ALPINE GLOW.

Petunias of royal purple, Geraniums of deepest rose—They shine on my balcony's border And stir when the west wind blows.
On a background of deep blue mountain
The lovely picture glows:
Yet it cannot match for splendor With sunset, above, on the snows.
When the cold, white fields grow fervent
With fire of the deepest rose, That comes—like a sudden enchantment—
But anon, as swiftly—goes!

Shower Given For Miss M. Brinkley

Miss Clara Fenner entertained at a miscellaneous shower yesterday afternoon at her home on Garnett street in honor of Miss Margaret Brinkley, bride-elect.
Delicious refreshments in two courses were served to the members of the wedding party and friends who were present.

Students Club To Hold First Meet

The Students Club will hold its first meeting of the year Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Jones on Belle street, with Mrs.
Jones and Mrs. R. T. Upchurch as joint hostesses.
The Lecture Club, which for the past two years has been sponsored by the Students and the Alma Clubs, will be held again this year, the meetings of the Students Club being held separately.

Miss Weldon Has Unusual Record

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Weldon have returned from Murfreesboro where they carried their daughter, Miss Blanche Weldon, who will enter Chowan College for the coming term.
Miss Weldon was graduated at Epsom high school in May 1935, where she made an excellent record. For ten years she had a perfect attendance record, with only two days lost in the first grade. While in high school she was Franklin County health queen, won the redners and athletes medals and was voted the best all-around senior.

Birthday Party Given Saturday

Miss Lessie Buchanan and Edward Fleming entertained at a delightful party in honor of their thirteenth and fifteenth birthdays, Saturday evening from 6:30 to 10 o'clock.

The hostess and host received many attractive gifts. Games were played on the lawn; after which lemonade and cakes were served the following guests: Misses Frances Fleming, Lucille Floyd, Frances Gill, Mad-galene Faulkner, Rose Tucker, Grace Faulkner, Anne Fleming, Janie Gill, Hazel Stevenson, Lessie Buchanan, and Thomas Harris, Roger Faulkner, Thomas Floyd, Frank Thomas Vaughn, Wilton Wortham, B. C. Gill,

Royal Ambassadors Met On Tuesday

The Royal Ambassadors of the First Baptist church held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the church, with twenty boys present.

Murray Clayton, the new Ambassador in Chief, presided over the meeting. The topic for the day was "The Meaning of Stewardship." Mrs. L. E. Cansler, the counselor, gave an interesting and informing talk on the subject. Scripture was read by Glenn Powers followed by a prayer, which was led by Mrs. S. P.
Patterson.

The following boys talked on the subjects: "God's Ownership," by Virgil Elliott, "Stewardship of Life" by George Slack, "Stewardship of Money," by Elmus Pegrum. The program was closed by sentence prayers.
After the business session the members were invited to the church lawn where Mrs. W. K. Phillips served ice cream sandwiches.

Interesting P. T. A. Institute Held

The Eighth Annual Parent-Teacher Institute, which was postponed from a previous date in August, was held in Chapel Hill September 2-6 with a very good attendance from all over the state.
A total of 382 persons registered, an increase of 134 over last year, and a great many others attended one or more of the lectures. Certificates were awarded to 92 of these members who completed the required amount of work.
A great deal of interest was shown by all who attended the excellent talks and lectures which were given daily by the state's and nation's outstanding teachers and educators.
Mrs. Lawrence D. Wall and Mrs.
D. D. Hocutt attended the Institute from Henderson, and Mrs. L. E.
Barnes from the Zeb Vance school.
Mrs. Barnes received a certificate which will be awarded her at the District meeting to be held in Hillsboro some time in October.

B. P. W. Club Launches Its Program For Next Year

A large attendance of old members and the names of five new members started off the year's work of the Business and Professional Women's club with enthusiasm. Mrs. Naomi Jordan, who as President last year, carried the club through one of its most successful years, presided. At the May election of officers she was elected for another year. Miss Annie Lenny served as Secretary in the absence of the regular officer. The finance committee told of plans for raising money for the Loan Fund and other objects of the Club. Miss Agnes Pegrum, Social Chairman, told of plans for the annual outdoor weiner roast to be held the latter part of the month. Many matters of interest to the members were taken up.
Next month the regular programs will begin. With over 45 members the club is one of the largest local civic groups and next to the largest of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs in the State, although Henderson is one of the smaller cities having a club. Chairman of Membership, Miss Mary R. McElwee, presented the names of Mrs. R. S.

Celebrates Sixth Birthday at Party

Little Miss Ruth Robertson entertained at her home in the Sandy Creek Community, August 29, from 2 to 6 o'clock, celebrating her sixth birthday.
The hostess received many attractive gifts from the guests, who were entertained by playing games. Ice cream and cake were served to the following children: Clarence Faulkner, Jr., Miss Mildred and Rebecca Hoyle, Bill and Preston Edwards, Miss Sylvia Frazier, John, Julian, Lewis and Bobby Frazier, Miss Bessie Robertson, Med and Junious Robertson, Gray, Edgar and A. L., Jr., Faulkner, D. T. Ayscue, Jr., Auston Ayscue and Harold Nelson.

Old Bute Chapter Hears Mr. Kittrell

T. S. Kittrell gave a most interesting address to the Old Bute Chapter of D. A. R. on "The Constitution of the United States of America." He received the historic facts connected with the adoption of this great instrument of law, also the history of the adoptions of later amendments.
He discussed the flexibility of the interpretation of the constitution and how later legislation has altered the significance of its meaning.
Mrs. Sidney P. Cooper delightfully entertained the Old Bute Chapter, D.
A. R. at her country home, "Renaissance Lodge" Tuesday evening, September 10, 1935. The meeting was called to order by the Regent, Mrs. M. J.
O'Neill, who greeted the chapter at this, its opening meeting of the year, with words urging interest and cooperation in the new year's work.
She outlined the work of the D. A.
R. as "National Defense for Peace," that the chapter take an active interest in the local units of our National Guard who are pledged to help preserve peace at all times and not to unite with any organization that would be detrimental to their service to preserve the traditions and conditions of our government. She also urged special interest in civic work for the good of the health of our community.
Mrs. W. T. Rowland, chairman of the program committee, presented the attractive year books for 1935-36.
The speaker of the evening, Mrs.
Thomas Skinner (Kittrell) was introduced with a few fitting remarks by Mrs. W. T. Rowland.
The meeting closed with the reading of a beautiful poem "Prayer for America" by Mrs. J. H. Bryan.
After the meeting Mrs. Cooper assisted by her daughter, Mrs. D. Boyd Kimball, Jr., served delicious refreshments in two courses.
Mrs. Cooper had as her special guest for the evening Mrs. Glen Leath of Crewe, Va.

Baptist Mission Society Will Meet In Wake Forest

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church has been invited to meet with the Society of the Baptist Church at Wake Forest next Monday to hear Miss Sophie Lanneau, who is on her tour through the missionary work in China. She is a native of Wake Forest and has spent many years teaching English in Soochow, China. Her visits home are always enjoyed by her friends and she will no doubt have many things of interest to tell to the joint meeting next Monday. The hour set is four o'clock and if any change is made there will be a notice to that effect in the paper. Circle leaders are asked to confer with their Chairmen of Transportation and to arrange for cars to carry all members who can go.
Mrs. D. H. Eryan, president of the Wake Forest Society, has written a most cordial invitation to the group here and she hopes that we would be able to go in large numbers. Because of the rigid requirements of the Mission Board, returned missionaries can only make a limited number of talks as they must rest and recuperate so that when their time returns to their fields comes, they are in fine physical shape. This meeting will take the place of the regular monthly meeting which was to have been held here next Monday. For any further information call Mrs.
Green, the local president.—Reported.

American Legion Auxiliary Held Its Meeting Recently

The American Legion Auxiliary held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Mangum, of Belle street, with Mrs. David Bryan, Mrs.
T. W. McCracken, Mrs. Morton Miles and Mrs. F. S. Upchurch as joint hostesses.
The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. L. Wester, and was opened with the Lord's prayer, followed by the pledge to the Flag, led by Miss Agnes Pegrum.
Committee reports were as follows:
Mrs. J. W. Jenkins, local rehabilitation chairman, reported help given seven cases in amount $13.38. Mrs.
H. A. Newell, child welfare chairman reported groceries given amounting to $5.00.
A full account of the Legion convention held at Fayetteville was given by Mrs. D. T. Dickie, Mrs. W. B.
Hight and Mrs. H. A. Newell.
Memorial services for the deceased member and loyal co-worker, Mrs.
Emily Harris Farris, were held. Resolutions of respect were read by Mrs. J. W. Jenkins, and Mrs. J. M.
Baitly read a lovely and fitting tribute to her.
Officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. J. L. Wester as follows:
President, Mrs. H. A. Newell.

ley, Mrs. Guy Pitts, Mrs. A. C. Hus-keth, Mrs. J. C. Gardner, Mrs. J. C.

Shaw Philathea Meets at Church

The Shaw Philathea Class held its regular monthly meeting Monday night in the basement of the church with Madames N. A. Tucker, C. E.
Page, M. C. Miles and R. B. Dickerson as hostesses. The meeting was opened with a song, "Stand Up For Jesus." Mrs. W. C. Stainback led the Devotionals. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and committee reports given. New committees were appointed; Room: Mrs.
F. E. Pinnell, Door: Mrs. C. H. Gil-land, Sick: Mrs. J. L. Mabry and Historian, Mrs. S. Miller. Personal Service: Mrs. C. E. Daniel, and Mrs. M.
G. Davis; Teachers: Mrs. J. M.
Hughes and Mrs. J. C. Stainback.
New program committee appointed to serve three months: Mrs. M. G.
Davis, Mrs. C. E. Daniel and Mrs.
J. G. Faulkner.
After the business session was over the meeting was turned over to the program committee who had planned a very enjoyable program. Mrs.
Pirie Poythress very charmingly told an Uncle Remus story. In the Worthy Women contest, Mrs. J.
Franklin Mills won the prize. The hostesses served iced tea and sandwiches.
Mrs. Harton Returns.
Mrs. C. D. Harton has returned from Raleigh, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Martin.

Marian Martin Pattern
PATTERN 9599
The soul of simplicity, and new as Autumn, this fresh, youthful style which wends its becoming way right into your wardrobe and into your heart. The turn-down collar and three buttons give a tailored look to the bodice. The sleeves go joyful with a dresy puff over the elbow, and shirring here and there. The skirt has a single, action-pleat, but one's enough, don't you think? This is a style attuned to one of the new light-weight crepes, or to a corded cotton or soft rabbit's hair wool.
Tuck a velvet bow beneath the tiny collar if you feel you want some contrast. Complete. Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart included.
Pattern 9599 may be ordered only in sizes 12 14 16 18 20 30 32 34 36 38

CARDUI DURING MIDDLE LIFE
While she was going through the change of life, Mrs. Susan Price, of Hallsboro, N. C., was "very weak at times, and had to go to bed," she writes. "I couldn't sleep well and didn't have an appetite. I was so nervous, I was always looking for something bad to happen. I read of Cardui and took it. It helped my nerves so much and gave me strength and built me up. I took Cardui off and on for two years. . . . I have recommended Cardui to other people, hoping they would be helped and given strength as I was with this good remedy."
Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.
