Secretary of Treasury Would Be Authorized To Pay Cash to Gold Clause Securities Holders or Exchange To Them Non-Gold Clause Bonds

Washington, June 27 (AP)—Legislation to tighten up any possible loopholes threatening the nation's new monetary systems was recommended to Congress today by President Roosevelt.

Before the termination of this session of the Congress, the President said in a special message, "I believe that it is important that definite action be taken to eliminate any uncertainty with respect to the right of holders of gold clause bonds of the government to sue for payment, either in gold or else in legal tender, with additional sums of 69 cents on every dollar.

"To this end, I urge the withdrawal by the United States of its consent to be sued upon its currency or securities."

"I recommend, therefore, the enactment of such legislation as will make clear that it is our fixed policy to continue to treat the bondholders of all our securities equally and uniformly to afford any holder of any gold clause security who thinks he could by

Hearings On Money Tax To Be Drawn Out

Washington, June 27.—(AP)—Discarding all efforts for high speed action on President Roosevelt's tax-the-wealth program, Democratic leaders today outlined schedules calling for weeks of hearings and debates.

Legislators said the House would not reach a showdown vote on the President's plan until the last week in July at the earliest, and that the Senate would act perhaps three to six weeks later.

These plans emerged from a tangled situation which found President Roosevelt disavowing any intention of seeking to push the taxes through Congress by Saturday night. He said emphatically yesterday that, while he

Raleigh, June 27.—Revenue collections by the State Department of Revenue for the present fiscal year, which ends Sunday night, will probably amount to $24,000,000 or perhaps even more, while sales tax collections may possibly reach $8,000,000 or very close to that amount. Total collections through yesterday amounted to $23,587,308 and the belief is that enough additional revenue will be received between now and Monday morning to bring this figure to $24-

Governor Last Hope

Eva Coo

Here is a recent photo of Eva Coo, who is scheduled to die in the electric chair at Ossining prison, New York, June 27, for the murder of Harry Wright, her handyman, unless Gov. Herbert Lehman commutes her sentence or grants a stay of execution.

Ossining, N. Y., June 27.—(AP)—Eva Coo, doomed to die in the electric chair tonight, clung desperately today to hope of an eleventh hour reprieve from Governor Herbert Lehman.

Men who have studied the legal currents which carry convicted killers through the death house believed she was grasping a straw.

Also hoping against hope for a reprieve was Leonard Scarnici, He, too, is under death sentence to die tonight.

Mrs. Coo was convicted of the insurance slaying of Harry Wright, handyman at her road house near Copperstown. Scarnici's conviction was for the hold-up killing of a Rensselaer detective.

Raleigh, June 27.—A total of 23,042 teachers have been allotted to the various county and city school systems in the State for the coming school year by the State School Commission, on the basis of the tentative allotment completed by the commission late Wednesday. But it is expected that this number will be increased by at least 300 additional teachers by the time the schools open since the commission will allot additional teachers in all schools where the allotment this fall exceeds the average daily attendance of last year to the point where another teacher or several more of teachers em-

Lives of All People Shaped Anew Without Chance Either To Approve or Protest

LABOR CAMP DUTY IMPOSED ON YOUTH

Even Foreigners Required To Participate in Air Pro- tection Exercises; Com- missioner of Culture En- trusted With Handling Church Controversy

Berlin, June 27.—(AP)—Dictatorial decrees went into effect today, shaping anew the lives of all Germans, without giving them a chance either to approve or protest.

Reichfuhrer Adolf Hitler's rubber stamp cabinet, meeting for the last time before the summer holidays, and four days before the first anniversary of the bloody June 30 Nazi "purge", adopted these measures:

1. Making labor camp service compulsory for 200,000 young men and 100,000 young women annually.
2. Demanding that every one in Germany, even foreigners domiciled here, participate actively in air protection exercises.
3. Authorizing revision of the penal code "in the light of national socialist tenets" and regulating trials.
4. Regulating official salaries.
5. Speeding up investigation of preliminary sterilization "in order to Boonford, N. C., June 27.—(AP)—Winfield F. Garland, 73, wealthy farmer, and Mrs. Buna Teague, 23, daughter of a renter on his farm, were found shot to death last night in a shed near Garland's home here.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict they were killed by parties unknown.

Odus Buchanan, Yancey county youth, was taken into custody this morning as a material witness, and search was launched for a suspect whose name was not disclosed.

Garland was found to have $6,000 in cash on his person.

Paralysis, Typhoid In State Rise

Seven New "Polio" Cases and Six New Typhoid Cases Re- ported to Raleigh

Raleigh, June 27.—(AP)—The number of cases of infantile paralysis in North Carolina this morning was increased to 183 today as the State Board of Health received seven new reports.

Typhoid fever, too, was shown to be increasing, as six new cases, making 78 this month, were listed.

Dr. Lloyd Aycock, director of research of the Harvard Infantile Paralysis Commission, arrived here this morning to study the poliomyelitis situation. Dr. Carl Reynolds, State health officer, reiterated his statement that the "epidemic" of paralysis is localized in the east central part of the State, despite reports of a new case this morning from Buncombe county.

Senate Accepts Measure Extending Nuisance Tax

One-Cent Gasoline Levy and Three-Cents Postage Con- tinue in Effect for Two Years from June 30, Date of Expiration of Original Law Now Operative

Washington, June 27.—(AP)—The Senate today approved a hurriedly negotiated conference agreement extending the $500,000,000 of nuisance taxes for two years.

Senate and House conferees a short while earlier agreed upon the two-year extension in the "nuisance taxes" which otherwise would expire at midnight Sunday.

As they reached that agreement, legislative drafting clerks were put to work by the House Ways and Means Committee on President Roosevelt's new wealth distribution taxes, with Chairman Doughton expressing the view that hearings would begin Tuesday.

They would impose levies on inheritances, gifts, incomes, above $1,000,000 a year and graduated taxes on corporations.

The separate nuisance tax extension resolution will be put through by Saturday, Democratic leaders asserted, predicting that both House and Senate would accept it without difficulty.

As originally passed by the House, it would have extended the expiring taxes two years from July 1. The Senate had reduced that to one.

The taxes affected include the one-cent-a-gallon Federal levy on gasoline and three-cent first class letter postage.

Old-Time Democrats Oppose Further Enroachment Upon Property

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Washington, June 27.—Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes well deserves such compliments as are paid to him for the elaborate and effective precautions, by means of which he has kept practically all smell of graft out of his expenditures of vast sums as PWA director.

Nothing more conclusively proves the legitimacy of his title to credit for PWA economies than the fact that they don't count to his credit with what are known as "practical politicians"—but decidedly the contrary.

To put it conservatively, this practical element considers that Ickes has been too careful.

DESIRES MONEY SPENT
The presidential group in Washington avowedly wanted money to be spent with a tolerably free hand.

It would seem that it was willing to risk a little graft, to get action. Its idea was to "prime the pump," and apparently its thought was that more or less overflow, in the process

NO LIQUOR BOUGHT AT WILSON AS YET

Probably Will Not Be Until Next Week, When Stores Are To Open

Daily Dispatch Bureau,
In the Sir Walter Hotel,
BY J. C. BASKERVILL.

Raleigh, June 27.—The Wilson county liquor commission has not yet purchased any liquor, not even on consignment, and the first liquor store probably will not be opened until next week, Chairman T. H. Woodard, of the board of county commissioners in Wilson county, told this correspondent today in a long distance conversation.

If any carloads of liquor have arrived there yet he does not know about it, and none of it was ordered by the county liquor commission, he said.

"The only liquor here that I know of is what the bootleggers have, and there seems to be plenty of that," Chairman Woodard said. "But the county liquor commission has not yet even organized and decided what it is going to do and has not placed any orders for any liquor yet."

Despite the suggestion of some people that the county should go ahead and operate its liquor stores, even if the Supreme Court should hold the present liquor acts unconstitutional, Wilson county will close up its liquor stores if the Supreme Court holds their operation illegal, Chairman Woodard said.

"The board of county commissioners in Wilson county is in favor of observing the law and if the Supreme Court should hold the liquor laws unconstitutional, we would have to close up our stores."

Raleigh, June 27.—Both the sales tax and liquor are going to be big issues in the campaign for the nomination for governor and lieutenant governor and the candidates that "get right" with the public first on these two important questions will be the ones nominated in the Democratic primary next June, according to most observers here.

While none of the four present candidates for governor and two candidates for lieutenant governor have publicly had anything to say about either the sales tax or the liquor question, the opinion is that all of them are going to have to take a definite position on both of these questions eventually. A good many here believe that the sooner the various candidates declare themselves on these two questions of the sales tax and prohibition, the better off they will be.

Father And Son Hanged As Slayers

St. Thomas, Ontario, June 27.—(AP)—A father and his son shielded from the rain by tarpaulins and guarded from the glances of the curious by a line of policemen, died on the gallows behind the walls of Elgin county jail today for the murder of a policeman.

Rather than have the youngster face a year-old bicycle theft charge, Frank, 52, and his son, Fred Temple, 21, alias Mark Temple, killed a policeman May 7, 1934.

The crown pronounced the case closed today with the fulfillment of a jury's finding and a judge's decree that they be "hanged by the neck until dead."

The father paid the penalty first, dropping through the hole in the wooden scaffold in the women's yard of the St. Thomas jail at 1:08 a. m., eastern standard time. He was pronounced dead ten minutes later.

Fred mounted to the steps to the seven-foot high platform on which official witnesses crowded in the glare of an electric light at 1:30 a. m. Thirteen minutes later he was pronounced dead.

Thinks Legislative Act Does Not Confer Special or Conclusive Pri- vileges

IMPOSES NO TAXES PLEDGES NO DEBTS

Court Holds General Assem- bly Has Right To Enact Special Statute and Then Exempt Certain Counties From It; Legislature Is Voice of People

Judge W. A. Devin refused in Vance Superior Court here today to grant injunctions preventing liquor control elections in Vance, Warren and Halifax counties, following a hearing on petitions brought by the United Drys in the three counties. As the result, Vance and Warren will hold their elections next Saturday and Halifax will vote the following Saturday, July 6.

Judge Devin dismissed a temporary injunction granted in Halifax last week by Judge R. Hunt Parker, and refused to grant an injunction for Vance and Warren counties. In the latter two instances no temporary injunction had been given, Judge Devin himself having issued summons here last week to the county commissioners and board of elections in each county to appear and show cause for not issuing a restraining order.

The court held that the liquor control act "does not confer special or exclusive privileges, except in the supposed public interest and in consideration of public services. Nor does it impose any tax nor necessarily pledge the faith of the county for the payment of any debt," as attorneys for the drys had argued.

Judge Devin stated in his ruling that "while personally I think the effort to control the liquor traffic should be by uniform laws applicable
