TWENTY-SECOND YEAR

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Winning Hurler

Lon Warneke

 $NRA\ Still$

Has Heavy

Washington, Oct. 2.—(AP)— The

NRA, whose codes were struck down

more than 2,750 employees scattered

The majority are employed in Wash ington, but a check-up at NRA headquarters today disclosed that a field

force of 618 is stationed in the 48

A breakdown of the NRA personnel as of September 30 shows North

HISTORIC MARKERS

Penn Home Two of First

To Be Marked

BY J. C. BASKERVILLE,

50 historic markers to be erected along North Carolina highways point-with an option on 100 additional mar-

(Continued on Page Three.)

TO BE AGREED ON

Daily Dispatch Bureau,

In the Sir Walter Hotel,

throughout the nation.

Carolina having nine.

HENDERSON, N. C. WFDNESDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 2, 1935

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOOM

FIVE CENTS COPY

MOBILIZATION OF

10 MILLION CALLED

THROUGHOUT ITALY

Duce Speaks to 20,000,000

FIGHTING IN AFRICA IS REPORTED BEGUN

CUBS DEFEAT VOLUNTARY POTATO CONTROL PLAN NOW TIGERS 3 TO 0

Warneke Masters Tigers, Allowing Them Only Four Sateties; Walks Four

ROWE STRIKES OUT EIGHT OF THE CUBS

Detroit Hurler Hurls Nice Game But Not Equal to the Performance of Cub Hurler; Demaree Gets Homer In Ninth; Two Hits, Two Errors Aid Cubs in First

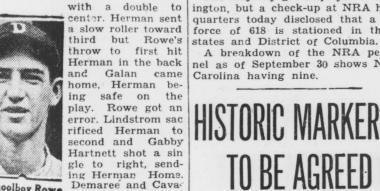

Navil Field, Detroit, Mich., Oct. 2—The Chicago Cubs whip ped the Detroit Tigers here this afternoon 3 to 0 in the first World's Series game behind the superb pitching performance of Lon Warneke, ace of the National League pennant winners pitching staff, and Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe turned in a nice performance for the Tigers, but could not equal Warneke.

WEATHER ALMOST IDEAL AT FIRST OF SERIES GAMES Detroit, Mich., Oct. 2 .- (AP) - A bright sun broke through an early morning mist today and brought cheer to World Series players and

Although the temperature dropped to the mid-thirities last night, indications were that it would rise well into the 60's by game time.

That First Inning The Cubs sewed the game up in the first inning when little Augie Galan, fleet-footed leftfielder led off

Schoolboy Rowe

Warneke Is Master Lon Warneke was master of the situation all the way through except for the last of the fourth when he

retta were easy

(Continued on Page Two.)

Speeding Up Employment ing spots of historic interest, will be received by the Division of Purchase and Contract October 10, together Expected | Rers at the same piece, it was an nounced today by Director A. S. Brower, of the division. Bids had previously been called for on these marriages at the same piece, it was an nounced today by Director A. S. Brower, of the division. Bids had previously been called for on these marriages.

Those Who Won't vation and Development and the State Historical Commission before it was Work on Other Jobs the bids had to be let through the Will Get no WPA Work Under Plan

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel.

BY J. C. BASKERVILLE, Raleigh, Oct. 2-The procedure being followed by the Works Progress Administration, under which the State and district WPA officials will select the projects to be undertaken out of a large list of approved projects, will not only provide relief work where it is needed most, but will tend to stimulate private employment as well, according to those familiar with the WPA program. There

(Continued on Page Four.)

APPEARS PROBABLE

Funds for Financing Program Seem To Be Available from U.S. Customs Receipts

COTTON CONTROL TO BE HELPED THAT WAY

After That Sum Has Been Taken Care of, However, $50,000,000 or More Would Be Left for Potatoes; Ehringhaus Wires Hutson Urging Quick Enforcement

Washington, Oct. 2.-(AP)- AAA leaning toward a voluntary potato control program as a substitute for a compulsory tax control plan, grew more pronounced today as one offi cial privately indicated a possible source of funds for financing a voluntary program-customs receipts.

The AAA amendments recently pass ed provide that 30 percent of the gross customs receipts shall be set aside for the Farm Administration. Comptroller General McCarl recently held that part of the funds might be used to pay a subsidy on the 1935

Officials have estimated that 30 percent of the customs receipts at the present rate of collections would a-mount to more than $100,000,000 anhually.

In a proposed budget submitted to the comptroller general, the Farm Administration estimated that a maximum of $50,000,000 would be needed for the cotton subsidy. Even so, one official figured that from $50,000,000

(Continued on Page Four.)

Decomposed Body Unemployed Man At Gastonia Found Payrolls

Gastonia, Oct. 2 (AP)-The decomposed body of Coy B. Sims, 31-year-old unemployed Gastonia man, was found in a patch of woods west of Gastonia last night, and authorities said this morning an autopsy indiby the Supreme Court, at present has cated he had been murdered by a blow on the head, possibly sometime > Coroner L. E. Kincaid revealeed police were looking for a mna seen with Sims Sunday afternoon, but refused to reveal his name immediate-

Sunday.

An empty pocketbook and several grocery orders on the local welfare partment store were found on Sims' person.

JOB PLACEMENTS

Green Hill House and John Registration of Unemployed In State Offices Also. Increasing

> Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel,

BY J. C. BASKERVILLE,

Raleigh, Oct. 2.-Placements by the Raleigh, Oct. 2.—Bids on the first various offices of the National Reemployment Service in the State are increasing each week, as well as registrations, the weekly reports from and Contract October 10, together the various district offices show, Mrs May Thompson Evans, State director of the RES, said today. For the kers at the same price, it was anweek ending September 21, the last for which complete figures are available, the district which has its prinkers by the Department of Conser- cipal office in Kinston lead all the other districts in the number of placements, with 368, of which 196 realized that in order to be binding were tobacco workers. This district is composed of Lenior, Greene, Pitt,

(Continued on Page Four.)

Crossing Fund For State Is Approved

Raleigh, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Elimination | dent for final approval. of grade crossings in North Carolina under a $1,579,000 program was seen are many localities in the State where lic Roads, informed State authorities ployment of 1,165 men for varying peaging a fraction less than 20 cents a that he had favorably passed on the riods of time, has been given appound on sales roughly estimated to project and had sent it to the Presi- proval.

Capus M. Waynick, state highway and public works commissioner, was grumbling in the Virginia Old Belt totoday as Thomas H. MacDonald, informed by MacDonald that the parchief of the Federal Bureau of Pub- tial program, which will mean em- yesterday's opening day prices, aver-

Charges 'Chiseling'

Mrs. Anna Sage

After styling herself the sole betrayer of John Dillinger and telling the sensational story of how she put the late desperado on the spot, Mrs. Anna Sage, above, charged the government with "chiseling" on its promise for the "spotting" of the one-time Public Enemy No. 1. Mrs. Sage, known as the "woman in red", alleges the price for her tip was to have been the cancellation of deportation proceedings against her. Her sensational story of the slaying and promises of G-men won for her a habeas corpus writ and an order for a court hearing from Federal Judge John P. Barnes in Chicago.

His Strategists Didn't Want Him to Say too Much This Early

INQUIRY RESULT BAD

Reaction from Questionnaire to Preachers Largely Unfavorable; Went With FDR Told

By CHARLES P. STEWART Washington, Oct. 2.- Ostensibly President Roosevelt took Secretary of the Interior Ickes and Relief Administrator Hopkins with him on his west ern trip to consult with, in connection with conditions revealed during the party's trip across the continent. Washington talk is to the effect that in reality he took them because he was afraid to leave them together in the capital, unrestrained by his influence, to fight their multiplicity of differences of opinion out "a l'out-

HOW WILL CATS JUMP? Originally it unquestionably was the intention to have the President make a large number of speeches on this

Postmaster General Farley is said (Continued on Page Three.)

Dissatisfaction In State, But Complaints Made in Virginia

Winston-Salem, Oct. 2.- (AP)-Few expressions of dissatisfaction were heard today over opening prices on the Old Bright tobacco belt. Reports from over the belt indicated a price average of better than 21 ents a pound.

More than 1,000,000 pounds were bid n here today. The market averaged $21.70 per hundred yesterday. Chalking up a new record, 1,462,012 pounds were sold, nearly double the receipts of opening day last year. Prices today apparently are about the same

GRUMBLING MINGLES WITH SATISFACTION IN VIRGINIA Richmond. Va., Oct. 2.-(AP)-

There was mingled satisfaction and total 3,000,000 pounds.

Roosevelt Views Fleet Maneuvers Out Of San Diego

President Has Been Greeted by Unprecedented Crowds On Trip Across Continent

CLIMAX IN STADIUM NEAR LOS ANGELES

Appeals for Unification Of Liberal Forces and Is Cheered Heartily; Visits Exposition Late Today and Takes to Cruiser Houston To Go to Sea

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 2.-(AP)-President Roosevelt paused on the southwestern tip of the nation today after his trans-continental tour for an address before embarking on his longdeferred cruise of the Pacific to the Panama Canal.

The twinkling beams of "blinker" nessages among the United States fleet flashed beyond his hotel window throughout the night here preparatory to today's naval demonstra-

Mr. Roosevelt reached here to attend the California Pacific Exposition obviously thrilled by the smiling faces and cheers of the million or more people who have greeted him on the way to the coast.

The further west he moved the greater became the crowds and the climax was reached yesterday in Los Angeles, where he received perhaps his greatest reception and one seldom equalled for any man.

Throughout a 56-mile tour of the city, including public works projects, the President was met at every corner and along every street by citizens Before 60,000 to 75,000 gathered in the Olympic Stadium, he called for unification of "liberal" forces and was cheered heartily.
Intimates of the President were in-

(Continued on Page Three).

Northampton Man Killed En Route To World Series

Roanoke Rapids, Oct. 2 (AP)-Friends here today received word that Fritz Stephenson of Jackson was killed in an automobile accident near Fremont, Ohio, last night while enroute to Detroit for the World Series.

M. C. Newsom, of Roanoke Rapids, and Elton Outland, of Woodland, other members of the party suffered injuries. Newsom's jaw was fractured and Outland received head injuries.

on British toes in Egypt. And if percussion will be strongest in Eng-

Nation's Favorable Trade Versailles peace treaty, which was not a treaty of peace but an instru-Balance Likely Smallest In Forty Years.

Washington, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Heavy ncreases of American imports of food stuffs during the first half of 1935 were reported today by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Chamber statisticians, noting anong other things a 117 percent jump in wheat imports and a 356 percent rise in cattle imports, attributed the increase to the drought and higher domestoic prices.

Their review of imports followed publication last night of an analysis of recent foreign travel, which they said indicated the year-and would show the smallest favorable trade bal. ance in forty years.

OUR WEATHER MAN

FOR NORTH CAROLINA. Fair, slightly cooler in extreme south portion and near the coast; light frost in mountains and north west polition tonight; Thursday generally fair and warmer.

Mrs. Margaret S. Sayre, who owns farm near East Orange, N. J., is seeking to organize a nation-wide league of "Minute Women" to oppose new taxes and further govern ment spending. She's a descendant of a Revolutionary soldier. (Central Press)

British Feel

Bankruptcy

And Italy Owes Britain Three Billion

Dollars; England Is

By LESLIE EICHEL

New York, Oct. 2.-The British believe that Italy is close to bankruptcy. That may prevent a war, but it is no cause for British rejoicing.

Italy owes the British government three billion, 55 millions of dollars.

Then there are millions in private

The British are between the devil and the deep blue sea. They do not desire Italy to intrude farther into Africa, for that would mean stepping trade sanctions are applied, the reland, whose trade and credit intertwine the world and are of delicate

The entire situation stems from the tions were treatde as prisoners of True, Italy was on the victorious side, but France and Great Brtiain

and the new states they created left

The Versailles treaty sowed fanatic

As to sanctions, a Britisher, a So-

(Continued on Page Three.)

hate—and the fearful crop has ripenwar and stripped to the bone.

little for Italy.

ed to harvest

CANCTIONS

In Tight Spot

credit.

Starts Tax Revolt of His Countrymen in Determination To

Fight Ethiopia

Declares He Doesn't Believe British and French People Will Approve Sanctions Against Italy; Selassie Protests Italian Invasion of His Soil

Addis Ababa, Oct. 2.—(AP)— High authorities said tonight that Emperor Haile Selassie will proclaim his general mobilization of Ethiopian forces at 9 a. m. (1 a. m. eastern time tomorrow).

Paris, Oct. 2 (AP)—The Addis Ababa correspondent of the newspaper Paris Soir reported today that fighting between Italian and Ethiopian troops had broken out in the Mussa Ali region of Ethiopia. He reported that there had been casualties.

(Previous reports from Addis Ababa said there were no Ethiopian troops in the Mussa Ali vicinity.)

The newspaper said three advancing columns of Italians numbering 25,000 men battled with irregular Danakil tribal warriors, but that they had not yet engaged Ethiopian re-

WILL BEAR SANCTIONS WITH GREAT DISCIPLINE Mussolini told his millions of fervent followers that "a solemn hour s about to break in history." He made this declaration to the nultitudes of Italians assembled in all their cities and villages—rank up-on rank—around loud speakers which conveyed their leader's words to the expectant throngs.

(A few hours before Il Duce began his speech Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia protested to the League of Nations that Italian troops already had crossed his frontiers.)

Virtually the entire population of Italy had gathered in a general mobilization at the call of Mussolini to hear their leader's words.

Although the call had been expect. ed for some time, ti was flashed out today only three hours before Mussolini began speaking. "Black shirt

(Continued on Page Two.)

Geneva Now Is Shrouded With Despair

Geneva. Oct. 2 - (AP) - Gloom pordering on despair seized the Lague of Nations headquarters today almost simultaneously with the proment of revenge. The defeated na- test of Emperor Haile Selassie against an alleged Italian invasion of Ethiopia news came from Rome that the Italians were beginning their mess mobilization to demonstrate their national soldarity.

"It looks like the beginning," ccmnented one Lague official. He pointed out that "the pres nt uncertainty is likely to remain until after Mussolini has spoken, but li tle hope prevails that he will say a lything to refute the general belief here that he is determined to go ahead."

Selassie Protests Anew With League

(By The Asociated Press) tions over a reported invasion of Ethio Ethiopian frontier. pia by Italian forces at a juncture of Eritrea and French Somaliland.

of his note of protest to Geneva the lating as to whether Great Bri in Italian government summoned the would request France to join in an citizens of Italy to a test mobiliza- air blokade of Italy if sanctions vere tion at which it was estimated 10,- imposed against Italy. 000,000 Fascist men and women would hear the message directly from the lips of Premier Mussolini.

Although the Italian government denied troop movements had ta en Emperor Haile Selassie today pro- place in East Africa, it continued to tested directly to the League of Na- dispatch fighting men toward he

In Geneva, where pessimism 'as pronounced, it was reported that I sa-Simultaneously with the dispatch gue of Nations officials were spou-

All Italians in Ethiopia were . rdered by their minister to be out of

Continued on Page Three.)