Comes "I have used Cardui during the change of life and found it just right in my case," writes Mrs. Debbe Epperson, of Flat Lick, Ky. "I was very nervous. I could not rest at night. My friends recommended Cardui, and I started taking it. I obtained splendid results. Keeping Cardui and am in good health."

To improve nourishment, thereby helping to overcome nervousness and painful symptoms during change of life, try Cardui. Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Easter Dance to Be Outstanding Event

The outstanding social event of the Easter season will be the Easter Dance to be presented this evening from 10 until 2 o'clock in the ball room of the West End Country Club for its membership.

A number of guest cards have been secured from T. S. Kittrell, secretary of the organization, and a number of out of town people are expected to attend the festivities.

The dance this evening will depart somewhat from the regular routine that has prevailed at such functions of the club in that it will have a grand march, a figure and favors for those attending, as well as refreshments to be served at the intermission hour.

Dr. I. H. Hoyle, chairman of this event, and his committee, T. P. Gholson and J. H. Zollieffer, have planned many interesting features. The figure and grand march will be led by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Zollieffer and will be participated in by the members of the organization.

The ball room floor has recently been re-worked, getting it into the best shape possible for this evening's event, and everything points to a most enjoyable evening for the members and their guests.

Hal Thurston's well known orchestra, from Rocky Mount, has been secured to furnish the symphonies, and as a dispenser of rhythm, he has few his equal in this section.
