Pettis Terrell Joins Fats, Leans Clash Club to Play First Base; New Pitcher Coming

After being connected with baseball in Henderson for the past five or six years, Otto Fahlman today gave up the managerial reins of his Henderson Tourists, an entry in the Central State League, to Ed Powell, long a familiar figure in baseball here, and went to Rocky Mount, where he will manage and play first base for Purol Pep team in the Central Carolina League.

nal appearance in a Henderson uni- on through the season under Skipper form before taking over his new duties but a last minute cancellation of their game with Jalong in the league robbed him of his chance.

Ed Powell, the new manager, has been working out and playing with the club for sometime, and is very familiar with the club. He has been in baseball for a number of years and has a real baseball head on his shoulders.

The team will remain practicall intack with the exception of Pett Terrell, a semi-pro star in loca fields, who will take over the first base berth vacated by Pahlman. Ter rell is a fast runner, a nifty fielde and a fair hitter, and it is felt that he can occupy Pahlman's shoes without materially weakening the team. Det Pahlman reached his decision in going to Rocky Mount when that team approached him with a favorable offer carrying considerable cash, together with expenses, to come there Phil in a managerial capacity.

Powell plans to continue the entry in the Central State League, and will honor all passes sold by the former manager at the gate. The players will share the proceeds of the gate as their salary and the team will not be responsible for any debts incurred by the former manager. Pow- Pittsburgh 53 ell asked for the support of the fans in his undertaking, and he stated he would appreciate it if fans would tear up their season tickets and pay the regular admission at the gate to aid in financing the team.

The schedule for the week-end shows Oxford coming here Saturday afternoon for a league contest and La Crosse, Va., here Sunday for an exhibition tilt.

The new skipper plans to bolsten his pitching staff with a new hurlen but it will take a few days to get

Friday at 5 P. M. The Fats and Leans will clash again at League Park, this time meeting at 5 o'clock Friday for the third time during the season. The Leans have walked off with victories in the other meetings, each time by a two run margin. The Fats will be primed to give the skinny men a run for their weight in the third clash. All of this is for the benefit of the Salvation Army.

Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Canadian business man and statesman. born 50 years ago.

Tomorrow, August 1st, is another Statement Day, and we mean by this that the monthly statements of our patrons along with thousands and thousands of checks (around sixty) drawn against accounts during July will be distributed to the several hundred patrons of this bank who desire to receive their statements on the first of each month.

Quite a number of this bank's depositors, however, prefer their statements and cancelled checks every 60 or 90 days. Some of them, even beyond these periods (in addition to the sixty thousand above referred to). We are here, however, to comply with the wishes of our depositors in this respect and their statements and cancelled checks will be furnished them on any date they may specify.

People are beginning to learn more and more each day that it pays to pay bills and make purchases by check. In fact, only a few days ago one of the customers of this bank who adopted his method of handling his personal and household affairs about 3 months ago informed us that he had already saved several dollars in expenses by paying for his purchases and bills by check. It is mighty hard to keep up with where your money goes in paying it out in cash here and there. The check method is the ANSWER.

Citizens Bank & Trust Company

Henderson, North Carolina. FORTY-SIX YEARS OF SECURITY AND SERVICE the lynching was condemned by residents of the vicinity where it happened or by others in the county. The view was expressed that some Vance county citizens may have been in the mob that took the prisoner away from Sheriff Moore and deputies some five miles east of Louis burg as they were trying to get him to the Nash County jail at Nashville, 25 miles from Louisburg, for safe keeping. It was said that probably five or six automobile loads of infuriated citizens made up the mob that wrested the Negro from the officers who said they did not recognize any of those in the party.

Meantime, Governor Ehringhaus today had offered a reward of $400 for the "arrest, delivery and conviction" of the "unknown person or persons" the coroner's jury assembled by Franklin county Coroner R. A. Bobbitt found did Ward to death.

The investigation tomorrow morning will be conducted by Solicitor W Y. Bickett, of Raleigh, in charge of the seventh judicial district consisting of Wake and Franklin counties, before Judge W. C. Harris, of Raleigh, resident judge of the same district. There was no indication as to how long the injuiry would take, whether one day or two, or maybe more. Governor Ehringhaus has expressed his regrets at the lynching and the horrible crime that preceded it, and has said that he believed had he been advised of the situation in time he could have sent sufficient troops and State police to the scene to have prevented it. Ward felled Mr. Stokes with a rock and then went to his sister's home and obtained an axe, which he later chopped off the head of his victim. He then took it under his arm, together with the axe, and returned to the house, where he laid it on a chair and sat down to look at it. He had previously attacked Spurgeon Ayscue, well known young Vance county man of the Epsom community, inflicting an ugly wound in his forehead with a bottle when Ayscue told him to get out of the car after he had given him a lift. Ward also later attacked and seriously wounded his sister, in whose home he is understood to have been living, and who is the mother of several children. Funeral services for Mr. Stokes were held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at New Bethel Baptist church, of which he had been a prominent member for many years, and interment followed in the church cemetery. Rev. Charles Gillespie, the pastor, was in charge and the rites were attended by an immense throng of people. The Vance-Franklin line runs along a highway that lies between the church on the one side and the cemetery on the other.

In addition to Rev. Mr. Gillespie, a number of ministers in other churches in the vicinity assisted in the services. Masons had charge of the ceremony at the grave Mr. Stokes was a highly respected
