

PEYTON ROGERS ON BABY DEACS SQUAD

Former Henderson High Three Sport Star Seeking Backfield Berth

Peyton "Ripper" Rogers, former three-sport star at Henderson high school, is now a member of the freshman football squad at Wake Forest College, being a candidate for a backfield berth.

Reports from the Baptist institution show that the school has very good yearling backfield material but the line stock is not rated so highly. The team opens its card tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock against the Techlets at State College, Raleigh. Rogers is one of the outstanding athletes turned out at the local high school in recent years.

Snavelly Pushes Tar Heels Hard For Deacon Encounter

No Let-Up in Carolina Preparations for Hard Opening Game—This Will Be Last Game Carolina Plays at Home Until Last Week in October

Chapel Hill, Sept. 26.—Carolina supporters Saturday will get their first, last and only chance to see the Tar Heels in action on their home field until the last week in October, exactly a month away. The Tar Heels clash with the Demon Deacons in Kenan Stadium at 2:30 o'clock.

Following the Wake Forest encounter the Blue and White will be away for three successive week-ends, at Tennessee, Maryland and Davidson in order. Not until October 26 when Georgia Tech comes to the Hill in a Homecoming affair will Carolina play at home again.

And those fans who think that the Tar Heels will not open up Saturday are sadly fooling themselves. Coach Snavelly is making detailed plans to turn on the heat against the strongly fortified Deacons. To watch the practice sessions of the Tar Heels one would think the Carolina mentor is preparing for either Tennessee or Maryland or Duke, passing of course, is holding the biggest attention of his work.

The Carolina scouts who witnessed the Duke-Wake Forest clash brought back reports which set the Tar Heels to honest-to-goodness work. Bert Shore piled up many of the Duke end runs; Captain Park Reinhardt, played bang-up ball at center; Walt Kitchen fired away with astounding accuracy with his passes; Tex Edens punted the oval with an average in the forties. Such things as these do not point to an easy victory for Carolina.

ANOTHER DRILL TO GET STATE READY

Short Drill Under Lights at Riddick Field Friday Ends Week's Work

College Station, Raleigh, Sept. 26.—A short practice tomorrow night in Riddick Stadium will conclude State College's practice for its season opener Saturday evening with Davidson at Greensboro.

Greensboro officials have announced that the game will start at 8 o'clock. It will play in Memorial Stadium.

After the Wolfpack has run a few plays tomorrow night, and has taken a final look at Davidson's offense—both ground and aerial—Coach Hunk Anderson will call it a night.

A similar program will greet the Wolves in their work tonight. The practice, however, will be longer and will include another session on blocking. Coach Anderson believes the Wolves will block better this year than they did a year ago.

Captain Barnes Worth, right guard, and Steve Sabol, fine all-Southern center, will lead the Wolfpack in its battle with the Wildcats. They are the only men starting Saturday night who were in the starting line-up last year. Sabol is ranked among the nation's best centers.

Coach Anderson hopes his sophomores will come through against Davidson with the same brand of play they exhibited this past winter in off-season drills. "If they do we should beat Davidson by one touchdown," Anderson said.

Whistler, the artist was trying to help a fellow-artist out by getting his picture displayed at the exhibition. Hot with rage, Whistler's friend came rushing to him with the story his picture was hung on the wall, but upside down! "Hush!" said Whistler to him, "let it stay that way—it was refused a place the other way."
